Ottawa, August 13, 1915.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 6th instant, with enclosure I beg to say that in view of Henry Callihoe's apology for former misconduct, and his apparent willingness to work and do what is right in future, he may be given the implements which he returned to you and which you allowed Pierre Valade's son to use.

You may purchase, on a cash basis, a wagon, plow and harrow for Valade's son to replace those returned to Callihoe and the cost will be charged to the Band's Interest Account.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy Secretary.
