great repugnance I ever have recourse to that summary mode of proceeding in Banco Scribleri, in which I am plaintiff, witness, judge, jury, and executioner; in most cases I only expose those, who endeavour to pay in insult and abuse, or are incorrigible promifebreakers: but I must go on, if payments are not in general more punctually made. Subscribers who reside in countryplaces, or who prefer not to pay to an avoided collector, are respectfully requested to send the amount of their accounts to me per post, directed post-office, Montreal.

Quebec, March 1823.

The actresses request the acting manager and treasurer of the late Garrison-amateur-company to fulfil his engagements to them, which have been due since the first of last April. His last advertisement requesting payment for admission-tickets having been in August, the lapse of seven months time is quite sufficient to liquidate a debt of a few pounds, that would be highly welcome to the solicitrixes.

To Correspondents. Un Passant is very welcome, the continuation of his tour round the lake is expected. Cosmons is most warmly thanked for his sympathy and friendship; he will I hope, allow me to make use of his last letter: as soon as time permits I will address him, in the way he indicates, in answer both to that and the preceding. La Niebla will please to observe that I do not wish to intermeddle in the petty squabbles, and superficial criticisms of newspapers.—Impartiality will compel my admitting. Advantaging in reply to Jonah, but his piece will require much correction to make it fit to meet the eye of the public. Scrutator from Chambly, will not do.

A Last's reply to Paris in next number.
