CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

Day Will Be Generally Observed Throughout the Entire Country—Ushered in at Midnight by the Singing of a Beautiful Mass at the Roman Catholic Church.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Tonight at midnight the bells will ring out "Peace on earth, good will toward men," glad tidings of joy, and another Christmas will be ushered in, the celebration of which will be observed by all mankind in the civilized world regardless of their belief or unbelief in Him whose anniversary the day marks. In Dawson the event will be honored by a general and complete cessation of all business and in the participation of the festivities common to the foremost festive day of the year. All the government offices, the banks and the large stores will be closed and even the newspapers will enjoy the holiday which to them comes but once a year. In all the churches religious services will be held either this evening or tomorrow, some of which will partake of an elaborate choral effect where they will not be as they now are.

The Prize Song.

Some twenty manuscripts were received in competition for the prize of $50 offered by this paper for a song dedicated to the Yukon. It was expected that the result would be announced today, but as the number of manuscripts is larger than was anticipated it will be several days before a decision is reached.

What a domestic tyrant that the loggo judge must be!

He decided that a married man had a right to spank his wife. It is fortunate that sometimes his strength is not equal to his inclination.
