THE GROWTH OF THE EAST

There is no doubt that a few years hence the Maritime provinces will be the New England of Canada. Already its manufacturing plants are reaching out and our products are found in all sections of the west as well as the east.

Read what Dr. Robertson recently said to a Toronto news paper—

"While in the Lower Provinces I visited dozens of towns of three and four thousand people which I think are bound to go ahead and become manufacturing centres, known all over the Dominion. The slight disadvantage that they suffer as to freight rates in the West in comparison with the Upper Provinces is more than overbalanced it seems to me, by their climate, the quality of the workmanship they have ready to hand, and the more healthy conditions under which their workmen labor. More work and better work can be done in a cooler climate.

"The difference in freight rates to the West from the Upper and from the Lower Provinces is only eight cents per hundred weight. This is a smaller matter and does not much bother the shoe and stove manufacturers of New Brunswick. I have seen boxes in a Fredericton shoe factory directed to almost every place of importance in Western Canada."

We have the raw material and the labor for many classes of industries, and in the banks more than ample capital is lying idle. More industries is needed to manufacture the goods for the increasing demands from rapidly increasing population of the Dominion.

IS McBRIDE THE COMING LEADER?

A unique interest attaches to the September number of Busy Man's Magazine because in it is to be found a striking prophecy about the future of the Hon. Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, based on the extraordinary likeness he bears to three great political leaders. These three men are Benjamin Disraeli, Sir John A. MacDonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. This striking likeness is brought out clearly in the portraits of the four men which illustrate the article and which are placed together for purposes of comparison, Richard McBride is still a young man but even to-day he bears a marked resemblance to all three men referred to and in his mannerisms he is astonishingly like Sir John A. MacDonald. All interested in the political situation in Canada, Conservative and Liberal alike, should not fail to see this convincing prophecy.

Rev. A. J. McArthur, Newcastle, N. B., spent the past few days in Bedeque, the guest of his father-in-law, James Carruthers. He left on return home yesterday morning and was accompanied by Mrs. Carruthers, who will spend some weeks visiting her daughters, Mrs. McArthur and Mrs. P. G. Clark.—Charlottetown Guardian.

MOB CHASE CHILD'S ATTACKER

Wild Run Through New York Streets; Police Save Him.

New York, Sept. 10.—The angriest crowd with which the police have had to deal in years massed itself in front of the West Twentieth street station and hooting and yelling, demanded that the police give up to them John Harris a young prisoner just captured.

"We'll take care of him," they shouted. "Give him to us; we'll fix him."

Most of the crowd had followed Harris in a wild chase from Eleventh avenue and Eighteenth street to Tenth avenue and Fourteenth street, where his arrest probably saved his life. He had already been beaten and kicked and badly wounded by several men who accused him of attempting to injure a seven-year-old girl.

According to the story told later by the child, Olive Collins, of No. 459 West Seventeenth street, she was playing near a fenced off vacant lot at Eighteenth street and Eleventh Avenue, with her five-year-old brother, William. She said a man came up to them and asked if they wouldn't like to have some candy.

Childlike, they eagerly said they would and the man gave William three pennies. "You run off to the store and we'll wait here for you," he said, according to the children.

A short while afterwards three boys climbing the fence of the vacant lot saw the little girl and the man. They jumped to the street again and ran to the White Star Line pier, where they told several longshoremen what they had seen.

The men came back with the boys on the run, and scaling the fence they fell upon Harris. In their rage they beat him unmercifully about the head, inflicting deep scalp wounds and many bruises. He managed to break away, however, and started running east through Eighteenth street, the men at his heels.

Persons along the way joined in the chase until a mob of fully five hundred was dashing after the terrified fugitive. At Tenth avenue he turned and ran south. It was not until he reached Fourteenth street that he was stopped. Mounted Policeman Murphy made his arrest, and Policeman Hall came up to help him save the prisoner from the vengeance of the crowd.

Followed by the throng that was demanding summary punishment for the prisoner and threatening to seize him at any moment, the policemen marched Harris to the station.

He was found to be so badly injured that Dr. Morris was summoned from the New York Hospital. He had to take several stitches in the prisoner's head, bandage his face and treat many severe body bruises. But outside the crowd kept up its clamor and surged upon the doors until the reserves were ordered out to protect the building. They managed to disperse part of the crowd, but for several hours a hundred or more lingered around.

Harris said he lived at the Salvation Army Lodging House in Chatham Square. He declared he had meant no harm to the child; that she had asked him to tie her shoe, and he had gone into the vacant lot to look for a piece of string. When informed that the child's shoe had not been untied he said he had made a mistake—that it was his own shoe he wanted to attend to. He was locked up. The child was injured.

Don'ts For Wives.

- Don't be a door mat.
- Don't give way to tears.
- Don't reproach your husband.
- Don't discredit his excuses.
- Don't be dismal with your husband.
- Don't sit up for your husband at night.
- Don't ever be positive on the subject about which a man thinks he knows something.
- Don't raise your eyebrows and piously hope the dinner won't be spoiled when he arrives twenty minutes late for it.
- Don't ask him how business has been going unless you are absolutely sure from his face and manner that it has been going well.

Don'ts For Husbands.

- Don't stay out late at night.
- Don't think your wife is a servant.
- Don't forget that your wife was once your sweetheart.
- Don't try to run the household your way.
- Don't think your wife can't keep your secrets.
- Don't imagine that your wife is a superior person.
- Don't neglect to compliment your wife whenever opportunity offers.
- Don't withhold your confidence.
- Don't dole out a dollar as if it were a tax.
- Don't grumble at your wife and the work she does.
- Don't think love has come to stay anyhow.
- Don't forget that husbands should be gentlemen at all times and under all circumstances.

THE GREAT SERPENT OF ALL DISEASES.—

Kidney disease may well be called the "boa constrictor" disease, unexpecting and unrelenting, it gets the victim in its coils and gradually tightens till life is crushed out, but the great South American Kidney Cure treatment has proved its power over the monster, and no matter how firmly enmeshed, it will release, heal and cure. HUNTING

American sportsmen are beginning to flock into Newcastle in large numbers and are away to the woods to be on the hunting grounds by the 15th, when the open season for big game begins. While in town the hunters' rendezvous is the Miramichi Hotel, where they may always be found coming or going.

On Saturday a party arrived from New York consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bownes, Roger Whitley and Miss Annie E. Heagan, with their Chauffeur. They will be guided by David Manderville and will hunt on the Little South West Miramichi.

Wm. Edward Coffin and Wm. M. Demorest of New York will hunt in the same territory.

Frank G. Harris and Clark Hileman of Clearfield, Pa., and A. T. Stephens of Houtzdale, Pa., came yesterday to seek the moose and caribou of the Miramichi.

A party from Plattsburgh, N. Y., came yesterday, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Senecal, Mr. and Mrs. Seaman, F. A. Finn, with Samuel Harris, chauffeur. Wallace Johnson will guide them up the Little South West.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Johnston's maid, accompanied by Mr. Johnston's father, all of Hartford, Conn., arrived to-day, and will hunt with Manderville Bros. on the Little South West.

NORTHUMBERLAND CONVENTION

ETHEL LENEVE HAS CONFESSED

Testimony will be Used Against Dr. Crippen.

London, Sept. 7.—Ethel Le Neve has confessed to all that she knows concerning the fate of Belle Elmore Crippen. When the preliminary hearing of the prisoners is continued, Miss Le Neve's confession, which is in affidavit form, will be presented as the principal evidence of the prosecution. It is understood that Mr. Thos. Humphreys, who is conducting the prosecution, will then consent to have the girl released on bail, provided she can find a bondsman.

The most powerful influence had to be exerted by Miss Le Neve's family and the King's Prosecutor before the girl could be induced to testify against her late companion, Dr. Hawley Crippen. When the charge of murder against the girl was reduced to one of being an accessory after the fact, it became evident that Miss Le Neve was being approached. If, as now seems certain, she consents to turn King's evidence, she will escape with nominal punishment.

The poison hyoscin, which the postmortem revealed in the remains of Dr. Crippen's wife is a colorless, syrupy liquid compound having the properties of muscarin contained in henbane, thorn-apple and deadly nightshade. It produces delirium, stupor and coma.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Paris is Full of Them and Nearly All Use Parisian Sage

In the beauty show at the metropolis two years ago Gold Medals were awarded to five different women.

To the most beautiful woman between 20 and 25; between 25 and 30; between 30 and 35; between 35 and 40 and between 40 and 45.

A society reporter who interviewed all five women in the interest of his papers, reported that all of them had beautiful hair, and that each of the five enthusiastically attributed her luxuriant hair to Parisian Sage.

T. J. Durick sells Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle. He guarantees it to cure dandruff in two weeks; to stop falling hair and itching of the scalp. It makes any woman's hair beautiful, soft and luxuriant.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.
