Co.'s make) and 10 ft. of 1-inch discharge hose, for $15.75. We chime whistle, $6.50; round bottom steel wagon tank, sup-

We also sell hundreds of books to threshers and engineers.

other book. Other books: "Power Catechism," price $3;
"Farm Engines and How to Run Them," postpaid, $6;
"Farm Engines and How to Run Them," postpaid, $1.

"Rough and Tumble Engineering," postpaid, $1. "The Practical Gas Engineer," postpaid, $1.
We also sell books on Carpentry, Blacksmithing, etc.

We also offer particularly good values in our Veteran Drive Belts. The 6-inch Veteran has 27 rows of stitches, while other makes have but 23 rows. The 7-inch Veteran has 31 rows of stitches, other makes have but 27 rows. The 8-inch Veteran has 35 rows of stitches, other makes have but 31 rows. The Veteran belts are also considerably heavier and stronger, and have the further advantage that they remain soft and pliable in cold weather. The filler compound used in them is a secret composition, and does not harden in cold weather, thus making the Veteran canvas belt as pliable as a rubber belt in winter.

If you need a drive belt this season, write us at once, and we will make you a price on a Veteran, delivered at your town, which will surprise you. If you require any other goods, such as a suit of overalls, a canvas cover, etc., we can include them in the same shipment, and will prepay the freight. Our 1905 catalogue, containing 100 pages, will soon be out. Send for it.

THE WINDSOR SUPPLY CO., WINDSOR, ONT.

It's Easy
To Wash

With the special stiff bristled brush which comes with each machine it takes about four minutes to wash the four simple parts that make up the bowl of the

U. S. CREAM SEPARATOR

That's a big saving in time and labor over washing crocks and pans or the complicated bowls of other separators. The cleaning of the separator bowl is an important item, as it affects very materially the quality of the cream. Cream that has been run through an imperfectly cleaned separator does not bring the highest price, and cannot be made into the best butter. All the highest scores on dairy butter at the St. Louis World's Fair were won by butter made from cream skimmed by a U. S. Separator.

"Better butter" is only one of its many advantages. Our free booklet tells them all fully. Write for one to-day.

GOSSIP.

As Dan was on his way from the depot he pulled the strap to stop the car. The bell rung at both ends.

"What did you ring both ends for?"
asked the infuriated conductor.

"Cause I want both ends to stop while I get off."

The third series of sales of colonial wool held in London, England, progresses satisfactorily. The improvement in all classes of wool noted at the opening continues, and in some cases values have increased. The sensational feature of the market, say Messrs. Jacob, Son & Co., has been the animated and excited biddings of American buyers for the medium and finer cross-bred wools, which, in many cases, are 25 to 30 per cent. over March prices, coarser growths being 10 per cent. dearer.—[Live-stock Journal.]

An Englishman was asking for information about the state of education in an Irish county.

"Can they all read and write?"

"Truth they can, every mother's son of them."

"Have you no ignoramus among you?"

"Niver a one."

"Do you know the meaning of the word ignoramus?"

"I do."

"What is it?"

"A stranger like yerself."

Mr. F. Miller shipped from Liverpool, May 6th, for the Argentine, no less than 350 fine Lincoln rams and young ewes, selected from the prizewinning flocks of Messrs. H. Dudding, R. & W. Wright, Cass-well, Webb, Dickinson, Drakes, Marris, and Taylor Sharpe. With this shipment Mr. Miller also despatched five very good Shorthorn bulls and five heifers. It was his intention to have shipped another half score of Shorthorns, but space was not available owing to the extensive business between Great Britain and the Argentine at present prevailing.

The doctor's telephone rang.

"Hello!" he said, applying the phone to his ear, relates the Chicago Tribune.

"Hello! Is that Dr. Kewrum?"

"Yes."

"This is Mrs. Ollerzill. Oh, doctor, I have such a tickling in my throat. I just can't endure it. I wish you'd come over as quick as you can and see what is the cause of it."

"The old hypochondriac!" he muttered. "There is nothing on earth the matter with her, but I suppose I'll have to go, as usual. Madam," he continued, raising his voice, "what did you have for dinner?"

"Chicken potpie."

"All right. I'll be there in a few minutes."

When he visited his patient a quarter of an hour later he found her coughing and wheezing and apparently in great pain.

"No relief yet, madam?" he asked.

"Not a (cough) bit, doctor! It's (cough) getting worse (cough) every (cough) minute!"

"Well," he said, opening his case and taking out a small steel instrument with a long handle, "we'll soon remove the cause. People are often troubled in this way after eating chicken potpie. May I ask you to suspend your coughing for a moment and open your mouth?"

"Will it hurt, doctor?"

"Not a particle. Now close your eyes, please."

She complied, and he inserted the instrument.

"I see what it is, madam. Hold still.
There—that's all."

"Is it over, doctor?"

"Yes; you may open your eyes."

"Did you find anything?"

"I should say I did. Do you see this?"

Hereupon he showed her a chicken feather, which appeared to be in a remarkable state of preservation, everything considered.

"Is the tickling all gone, madam?"

"Yes, it's all gone, doctor. I don't feel it a bit now. I just happened to think, though, that I've made a mistake.
It was roast pork. Oh, dear! I can feel it coming on (cough, cough) again!"

Then the doctor's patience gave way.

"Confound it, madam!" he exclaimed.

"Why didn't you say so earlier? If you'd told me that at first I would have extracted a bristle!"

We want you to remember that
