Corporal Loggie Remembered
A very pleasing time was spent at the Newcastle Division, Sons of Temperance, Thursday evening. After routine business the Good of the Order was well responded to. Bro. Corporal Colin Loggie who has volunteered for the 55th was voted an elegant pin emblematic of the Order. Division meets every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Successful Social at Redbank
At Redbank Thursday night the Presbyterian people of Redbank and Whitteville held a band concert, supper and social in aid of the Manse building fund. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The Dorothy N. specially chartered for the occasion took up a number of Newcastle citizens. The entertainment was well patronized, about $200 being realized. The debt on the fine Manse building lately erected is now nearly paid off. During the three years' pastorate of Rev. J. F. McCurdy, B. A. the Manse was started and completed and some $5,000 raised for the building fund, over and above paying all ordinary current expenses.

The Love Route at the Happy Hour
A love story full of charm and tenderness of a spring time romance, with many unique effects, is the Famous Players production of Edward Peplis romance of the ranch and the rail at the Happy Hour Thursday. A great number of stirring and exciting scenes make this subject peculiarly adapted to the screen. Scarcely the farthest possibilities have been favorably taken advantage of in the present production. There are many unique effects in the screen adaptation that were impossible of reproduction on the stage, and as the actual construction of a railroad, the pitched battle between the cowpunchers and the railroad workmen, which develops into a thrilling climax and

Snowball—McGowan

The home of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Murray, Moncton, was the scene of a hymeneal event of much interest on Wednesday evening when their niece Miss Mabel Alice McGowan was united in marriage to Mr. William Harrison Snowball, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snowball, Chatham. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was solemnized under a handsome floral bell of pink and white sweet peas by Rev. H. A. Goodwin in the presence of forty guests. The bride was given away by her uncle, Dr. C. A. Murray. Miss Marjorie Robinson was the bridesmaid and wore a pretty gown of yellow crepe de chene with large picture hat of same shade. F. Lawrence Snowball was the groomsmen. The bride was charmingly gowned in ivory duchess satin with court train, and wore a veil of silk tulle fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms. After the ceremony a recherche luncheon was partaken of by the guests. A large number of beautiful gifts testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends.

many other stirring features. Harold Lockwood, Winifred Kingston, Donald Crisp and a company of popular photoplayers lend charm and sincerity to the various characterizations. The above celebrated romance of the Ranch and the Rail is a feature worth seeing. See advt. on page eight.

Newcastle, Loses Old Resident

Death of Mrs. Sarah Desmond Occured on Saturday Morning

The death occurred at her home on Pleasant Street on Saturday afternoon, 4th inst., of Mrs. Sarah Desmond, at the advanced age of 86 years. The deceased lady had been in falling health for some years, and of late had been confined to her bed, and although her death was not unexpected, it was heard with deep regret by her many friends. Deceased is survived by one son, Francis J. Desmond, M. D., of this town, and one daughter, Mrs. Baynon, who resided with and nursed her mother through her long illness. The funeral took place at nine o'clock on Monday morning. High Mass of Requiem was conducted at St. Mary's Church by Rev. Father Dixon and interment was made in St. Michael's Cemetery Chatham.
