DEAN STANLEY'S DEATH.

A Brief Sketch of His Life's Labor.

London, July 18.—Dean Stanley died to day aged 66 years. He was educated under Dr. Arnold, at Rugby, and commenced a distinguished career at Oxford, by obtaining a scholarship at Balliol College, and shortly after the Newdigate prize for his English poem "The Gipsies." After gaining the Ireland scholarship, he took a First Class in Classies in 1837, gained the Latin Essay prize in 1839, and the English Essay and Theoled a Fellow of University College. He was for twelve years Tutor of this College; was Select Preacher in 1845-6; Secretary of the Oxford University Commission, 1850-52; Canon of Canterbury from 1851 till 1858, Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Oxford, and Canon of Christ Church and Chaplain to the Bishop of London from 1855 till 1863, when he became Dean of Westminster. He received the degree of L. L. D. from the University of St. Andrews, in Feb., 1871; took part in the proceedings of the "Old Catholic" Congress held at Cologne, in Sept., 1872; was elected one of the Select Preachers at Oxford by 349 votes against 287, Dec. 11, 1872; and was installed as Lord Rector of the University of St. Andrews March 31, 1875, Dr. Stanley first became known to the literary world by his admirable "Life of Dr. Arnold," lished in 1844. It was followed by "Stories and Essays on the Apostolical Age," 1846: Memoir of Bishop Stanley, 1851; "The Epistles to the Corinthians, 1854; "Historical Memorials of Canterbury," 1854, 6th edit. 1872; "Sinai and Palestine in connection with their History," 1855; "Sermons on the Unity of Evangelical and Apostolical Teaching," 1859; Sermons on various subjects preached before the University of Oxford, in 1860-3; "Lectures on the History of the Eastern Church," "Sermons Toronto, Ju preached in the East," with appendix on his second visit to Palestine with H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, 1862; "Letter to the Bishop of London on Subscription," and "Lectures on the History of the Jewish Church," 2 vols., in 1863-65;
"Encouragements of Ordination," and "Reasonable, Holy, and Living Sacrifice: a Sermon," 1864; "Creation of fice; a Sermon," 1864; "Creation of Man; a Sermon," 1865; and "Sermon; Dedication of Westminster Abbey, 800th Anniversary," 1866; "Historical Memorials of Westminster Abbey," 1867; "The Three Irish Churches; an Historical Admera", "Exercise of Churches and State"." dress," "Essays on Church and State," 1870; "The Athanasian Creed; with "Essays on Church and State," a preface on the general recommenda-"Lectures on the history of the Church of Scotland," 1872; and "Sermons and Essays on the Apostolical Age," 1874. He has contributed various articles to reviews and magazines, and many papers to Dr. Smith's "Dictionary of Classical Biography," and Dictionary of the Bible," to the "Transactions of the Archaeological Institute," and to the Quarterby and Edinburgh Reviews. The Established Church has, in the demise of Dean Stanley, lost one of her brightest jewels, and one whose place it will be hard indeed to fill. He will be buried beside his wife in Westminister Abbey.

The Dean remained in a semi-unconscious condition some time before his death:

ROAD AGENTS.

An Account of the Rock Island Train

The account of the daring train robbery on the Rock Island road is supplemented by the following details given by E. L. Martin, of Kansas City, a passenger and eye witness of the dreadful affair:—

The train left Kansas City at 6.30 last filled with passengers, including a sleep-ing coach. Supper was furnished at the regular station, and no event occurred to excite the suspicion of the passengers or trainmen until Winston was reached, which was at 9.30 o'clock. Eight hundred Mormons were, on Thursday last, landed at Castle Garden, en route to Utah. They are ignorant and poor, and had been cathered up by Mormon missionaries in Europe, chiefly in the Scandinavian countries. The phenomenon of Mormonism is one that the United States have not yet found a way to deal with, and it is not likely to become more easily settled by the acquisition of such large numbers of converts.
