Washington Finds Ground for Hope of It in Northern Government

CHAIN OF PROVINCES Pro-Ally Element Extends From Arctic to Region

of Don Cossacks

Washington, Aug. 12.-The possibility of establishment of an eastern front that will be a serious menace, at least to the Germans, is being considered by officials here, it became known today in connection with the making public of the full text of the proclamation of the "Su-preme Government of the Northern" Territory." The signers of the proclamation are, with two exceptions, members of the Constituent Assembly representing the provinces of Nevgorod, Archangel, Vologia, Viatka, Kasan and Samara-a chain of provinces extending from the Arctic to the region of the Don Cossacks in the south.

They pronounce themselves unqualifieldy opposed to the Germans and declare that the new government "is convinced that Russia's and the allies' interests in the struggle against the enemy are one and the same." Ground for Hope

The letter has never been published, and its existence up to this time has been known to only a few persons outside the highest court circles in Roumania. A summary of its contents was communicated to the American Minister and to the Associated Press correspondent in Jassy by a high official, who is one of the most steadfast friends of the Allies at the Roumanian court.

Corrigan served as a marine in the Spanish-American war, and when it was over left the service. Soldiering as a profession was not in his forte. But soldiering when the country is at war is exactly what the hot Irish blood demands.

Within a short time after the in Within a short time after the interview King Ferdinand's attitude began to undergo a change, and the breach between him and the Queen on the question of peace began to grow wider. Queen Marie, on the other hand, was adamant, and she made valiant efforts to rally the army and the anti-German elements to her side. In March she visited the entire Roumanian front with the object of solidifying and consolidating the anti-peace sentiment in the active army. The soldiers generally, responded to her appeal, but her hopes and efforts were all for naught.
