Western New York—Partly cloudy with showers.
The only business up for discussion last night at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Trades and Labor Council was the final arrangements for the gigantic programme to be given on Monday next, Labor Day.

Next objective is a bright one. It is that the toilers of the city may be able to take part in such a day unrecorded in the annals of the laborites of Hamilton.

Given fine weather, the event should be a phenomenal success. Every detail has been arranged by the committee. Alderman A. J. Wright has consented to take charge of the drawing for the prizes now on exhibition at 68 James street north, and Mr. T. Binkley will have charge of the drawing for the gold watch.

After a lingering illness of nearly three years, borne with much courage and cheerfulness, William G. Manson, eldest son of Mrs. Donald Manson, 46 Young street, passed away last night, in his twenty-fifth year.
