

- Q. What else did you do at that time? What else did you do to try and find a home for your family?
- A. Major Davies gave me a week-end leave and I came to Calgary to look for a place. My wife and I and the children walked all over Calgary and everywhere I went in Calgary, as soon as they seen we had children they would not rent it. We took the children home and that night wife and I got into the truck and drove all around the outskirts of Calgary. As soon as we told them we had children they would not accept us.
- Q. Would you tell the Court what happened after you came to Currie?
- A. When I came to Currie I asked for leave at Currie.
- Q. Who did you ask for leave?
- A. Captain Neal.
- Q. Did you ask your Company Commander?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Why did you ask for leave then?
- A. I wanted to settle up my affairs and find a place for my family because winter was coming on and I wanted to get a home for my family. Winter was coming on and I knew they couldn't stay in the shack all winter.
- Q. Did you have any money to find a home for them?
- A. When I sold my stuff I figured to build a house.
- Q. What happened when you asked for leave?
- A. They told me there was no possible chance, to get leave of any kind.
- Q. Did you get any leave?
- A. Yes, sir. I got one half a day.
- Q. What did you do on that half day?
- A. I went downtown and tried to settle up my affairs and to try and sell my logs and equipment. It came six o'clock and still I had no place for my wife and family, so I started looking around.
- Q. Did you sell the equipment that you spoke of?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Did you sell it after that time?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. How much did you get for it?
- A. Six dollars a thousand for my logs. 150 dollars for my horses.
- Q. How much did you expect to get for those logs?
- A. I expected to get nine dollars a thousand, sir.
