

revealed the extent to which they could agree to accept the comments and amendments proposed by the other Committee members.

The ENDC is resuming its 1968 session on January 18. The members will be hopeful of receiving a revised document from the Co-chairmen which would enable fruitful discussions to take place in the Committee. Since the General Assembly has asked for a report on the NPT discussions in the ENDC by March 15, the Committee cannot afford to lose any time. ⁽¹⁾

(1) A complete revised draft NPT tabled in the ENDC on January 18, 1968, will be dealt with in a subsequent edition of External Affairs.
