Buy this oven-tested flour

Your oven will certainly produce more bread and better bread as a result of our oven test.

From each shipment of wheat delivered at our mills we take a ten-pound sample. It is ground into flour. We bake bread from this flour. If this bread is high in quality and large in quantity we use the shipment of wheat from which it came. Otherwise we sell it.

The baking quality of flour sold under this name is therefore an exact certainty. Buy and benefit!

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
Which is the best known royal statue in London? Probably that of King Alfred, which stands in the centre of a small open space in Trinity Square, just off the Old Kent Road. It was placed there, it is said, when the square was laid out, at the beginning of the nineteenth century, to commemorate the coronation of King Alfred, as founder of the British navy, with the Trinity House Corporation, who owned the estate. The statue was renovated twelve years ago in recognition of the millenary.

Dr. Chase's Ointment
Mrs. Lois McKay, Tiverton, Digby County, N. S., writes:—
"My children were taken with an itching, burning skin disease and tore their flesh until it was sore and their faces would sometimes be wet with blood. The doctor did not seem to know what ailed them, and could give no relief, so I began using Dr. Chase's Ointment. Whenever it was applied it did its work well, and has entirely cured them of this horrible disease. They suffered so they could not sleep at night, and I think if it had lasted much longer I would have gone crazy from the anxiety and loss of sleep. I cannot find words to praise Dr. Chase's Ointment enough for the good it has done my children, and hope other sufferers will try it."
Dr. Chase's Ointment is a necessity in any home where there are children. By curing irritation and chafing it prevents torturing skin disease. 50 cents a box, all dealers. Send for full particulars if you mention this paper. Edmondson, Bates & Co. Limited, Toronto.

Indian Summer.

What visionary tints the year puts on
When falling leaves fall through molasses air,
Or nimbly cling and shiver to be gone—
How shimmer the low firs and pines here,
As with her secter Hebe Autumn sits,
The lowly bays and those that dress in hilt,
And smile and take about her misty trim—
Your hair!

—Loyal.

Missionary Appeal.

To the Baptists of Kings Co., Nova Scotia:
DEAR BROTHERS.—The heart of every loyal member of our churches must have been moved by the reports of the noble heroes who have come to land.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.
The Foreign Mission Board, besides caring for three stations in Bolivia are in India serving twenty-two stations with a missionary staff of eighty-six of whom five are physicians. These are assisted by five hundred and forty-one native helpers. There are more than two hundred village schools, nine boarding schools, two high schools, one normal school, a theological seminary, an industrial school and five hospitals. Christians are found in four hundred and eighty-four villages on the field, and at least fifteen hundred villages receive monthly gospel preaching. Eleven hundred and forty-nine have been baptized during the past year.

HOME MISSIONS
The task you have set your Home-Vision Board is relatively so important, and the report of the past year is so encouraging. Seventy-three fields in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island have been served. Eighty-six missionaries have performed 327 weeks of labor, preached 6472 sermons and made 14313 religious visits. Two hundred and forty-five converts have been baptized.

APPEAL.
Owing to the failure of some sources of revenue upon which reliance was placed, the eastern section of the foreign board has a deficit of $4000, and both boards are appealing for special help at this critical time in their history. The existence of these deficits is not only a mass retrenchment, with all its heart-breaking accompaniments, but actual personal privation, especially to some home missionaries whose salaries are unpaid.

The district meeting held at Aylesford on the 11th inst. past a resolution recommending all of the Baptist churches in the county to make a special offering for the purpose of assisting to wipe out these deficits, and appointed the undersigned a committee which would impress upon pastors and all members of our churches and congregations the importance of cooperating to make the appeal successful. To this end we recommend:

1. That one Sunday in December be set apart for the consideration of this appeal;

2. That the principles of Thanksgiving and self-denial be emphasized in the canvass;

3. That either the 'special envelope' or every member canvass plan be employed; and

4. That the proceeds be sent to the treasurer of denominational funds at Wolfville to be divided equally between Home and Foreign Missions.

SEVERE GOLD ON LUNGS AND CHEST QUICKLY RELIEVED

by Dr. O'Shea's Syrup of Licorice, Sarsaparilla and Chlorodyne
Mr. Edward, Bromptonville, Que., writes:
"Two weeks ago I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs and my chest was sore, breathing light and severe hacking cough. I was feeling miserable. I bought a bottle of Dr. O'Shea's Syrup of Licorice, Sarsaparilla and Chlorodyne and after a few doses I felt great relief and I went to a sound sleep, a thing I was not able to do for some nights. Next day I was able to be around again, and by the time the bottle was sold I was well."

Dr. O'Shea's Syrup of Licorice, Sarsaparilla and Chlorodyne relieves the irritation and "asthmatic" feeling in the air passages, soothes the hacking which makes you cough, loosens the phlegm and drives out the cold before it gets troublesome.

In 25c and 50c bottles, at your Druggist's, National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited.

The Sageine Girl

Is always noticeable because of her hair. Sageine is the life of her hair, dry, unattractive hair and brings beauty into the hair by applying the essential qualities that have been a robber from the hair by dandruff and other diseases of the scalp. Sageine is the only dressing of its kind and is free from the disagreeable oils, etc., so common in hair tonics. We guarantee Sageine and Hugh E. Colkin says: "If Sageine won't stop itching of the scalp and stop hair from falling or will not beautify the hair, bring the bottle back and get your money." Be sure to get Hugh E. Colkin's for Sageine—other stores can't supply you.

Price Albert, it is said, is rapidly becoming as good a swimmer as his father, who, swimming, it may be recalled, on one occasion helped to save a drowning man. That was when he was making a voyage round the world in the Bacheante and dived overboard after a bluejacket who had fallen into the sea. Prince George and his crew were held up by the man until the boat was lowered.

Dropsical Swellings

are due solely to a diseased condition of the kidneys. There is a quick speedy cure in Anti-Uric Pills. Hugh E. Colkin sells them and guarantees them to give the desired results. Come back and get your money if you are not perfectly satisfied. Be sure you get ANTI-URIC PILLS BY V. MARION on every package.

By order from Washington, U. S., all the mail wagons are to be painted a coach green instead of red. The reason is that the green paint will wear longer than the red.

Politics in Municipal Elections.

The New Glasgow Enquirer says:—
"It is a thousand pities that party politics were introduced into the recent Municipal Elections. It may be all right in the federal and provincial elections to introduce politics, and make a cleavage between the two parties, but Municipal Elections should never have anything whatever in common with party politics. Whether they be Liberal or Conservative, we care not so long as the man elected throughout the County to look after our municipal affairs is worthy of the trust and confidence of the honest and fair minded electors of their various sections. There are unfortunately too many people in our midst who would drag party politics into everything. When will the men of our country become more liberal minded, more fair and broad in their views, and exercise a little more charity and common sense in the public affairs of the land? We certainly need a change for the better."
So long as the present system of preparing voters' lists is continued so long will party politics be forced into Municipal elections. Like the assessment system, with which it is closely connected, the Revising system has become a hobnob of perjury. Boys under age and men without property qualification are knowingly put on the lists, and properly qualified persons are knowingly kept off those lists by men who have taken oaths to do their duty as required by law. These facts are notorious and afford good and sufficient explanation of the constant attempt to keep the man who belongs to the other party out of the Council and to put the good man of our party in. The evil has been growing tremendously of late years and the late election, in which leaders of both parties sent out private instructions to their respective electors to see that good party men were nominated, will probably be the last in which any pretence will be made to keep party politics in abeyance.
The remedy, we believe, is to be found in the adoption of a system under which assessments and revision of electoral lists will be taken out of the hands of Municipal Councils as now organized. Let the country be divided into small districts modeled after the school section system: give the inhabitants of these districts control of local affairs, such as roads and schools and let assessors and revisors of electoral lists be appointed by, and report to, the ratepayers of the district in mass meeting assembled, and the scandals that attach to our assessments and electoral lists will be greatly diminished. Few men would care to do things that they could not justify to a public meeting, especially if that public meeting had power to correct irregularities.—Berwick Register.

Shall the Woman Hang?

The Gloucester, Mass., Times, says: Connecticut is now compelled to face the question which has so often agitated other States? Shall a woman, convicted of murder, suffer the death penalty? A man and a woman in Connecticut have been sentenced to die early in March for the carefully planned and brutally executed murder of the woman's husband. The cause was found in the attachment existing between the two murderers. There is no question of the guilt, and there is also no question that if capital punishment is to be considered seriously, this is a case where it is deserved.

And yet shall the woman hang? There are those who favor their hands in abhorrence at the idea. But if the woman is spared, shall the man hang? That complicates the question.

The woman is as guilty morally as the man, and as she is a responsible person, why is to be dealt with equally by the law, there is no argument, save that of chivalry, why the man should be hung and she should be spared.

Thus the question of capital punishment comes up in this neighboring state of our—in a curiously vexatious form. Whichever way the matter is decided, there will be criticism. And if the law is not executed, it should either be removed from the books or made such that it will not apply to women. The people who are opposed to such punishment on principle have so difficulty with this case. But the other party has a decided affinity.

The fact that such a murder as this was committed would seem to indicate that the present law in Connecticut does not deter men and women from murder if that seems to them an effective way of gaining a desired end. And yet the defenders of the law say that this is just what is accomplished. The very discussion, however, shows that we have by no means as yet reached finality in such a case. Yet harsh execution is as burdensome in these cases as in the harshest others for which it was once the penalty.

Sparkling Eyes and Ruby Lips.

THE BIRTHRIGHT OF EVERY GIRL WITH RICH RED BLOOD.
The sad eye that goes with bloodlessness is a sure sign of misery and weakness. Anemia—that is bloodless—girls and women have dull heavy eyes with dark lines underneath. The eyelids are puffed down, looks pale and bloodshot inside. This is not all. Anemia works havoc all through the system; girls grow painfully weak and irritable; they are breathless and incapable of much exertion, while other women who are anemic complain of being "never really well."

There is only one way to be brighter, better health for pale, pining girls and women. That way is to investigate the body with a blood—the rich, healthy blood that imparts strength, cleanses the system of all impurities and restores the bright eyes and red lips of perfect health. Thousands of girls and women know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People make this new, rich, red blood, and so restore health and strength more surely than any other medicine known. There would not be an anemic woman or girl in the land if those suffering from this condition would give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. That is why so many recommend these pills to their suffering sisters. Mrs. R. B. Keith, Steves Settlement, N. B., says:—"At the age of 13 my daughter Sadie began to complain of constant headaches, and did not have her usual good appetite. I went to a doctor and got some medicine, but it did not help her, and finally she had to discontinue going to school. She seemed to be growing weaker every day and wanted to lie down all the time, and would continually complain of being tired. The doctor gave her another bottle of medicine, but with no better results. There was not a bit of color in her face or lips, and I was afraid she was going into a decline. A friend who was in to see her said 'if she was any child I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills,' and I decided I would take the advice. In a couple of weeks we could see a difference, as her eyes looked brighter, and she would try to eat a little. When she began to feel she could not dress herself alone, but little by little her strength came back until she could go for a walk. She continued the use of the Pills several months with the result that she was again strong and active. This was over two years ago, and she has been a strong healthy girl ever since. We have since used the pills for other purposes and find them a good family medicine."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers, or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Barber's Ten Commandments.

1. Thou shalt not talk about any other barber before me.
2. Thou shalt not shove thyself, neither shalt thou let thy wife cut thy hair.
3. Thou shalt not handle my tools, neither shalt thou sit in my barber unless thou want work done.
4. Thou shalt not chew tobacco and spit upon my stove or on my floor.
5. Thou shalt not loaf in my shop on Saturdays.
6. Thou shalt not get shaved and tell me to charge it, for verily I say unto thee, I will not.
7. Thou shalt not kick at my work.
8. And when the shop is crowded thou shalt not say unto me: 'Go hit that razor a few licks on your boot leg,' lest I smite thee.
9. Thou shalt not go two weeks without shaving, lest I charge thee double price.
10. And when thou art in need of having barber work done, thou shalt immediately send thy way to my barber shop.
