Historical Reflections.
The remark is often made that "History repeats itself," and although there is a measure of truth in this remark, it is like many other such only partially true.

Cruelty to Animals.
With five churches in Acadia Mines we feel it intrusion on our part to refer to this subject, but our attention has been repeatedly drawn to this matter.

General News.
E. St. Hilaire, member for Chicomini, died in Quebec last week.
A heavy rain storm raged in Nova Scotia Tuesday, but no damage has so far been reported.

General News.
E. St. Hilaire, member for Chicomini, died in Quebec last week.

Sporting News.
Roster, the champion sculler of Australia, is in New York.

IT IS SAID
That there is trouble every where.

That some people are very brave at the times for that article on extortion.

That the Times don't care a snap.

That Bigelow's mineral waters are invigorating and healthful.

That Mrs. Heston has gloves of every description and shade.

That G. R. Smith has a large lot of beautiful carpeting.

That G. W. Cox & Co.'s prints and dress goods are just what he advertises.

That the band is going to play at the concert Saturday evening.

That there was too much work for one policeman this day.

That everybody read Ferguson's advertisement.

That the two week's pay will be popular.

That T. E. Atkins's seeds are all fresh and reliable.

That Mrs. Heston has the cheapest and best in town.

That the concert to-night will be the best ever held in St. Bridget's Hall.

That M. L. Starks has the finest lot of fancy stationery in town.

That J. B. Gillis has some elegant pictures and frames which he is disposing of cheap.

That men are very scarce about the works.

That F. W. Hill, watchmaker, is giving general satisfaction.

That F. J. Johnson builds the neatest buggies in the county.

That John Lee's is the place to get a good hair cut and shave.

That S. H. Smith & Son are doing a good business in the wholesale tin and hardware business.

That Mrs. Morris keeps the finest assortment of millinery and dress goods in town.

That Falconer & Dunning are still keeping the trade in dry goods and ready made clothing.

If you want a rich frock and a pair of shoes on Monday, don't look to the gossips of others, but look to your feet.

And offer no poor meat at all.

We have put prices down.

The loveliest in town.

And full satisfaction we give.

Although wages are small.

The children will love it.

And must have some meat for to live.
