

- Farmers' Alliance, 233; and Knights of Labor at St. Louis, 235
- Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions of the United States and Canada, 89
- Female Industry Association, 56
- Female Labor Reform Association, 55
- Field, J. G., 236
- Finance, demand for capital after Civil War, 64-65; reform as political issue, 231; People's party platform, 236; see also Panics, Taxation
- Firemen's Magazine, 155, 156
- "Five Stars," see Knights of Labor
- Flynn, E. G., 208
- Force, Peter, 24
- Foster, F. K., The Labor Movement, the Problem of Today, quoted, 75-76
- Fox, Martin, 116
- France, syndicalism in, 188; general strikes, 200
- Free Enquirer*, 222
- Friendly Societies, 168
- Furuseth, Andrew, 247
- Garretson, A. B., 151, 152
- General Trades' Union of New York City, 31
- George, Henry, 234; Evans precursor of, 48
- Glassblowers' Union, 124
- Goldfield (Nev.), I. W. W. at, 202
- Goldman, Emma, on syndicalism, 198; on general strikes, 199
- Gompers, Samuel, President of American Federation of Labor, 94 et seq.; early life, 94; national lobbyist for Federation, 99, 247; organizes American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, 101; on Council of Defense, 102; heads American labor mission to Europe (1917), 104-105; and Berne labor conference, 105-06; contribution to Paris treaty of peace, 106-07; and Socialism, 107-108; personal characteristics, 108; sentenced to imprisonment, 182, 254; birth day occasion of gift to Danbury union, 184; on American Labor party, 255; experience at London Conference (1918), 256-58
- Government control of public utilities, People's party demands, 236
- Government operation of railroads, Brotherhoods' plan for (1919), 167
- Government ownership, National Labor party on, 230 (note)
- Government Printing Office, Roosevelt espouses openshop in, 248
- Grangers, help organize National Union party, 233; join Workingman's party in California, 240
- Granite City (Ill.), early morning strikes in steel mills, 210-11
- Granite Cutters' National Union, 124
- Gray's Harbor (Wash.), I. W. W. in, 212
- Great Britain, American institutions modeled after those of, 1-2; survey of industrial system, 2 et seq.; ten-hour law in, 53; British Trades Union as model for American Federation, 88; labor leaders in, 123; labor compared with that of America, 124