Division No. 3 is still alive, and if present indications mean anything it is likely to remain so for a long time to come. It is well known to Hibernians in Toronto that No. 3 has been noted for its progressiveness and push. In the face of hard times it makes no difference, the members seem to have one object in view, and that is to make it one of the leading Divisions in the Province. The last regular meeting, held in Cameron Hall last Thursday evening, was no exception. Sharp on time, the President, Bro. J. J. Brennan, opened the meeting, nearly every member being present, together with a goodly number of visiting brothers. After much important business had been transacted, the President spoke at some length, exhorting the members to continue to build up the Division, and not to flag behind. Because there was a good strong membership and a healthy treasury, it was no reason why we should lie down to sleep: we have work to do for the benefit of our people. So long as there is a good Cathole young Irishman outside our society it was our duty to bring him into our ranks. We must swell into a mighty society. There is no reason why Hibernianism should not be stronger in this city and in this Province. Where there are so many Irish and Irish Canadians, who have to battle with the hardships of a new and growing country, it was will that they should be together in unity, friendship and true Christian charity. Our society was for the advancement of her sour, mentally and physically. We wish to elevate our race. It is not our intention to allow our enemies to malign and belie our people. We have wonderful odds to contend Our society was for the advancement of her sonr, mentally and physically. We wish to solvate our race. It is not our intention to allow our enemies to malign and belie our people. We have wonderful odds to contend against. We have the indomitable prejudices of the world to contend against. We have the press, the poet, and the preacher to contend against, and some of our own countrymen at that. Let us bring them in and teach them that Irish are not as ignorant as our enemies believe us to be. The president was accorded warm and hearty cheers, which certainly showed that his words meant much in spurring on the noble work.

It is the intention of Division No. 3 to meet at Cameron hall on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, to proceed in a body to St. Andrew's hall, to St. Mary's bazaar should be accorded that their friends will help them to make a creditable showing on that evening.

Various committees reported that their friends will help them to make a creditable showing on that evening in every case it was conducted to the therefit of the division. The proposed of the benefit of the division on the sick benefits. Under the good and welfare of the order Brother McCaffrey, Provincial President, favored us with a reading about the patriot, Wm. Orr, who was executed on Nov. 4. Bro. i aulty President of No. 4. congratulated the Division on its business like and enlivening meetings and exherted the members to swell their ranks, and said we can never have too many Irishmen in our society.

Bro. Hyland also congratulated the Division on its business like and enlivening meetings and exherted the members to swell their ranks, and said we can never have too many Irishmen in our society.

Bro. Hyland also congratulated the meeting.

Bros. Richardson, Dempsey, Donnelly, Moore, Quigley, Bronnan, Lyons, Madden and Lahey, favored us with songes and recitations.

No. 3 meetings are beld in Cameron hall on first and third Thursday in each month.

WEDDING BELLS.

HAGAN-MCNIERNEY.

HAGAN MCNIERNEY.

A very quiet wedding took place in St. Vincent's church, Detroit on Oct. 12, at 8 a. m., when Mr. Peter Hagan, formerly of Hills Glen, Oct., and Miss Maggie McNierney, second daughter of Mrs. Isabella McNierney, of Detroit, was made man and wife. Miss McNierney was assisted by her sister, Miss Sadie, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. John Hagan, of Hills Green. The bride was attired in a beautiful travelling suit of fawn, with hat to match. After the ceremony the bride's mother where a sumptious breakfast awaited them, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hagan left, amid a shower of rice and good wishes on the 12 train for the East. On their trip they will visit several towns in Ontario : also Mr. Hagan's father, Mr. Jas. Hagan, of Hills Green, and will be at home to their friends after December 1, at 513 Wabash avenue, Detroit.

LEEK-HARVEY.

On Tuesday, the 25th inst., William Leek, conductor on the M. C. R. was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Minnie Harvey, daughter of the late Richard Harvey, St. Thomas. The officiating elergyman was Rev. Dr. Flannery, and the witnesses to the solemn engazement were Mr. William Abernethy and Miss Elizabeth Harvey, sister of the bride. A large number of friends were present in the church of Holy Angels before the ceremony begao. High Mass was sung, and a short but appropriate sermon pronounced by the officiating priest. After the religious ceremonies were concluded an elegant dejeuner was partaken of at the residence of Mrs. R. Harvey, on Ross street, after which the happy couple, accompanied with the best wishes and blessings of many, took the train for Detroit and other points west. The wedding glits made a very fine display at the family residence, showing the esteem in which the bride is held by her numerous friends in St. Thomas.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN LOUGHNANE, LONDON.

There died in this city on Monday, Nov. 1, Mr. John Loughnane, in the six ieth year of his age. Mr. Loughnane had not been in perfect health for some time, but his natural buoyancy of manner, coupled with a remarkably unselfish and cheerful temperament, did much to deceive even his most intumate friends as to his critical condition. He was confined to his home for a couple of months, during which time the best medical skill and careful nursing of his devoted wife and affectionate children were lavished upon him—but to no purpose. Day by day the cherished husband and father grew steadily worse, until death relieved him of his suffering. He had the happiness of receiving all the rites of our holy Church, and of dying a happy Christian death. May his soul rest in peace!

The funeral took place to St. Peter's catherdral on Wednesday, Nov. 3, when Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McCormack for the repose of his soul. The very large cortege which followed the remains to St. Peter's cemetery was an indication of the general esteem in which the family are held. MR. JOHN LOUGHNANE LONDON.

MRS. ELLEN NOONAN, ST. THOMAS.

A venerable old lady, Mrs. Ellen Noonan, who had reached the allotted time of three score and ten, passed to her reward on Sunday night, the 3lst uit., at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. Savage, 62 Ross street St. Thomas. The deceased lady, by the accidental death of her husband, the laie Thomas Noonan, was left a widow with a young family about twenty two years ago. By hard, persevering toil she was able, besides giving a good education to her children, to secure good positions for them and leave them in comparative independence at the time of her death. The tuneral took place on Wednesday, November 3, and was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

MRS. MURPHY, PORT NELSON.

MRS. MURPHY, PORT NELSON.

The oldest resident in Port Nelson passed away on Wednesday of last week. It was Mrs. Maurice Murphy, who was preceded to the grave by her husband two years ago. Margaret Nunan was born in Ashford, Limerick county, Ireland in the year 1823, and spent the days of her youth in the green isle. In 1842 she was married, and four years later immigrated to Canada and settled in Port Nelson, where she resided continuously on one lot for a period of fifty one years. In religion Mrs. Murphy was a Roman Catholic, and was respected and esteemed by all with whom she came in contact, being possessed of a broad and liberal mind. Of late years she was unable to attend church services, being crippled with rheumatism. The loss of a kind and loving old mother is mourned by four sons and one daaghter; D. J., of Nashville, Tenn, John, of Cincinnati, and M. J. and C. N., and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, of Burimation. The obsequies took place on Saturday morning. At 10 o'clock Mass was celebrated in St. John's church by Kev. Father Burke, who referred to the life of deceased. The remains were intered in Holy Sepulchre cemetry at Rock Bay, and were followed to their last restingplace by a large number of friends, which attested the esteen in which the deceased lady was beid. -Eleanor C. Donnelly. LECTURE IN ST. PETER'S CATHE-DRAL.

A lecture under the auspices of the Congregation of the Children of Mary attached to the Academy of the Sacred Heart will be given in St. Peter's cathedral, on Sunday evening, Nov. 21, by Reverend P. Cassidy, S. J., of New York. The proceeds of the lecture will be devoted to charity. The good accomplished by these ladies being already well known, it is hoped that their work may be furthered by the generous patronage of those who, ever mindful of God's suffering poor, may look for the promised eternal recompense. "Alms delivereth from death, and the same is that which purgeth away sins and maketh to find mercy and life everlasting." (Tobias xii.) He that giveth to the poor, shall not want. (Prov. xxviii.)

Funeral Flowers.

"Flowers gratefully declined" has lately appeared appended to the oblimary notices of the Buffalo dailies. Naturally, the common sense mourners who inserted the notice were Catholics. It is an example to be earn lated. Flowers have their place in churches. They are used to adorn the aliar, not the casket. If holy Church so desired it, she would have inserted a rubric in the ritual, ordering her ministers to follow the incensation by distributing flowers. However, on the contrary, the clerayman, and his attendants who officiates at funeral obsequies, is properly robed in sombre vestments, to remind us of death, the thought of which we try to bury in a mountain of floral pillows, broken columns and other absundities. The best flowers we can scatter around the pall of our deceased friends and relatives are prayers, acts of self denial, fasting, alms giving and other good works. Above all, let us neglect not to have the holy sacrifice of the Mass offered for them. They will be thank ful for this while gratefully declining our flowers.—Carmelite Review.

Postponement of St. Paul's Fair.

The fair and drawing of prizes in aid of St. Paul's church. Toronto, which was to take place on the 9th and 10th of November, has been postponed until the first week in January 1898, when the result of the fair will be published in the CATHOLIC RECORD.

Paste This in Your Prayer-Book.

We have already printed the follow ng prayer, but again wish to urge all our readers to make use of it. The Sacred Congregation of Indulgences grants a hundred days' Indulgence once a day-applicable to the souls in Purgatory-to every one of the faithful who shall recite it either in Latin or in the translation. This favor will continue till the end of the year 1901.

Most merciful God, grant through the intercession of the Biessed and Immaculate Virgin that by the tears of our penitence we may expiate the guilt of this expiring century and so prepare for the opening of the coming century, that it, may be entirely conse crated to the glory of Thy name and the reign of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Whom may all nations obey in one faith and in perfect charity. Progress of the Church in London

We have received a new convert from literary circles in Sweden. Mr. Strindberg, a noted writer of fiction, has entered the Church. Last year Madame Helena Nyblom, whose hus band is a professor in the Royal Uni versity of Upsala, also became a Catholic. It is a significant fact that the Catholic Church receives from all na tions converts noted for learning, who have been led by their studies into the one true fold. There is no more striking instance of this than the hundreds of learned men who have entered the Church in England, and the great minds of Germany-a Tieck, Novalis, Schlegel, Stolberg, Goerres, Brentano, Muller, Overbeck, and many otherswho have found peace in the Church .-Western Chronicle.

Mr. Frank Coffee of Sydney, Australia, who was to have arrived at The Queen's Hotel, Toronto, this week, has been detained in the Western States and will not reach Toronto until the latter part of next week, or about the 18th inst.

> A Case of a Young Lady in Smith's Falls Who Suffered Severely-Given up by Two Doctors-Dr. Williams' Pink Pill

From the Smith's Falls News.

Many cases have been reported of ow invalids who had suffered for BELLEVILLE years and whose case had been given up by the attending physician, have been restored to health and vigor through that now world famed medi-cine, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but we doubt if there is one more startling or more convincing than that of Miss Elizabeth Minsbull, who resides with her brother, Mr. Thos. Minsbull, of this town, an employee in Frost and Wood's Agricultural Works. The News heard of this remarkable case, and meeting Mr. Minshull asked him if the story was correct. He replied :

"All I know is that my sister had been given up as incurable by two physicians. She is now well enough to do any kind of housework and can go and come as she pleases, and this change has, it is my honest conviction, been brought about by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Minshull Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Minshull then related the following story to the News :- " My sister is twenty years of age. She came to Canada from Eog. land about ten years ago, and resided with a Baptist minister, Rav. Mr. Cody, at Sorel, Que. In April, of 1896, she took ill and gradually grew worse. She was under a local physician's care for over five months. doctor said that she was suffering from a complication of nervous diseases, and that he could do little for her. The minister with whom she lived then wrote me of my sister's state of health, and I had her come to Smith's Falls, in the hope that a change and rest would do her good. When she arrived here she was in a very weak state and a local physician was called in to see her. He attended her for ome time, but with poor results, and finally acknowledged that the case was one which he could do very little for. My sister had by this time become a pitiable object; the slightest noise would disturb her, and the slightest exertion would almost make her in sane. It required someone to be with her at all times, and often after a fit of extreme nervousness she would become unconscious and remain in that state When I went home I had to take my boots off at the door step so as not to disturb her. When the doctor told me he could do nothing for her, consulted with my wife, who had great faith in Dc. Williams' Pink Pills, as she knew of several cases where they had worked wonderful cures, and I concluded it would do no harm to try them anyway, and mentioned the fact to the doctor. The doctor did not oppose their use, but said he thought they might do her good, as they were certainly a good medicine. In Sep tember of last year she began to use the Pills, and before two boxes had been used she began to show signs of improvement. She has continued their use since, and is to day a living testimony of the curative power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." Mr. Minshull

to do so most willingly signed the followingly declaration: Smith's Falls, Sept. 11, 1897. I hereby make declaration that the statements in above as to the condition of my sister, and the benefit she re eived from the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills are absolutely correct.
