

Mr. Wilkins Motion was then put, and the House dividing thereon, there appeared,

Division of the House thereon:

For the Motion Nine,

Mr. James,
Mr. Wilkins,
Mr. Leckie,
Mr. Collins,
Mr. Belcher,
Mr. Marchinton,
Major Milledge,
Major Barclay.

Against it Twenty,

Mr. Fillis,
Mr. Dewolf,
Mr. McMonagle,
Major Crane,
Mr. Dennison,
Mr. Archibald,
Mr. Dickson,
Mr. Dight,
Mr. Sherlock,
Mr. Morris,
Mr. Bulkeley,
Mr. Northup,
Mr. Schwartz,
Mr. Wollenhaupt,
Mr. Pyke,
Capt. Howe,
Mr. Jessen,
Mr. Hill,
Mr. Cochran,
Mr. Day,
Col. Tonge,

Message from the Council with the Bill for the Amendment of the Law,
&c. for Concurrence.

A Message from the Council with a Bill, intituled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Justice, sent down for Concurrence, read a first time, and ordered to lie on the Table.

The House adjourned to Monday at Eleven o'Clock.

Monday, 16th March, 1789.

Col. Tonge stated to the House, that upon the Division of the House on Saturday last he misconceived the Question, and requested that his Name might appear on the side of the Majority. Agreed to.

Bill for Amendment
of the Law, &c.
read second time.

Read a second time the Bill for the Amendment of the Law, &c. and ordered to be committed on Thursday next.

Bill to prevent Frauds in selling of Flour, &c. read a second time.

Read a second time the Bill, to prevent Frauds in the selling of Flour, &c. and ordered to be committed To-Morrow.

House in Committee of Ways and Means.

The House went into Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. Fillis took the Chair.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Report proceedings.

The Chairman reported, that the Committee had come to the following Resolutions, and prayed leave to sit again, which the House agreed to.

Resolved,