Mrs. J. Elliot Smith has established a tea-room in the Herbin's store on Linden street, which will be conducted in the interests of the Red Cross work. It should have a liberal patronage as the object is a most worthy one.

Mr. Charles Wright has purchased a lot of land near the railway station and is erecting a building thereon for wood-working purposes. We understand a good plant will be installed and that Mr. Wright intends using the most of the output in his own business.

At Davison St., Kings county, Nov. 16th, Mr. Egbert Card, aged 56 years. Death came as a welcome relief to a long and trying illness. The large attendance at the funeral testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community, and the sympathy felt for the family in their bereavement. Funeral services conducted by the pastor and the Rev. A. L. Powell.

Anyone having magazines to give the sailors will please leave them at the Red Cross Rooms.

The meeting held at the Council Chamber last Friday evening was well attended. The idea of forming a Home Guard was discussed and a committee was appointed to arrange for a future meeting at the Opera House when addresses will be given and the matter fully taken up. It is expected that this meeting will be held on Friday evening of next week. In the meantime the suggestion of forming a rifle club instead has received considerable favor and about sixty persons have signified their wish to join.

Rev. Henry R. Boyer visited Wolfville this week in the interests of the Bible Society and delivered an address in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, Nov. 22th. The aim of the Society is to put the Bible, written in his native tongue, within easy reach of every individual. The work is world wide and is very vigorously prosecuted. It was a splendid address and was much enjoyed by those who were present. On Wednesday morning he addressed the students at Acadia College and the young ladies at the Seminary. While in Wolfville Mr. Boyer was the guest of Mrs. Simpson, Prospect street.

FOR SALE.—1 Silver Moon Base Burner, No 11, and pipe, at a bargain. Inquire of JOHNSON H. BISHOP.

A Contemptible Act.

The party who removed from the walls of the Opera House lobby a Japanese banner used for decorative purposes not only committed an act that was mean, low and contemptible. The banner was removed sometime between 5:30 p. m., Nov. 23rd and 10 p. m., Nov. 24th.

If the party who took it can retain it with any conscience he is well come to it although it cannot be replaced at present, only a limited number having been imported into Wolfville.

Rev. W. M. Smallman.

The death of the Rev. W. M. Smallman, pastor of the Baptist church of this town, took place on Sunday, Nov. 22nd, at about noon. He was stricken with an incurable disease—cancer—some time ago, and a few weeks ago he went to Boston for relief, but the surgeons there gave him no hope, and he returned about a week ago, to pass away.

Mr. Smallman was a kindly man of philanthropic tendencies. He was deeply interested in the welfare of his church and people and was looking forward to the erection of a larger church to the building of which he was to be a heavy contributor. He will be much missed by his friends, fellow pastors and congregation who all feel deeply for the sorrowing family thus bereft.—Bridgewater Bulletin.

Rev. Mr. Smallman was a graduate of Acadia and was well known and highly respected in Wolfville, where the news of his death was heard with sincere sorrow by a host of friends. THE ACADIAN extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

The Boy Scouts.

The fourth annual meeting of the Council of the Wolfville Boy Scouts was held at the Boy Scout Building on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance. Rev. W. H. Rackham, the secretary-treasurer, presented the financial report which was very satisfactory. About nine hundred dollars indebtedness still remains on the building and it was decided to allow this to stand for a time on mortgage, pending a final effort to clear it off when the present state of financial depression has gone by.

The excellent service rendered to the Scout movement by Mr. H. Percy Brown, the enthusiastic and energetic Scout Master was referred to by a number of speakers. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Dr. W. L. Archibald, First Vice Pres.—Rev. R. F. Dixon, Second "—Rev. G. W. Miller, Sec.—Treas.—Rev. W. H. Rackham. Mr. H. Percy Brown was re-elected Scout Master for the ensuing year and Messrs. K. Graham, Murray Millet and Leander Thurber Assistant Scout Masters.

Most appreciative reference was made to the services rendered by Messrs. H. Troyte-Bullock and John McKenna, former members of the Council who have left Wolfville. Both have rendered valuable assistance which is much appreciated.

The following gentlemen constitute the Council: Dr. W. L. Archibald, Dr. Cullen, Rev. W. H. Rackham, H. Percy Brown, Rev. G. W. Miller, Rev. R. F. Dixon, H. Stairs, Dr. McKenna, J. D. Chambers, Dr. DeWolfe, W. H. Chase, Dr. Spidle, B. O. Davidson, Rev. G. T. Bryant, Edson Graham, J. E. Hales, Capt. Tingley, William Regan, R. W. Ford, T. L. Harvey.

Dramatic.

The Opera House was filled with an interested and highly appreciative audience on Monday evening, when the Wolfville Girls Dramatic Club presented 'Seven Wishes,' a play in four acts. The parts were well taken and the whole performance was very much enjoyed. Miss Clate Burgess, as Vivian Glendon and Miss Alice Stairs, as Miss Prim, were especially strong.

Following in the cast: Folks at the Cottage; Kathleen 'Kit,' Margaret Murray; Charlotte Charlie, Marjorie Chute; Flora, poor, but proud, Marguerite DeWitt; Sylvia, a little peace-maker, Minnie Godfrey; Granny Morris, an old fashion body, Mary Whidden.

Folks at the Hall: Helena Glendon, a delightful person, Gertrude Borden; Vivian Glendon, her adopted daughter, Clare Burgess; Mrs. Preston, a housekeeper, Edith Thompson; Phoebe Preston, who reads the Ladies' Home Journal, Amy Freeman; Miss Thalmers, the witch of the Hollow, Mary Black; Mrs. Wentworth, a wealthy widow, Myra Chambers; Miss Gullford, her companion, Hazel Woodman; Miss Prim, schoolteacher, Alice Stairs; Nora, Mary Ruth.

Synopsis: Act I.—Granny Morris; Cottage, Seven Wishes; Act II.—School Room at Miss Prim's, A property fulfilled; Act III.—Sitting Room at the Hall, A face at the window; Act IV.—Witch Hollow, Unravelling of the skein.

The musical numbers and special ties were exceedingly well done and would have done credit to professionalists. The receipts, amounting to $97.17, were given in aid of the Red Cross Society.

THE ACADIAN extends congratulations to the young ladies. It is hoped they may favor the public with another play later on.

Lori Roberts' Appeal.

'We pleaded in vain,' Lord Roberts said at the opening of the war, 'and the war has come upon us, and with it the call for a million more soldiers. This, therefore, is no time for urging the need of universal training; what we have now to do is to respond to Lord Kitchener's appeal for men to be trained now.'

'Not only is this a fight between the system of rule of the people by the people and rule of the masses by a higher cast; it is also the first opportunity given to the British democracy of showing that it possesses the resolution, the will power to fight and to win a great struggle for existence.'

'I appeal, therefore to the working men of this country to show themselves worthy of the power which they hold; and I, who have so often had the privilege of addressing mass meetings of the working class in our great centres of population, make this appeal with every confidence in the result.'

Surprise Party.

The Ladies of the Grand Pre Women's Institute made a surprise call at the new home of their former president, Mrs. S. A. Bower, and presented a very handsome rug. Mrs. Bower suffered the loss of her house and destruction of much of their furniture by fire last spring and their friends wished to congratulate them on the possession again of a comfortable, convenient and pretty home.

LITTLE PIGEONS CARRY GREAT MESSAGES

Before the days of the telegraph, Carrier pigeons were often used both in war and peace; hence the proverb. Little want ads are like the pigeons and often carry money making and money saving items. Read them carefully. There may be something you want that may be obtained most advantageously. If you have something to sell, try the pulling power of a little want ad, yourself.
