THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Walks About Town. What Our Reporter Saw, Heard and Noted.

Greeting.

We wish all our readers a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Carnival.

A grand masquerade skating carnival will be held on Carson City Rink, on New Year's eve. For particulars, see bills.

The Rink.

Mayor Carson opened his rink on Saturday last. The attendance was good, but the weather was bitterly cold. The ice was rather rough, but being formed during the recent cold snap, it will make a good bottom. The manager maintains the best of order, and with more light and a secure place in which to bestow wraps, the institution is bound to be popular.

English Church.

There will be service in the English Church on Christmas evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The church will be decorated for the occasion. Holy Communion will be administered on Sunday next, after the morning service.

Lumber Yard.

We are pleased to learn that Ira Kelly & Co., have decided to open a lumber yard in this village. The yard will be located near the Model School, and will prove a great boon to the inhabitants of this village and surrounding country. A consignment of five car-loads is expected this week.

Farewell.

About fifty persons assembled in the basement of the Methodist Church, on Friday evening last, upon invitation of the W. C. T. U., to bid farewell to Miss Fulton, who, for the past six years, has held the position of teacher in the public school of this village. After partaking of a very nice tea, provided free by members of the Union, Mrs Arza Parish, President, was called to the chair. In a few well-chosen remarks, she stated that the object of the meeting was to do honor to the guest of the evening, Miss Fulton, who had decided to remove from amongst us. Mrs. Dr. Wood was then called upon to read an address, presented by the W. C. T. U. The address was beautifully printed on blue satin, and stated, in substance, that during the six years that Miss Fulton had been amongst us, she had been active in every good work. Especial mention was made of her zeal and ability in championing the recent Scott Act campaign in this county, her burning words and earnest appeals having fallen with weight upon many hearts, and had in a good measure contributed to the splendor of the victory won. After reading of the address, Mrs. Wiltse presented her with a beautiful writing desk, costing $15, as a token of the esteem and good wishes of the Union. Short and pithy speeches were then made by Arza Parish, Esq., Wm. Johnston, Esq., B. A., D. Fisher, Esq., and A. W. Bannister, Esq., M. A., all eulogistic of Miss Fulton's good qualities. The party separated, happy to meet, sorry to part, and hoping to meet again.

High School.

This week, 78 candidates wrote for the entrance examination to the Farmersville High School—a much larger number than usual.

Concert.

Posters will be issued from this office to-morrow announcing a grand concert, to be held in the Wellington St. Methodist Church, on New Year's Eve (81st), under the auspices of the Farmersville Oddfellows. Besides local talent, the committee have secured the services of a number of eminent vocalists and elocutionists from a distance. The programme, we think, justifies us in promising the public a rich musical and literary treat.

Presentation.

Mr. C. C. Slack, a prominent member of the Farmersville Brass Band, has been presented with a fine volume entitled "The Worthies of the World," by the members of the Band, in recognition of the very efficient and persevering manner in which he has worked and stood by the Band from the time of its first organization, six years ago. We wish him success and hope nothing may interfere with his blowing qualities.

Teachers.

The following teachers in training at the Farmersville Model School having successfully passed their professional examination, and having been granted 3rd class certificates by the county board of examiners, are authorized to teach in the public schools:—Charlotte Baker, Sarah R. Berry, Mary Bryan, T E Burns, I V Chamberlin, Essie Coleman, Thereacy Covey, L V Day, M Derbyshire, M Elliott, E Empey, A Farrell, E A Giles, M Giles, F Glazier, A R Hitchon, J Jordan, J Joynt, E McKinley, M Paul, M Rotters, M Slack, A E Stevens, H Wallace, T Williamson, L Wiltse, L Wing, Daniel Berney, P W Brown, W J Crummy, W C Ewing, W Fadden, W J Hayes, F Morris, J Roddick.
