

BETTER THAN EVER

The Epworth League Reading Course

For

1899-
1900

Four Splendid Books at Half of Regular Price Now Ready

I. The New Citizenship

By SAMUEL ZANE BATTEN, D.D.

A book on Christian character in its biblical ideals, sources, and relations. 301 pages.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS—

Visions and Ideals.
The Guide Book.
The Road Over Calvary.
The Inner Room.
Past the Dead Points.
The Less Honored Virtues.
The Transfigured Task.
Through Vanity Fair.
In Mill and Market.
The Citizen and His Politics.
The Palace Beautiful.
Gaining the Crown.

"I have been more than pleased with 'The New Citizenship.' It is evangelized in its teachings, practical in its applications to daily life, and written in admirable literary style."—Rev. Dr. Withrow.

"I have read, with unusual pleasure, 'The New Citizenship.' I have no reserve in stating that it is the best book I have ever read on these important lines."—Rev. J. E. Lancelot.

II. The Marvels of Our Bodily Dwelling

By HARRY WOOD-ALLEN, F.D.

This is a popular work on Physiology, written in a charming way. The human body is likened to a house, and many striking illustrations are drawn therefrom. 272 pages, and 17 illustrations.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS

The Framework.
The Walls and Machinery.
The Plumbing.
The Cupola.
The General Office.
The Kitchen.
The Store-room.
The Dining Room.
The Force Pump.
The General Manager.
The Laboratory.
The Wonderful Clock.
The Photographic Camera, Etc., Etc.

"I have read, with unusual pleasure, 'The Marvels of Our Bodily Dwelling.' The author possesses scientific knowledge of her subject."—J. S. Deacon, Esq., Inspector Public Schools, County of Halton.

"Mrs. Wood-Allen's book is well written, in a very interesting way, and should be widely read."—Inspector Jas. L. Hughes, Toronto.

"This book presents the leading points in hygiene in an extremely interesting and impressive way."—A. W. Down, Esq., President Ontario Educational Association.

III. Among the Forces

By BISHOP WARREN

This volume treats of the great forces of Nature, and most appropriately follows "The Fairyland of Science." It is illustrated by 20 superb engravings.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS—

The Man Who Needed 452,696 Barrels of Water.
The Sun's Great Horses.
Old Sun Help.
Moon Help.
Star Help.
The Fairy Gravitation.
The Fairy Pulls Great Loads.
The Fairy Works a Pump Handle.
The Help of Inertia.
Natural Affection of Metals.
Natural Affection Between Metal and Liquid.
Some Curious Behavior of Atoms.
Our Enjoyment of Nature's Forces.
The Matterhorn.
The Grand Canyon of Colorado.
The Yellowstone Park Geysers.
The Power of Vegetable Life.
Spiritual Dynamics.

"Bishop Warren's 'Among the Forces' reads like a romance. The young people will revel in it."—Rev. A. Carson, D.D.

IV. Beacon Lights of the Reformation

By REV. W. H. WITHROW, D.D.

The leading facts of the Reformation are presented in the form of intensely interesting biographies of the leaders of thought and action. Profusely illustrated.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS—

INTRODUCTION.
John Wycliffe.
John Huss and Jerome of Prague.
Girolamo Savonarola.
Martin Luther.
Ulrich Zwingli.
John Calvin.
Gaspard de Coligny.
William Tyndale.
John Knox.
Thomas Cranmer.
Hugh Latimer and Nicholas Ridley.

This volume has not been published long enough for any testimonials to be received; but none are needed, as the Doctor's name is alone sufficient guarantee of excellence. The book is even more interesting than "The Makers of Methodism," and that is saying much.

THE ordinary retail price of these four books is $4.00, but they will be sent to any address, put up in a strong box, and postpaid, for $2.00

These are not old, shelf-worn volumes, but bright, up-to-date literature, fresh from the press. Address orders to

Toronto: WILLIAM BRIGGS

Wesley Buildings

Montreal: C. W. COATES

2176 St. Catherine St.

Halifax: S. F. HUESTIS

141 Granville St.