TENANT DOING REPAIRS.

Can a tenant buy material and hire labor for repairing and deduct same from the rent? The lessee had notified me that if the work was not done on a certain date he would have it done at my expense. I told him I could not do the work before that date; but am prepared now, which is ample time. He now has the work completed. When the rent falls due, what course would you advise me to take? A SUBSCRIBER.

Ontario.

Ans.—Generally speaking, a tenant is not legally entitled to do what your tenant proposed, and has done; but, under the circumstances stated, and subject to whatever effect the terms of indenture of lease, or other written agreement (if any) between you might have, we think that your prudent course would be to allow the desired deduction of rent.

INTERNATIONAL ENTRIES.

The list of entries in the breeding classes for the International Live-stock Exposition, at Chicago, Dec. 1st to 8th, shows that of Shorthorn cattle there are 318 entries; of Aberdeen-Angus, 182; of Herefords, 145; of Galloways, 69; of Red Polls, 100; of Polled Durham, 48; of grades, 94, or 854 in all, besides 254 entries of fat cattle, making a total of 1,108; and these, we presume, are of individual animals and herds, and do not include the entries of carload lots, which will greatly increase the number of animals to be exhibited. Of sheep, the number of entries is: Of Shropshires, 227; Southdowns, 26; Oxford, 31; Hampshires, 48; Dorsets, 52; Cheviots, 23; Cotswolds, 44; Lincolns, 36; Leicesters, 9; Rambouillets, 106; grades and crosses, 113. Thirteen Canadian breeders have made entries in the sheep classes, and will, doubtless, make a good record, as usual, in the prize list. Only two have entered cattle, and those in the Shorthorn class. Only three have entered in horses, and those in the Clydesdale class.

At an auction sale of Dairy Shorthorns, at Granville, Pa., on Oct. 30th, in spite of bad weather, 28 head sold for prices ranging from $100 to $250, the latter price for the bull, Gen. Lee, a grandson of Mamie Clay 2nd, uniting the blood of the Mamie Clay and Nancy Lee strains with that of Imp. Buttercup. The same buyer, Chas. Rathbun, Jr., took the highest-priced female, the eight-year-old Kitty Clover 3rd, with a record of 5,850 lbs. milk in a year, at $225. The yearling bull, Kinsella Duke, brought $220.

A Kansas City woman, says the Kansas City Times, tells this story of her husband. One morning, he glanced at the dining-room clock and said, "We must be later than usual this morning." "Don't place too much confidence in that clock. It stopped at five o'clock, and I just set it by guess," replied the good wife. "Were you up at five o'clock?" asked the husband. "Of course not." "If you weren't up at five," replied the man, puzzled, "how do you know when the clock stopped?" "Why, dear, it stayed stopped," was the reply. The man did not say another word that morning.

In a certain literary club years ago, one of the members, in proposing the name of a candidate for membership, mentioned among his qualifications that he could speak several dead languages. To this an opponent replied that he never heard the gentleman in question speak but one dead language, and he murdered that as he went along.

"I have not hitherto taken a prominent part in politics," said a speaker at a meeting in Glasgow, lately. "An' ye never will," continued one of the irrepressibles in a back seat.
