A immense cave, nearly as large as the Mammoth Cave of Kantucky, has recently been discovered about ten miles from Fort Raby, California. It has been explored to the distance of half a mile. It was found to be an immense subtervanean lake of clear water, with high walls of limestone on either side. The ceiling or arch is fity feet high. The party axplored it to the distance of half a mile in skiffs, and finding no indications of a stopping-place, returned to explore it further at some future time.

What a Oxe Lenger May cay no.—A young man named Crochett, who lost a leg above the knea, on the Boston and Maine Railread, when a child, can perform feata, with one foot, that few it any lads of his age in this acighborhood can perform with two feet. He will swin like a deek; he can run as fast as the futest, hounding on like a deer; and his skating is marvelous. A dozen lads may skate with him on the ice, but he is sure to come out ahead. Nor is it in a straight course alone that he shows his speed; with a cratch in one hand and a skate upon the foot, he will defy them to catch him, and dodge as nisibly as a ont. We doubt if there is a boy that can jump higher. He will lesp a fence as high as his head; and surprises his associated by standing bank to a fence that will come to his shoulders, tarning a somermals and coming down wight end upon the other side.
