Celebration at Donovan's.

To celebrate the occasion of the Bowring-Winter wedding, an enjoyable outing was held on Saturday evening. At 6.30 a special train, in charge of Conductor Howlett, and containing two hundred and fifty persons, left the city for Donovan's. Those who went out were the employees of the firm of Bowring Bros., and Messrs. T. & M. Winter, and Mr. J. E. Grievie, Dr. H. Rendell, R. G. Reir, W. R. Warren, J. W. Withers, W. J. Cosgrove, of the New York firm of Bowring Brothers, Capt. Cox, Chief officer Luce and Chief Engineer Simpson, of the ss. Othello, Liverpool branch of Bowring's, H. W. LeMessurier, H. LeMessurier, A. Donnelly, F. Donnelly, G. Harvey, W. S. Monroe, A. Hayward, E. Taylor, T. J. Foran, R. Dowden and W. Croftly. The C.L.B. band accompanied the party and discoursed splendid music en route. Arriving at Donovan's station ranks were formed, two deep, and headed by the band followed by Messrs. Crocker and Walsh, two of the oldest of Bowring's employees, the gathering marched to the hostelry. On entering the grounds there was erected a magnificent arch and containing the motto "Long life of prosperity and happiness to the bride and groom." The entire surroundings were beautifully decorated while there was an equally good display of bunting inside the hostelry, the houseflags of Bowring and Winter's firms being conspicuous. At 7.30 after Mr. James Vey had taken a photograph of the gathering in a group, the guests repaired to the dining room and sat down to a banquet at which Mr. J. S. Munn presided. After an appetizing menu had been discussed the following toast list was taken up:

"The King."—Prop. The Chairman; "God Save the King."
"The Bride and Groom."—Prop. Mr. W. R. Warren; Resp. Mr. J. E. Grievie, Groomsman.
"Bowring Bros., Ltd."—Prop. Dr. H. Rendell; Resp. Mr. J. S. Munn.
"Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hayward."—Prop. Mr. J. S. Munn; Resp. Mr. Hayward.
"The Press."—Prop. Mr. N. Snow; Resp. Press Representatives.
"Our Guests."—Prop. Mr. James Foley; Resp. Mr. J. W. Withers.
"The Chairman."—Prop. Mr. J. W. Withers; Resp. Mr. J. S. Munn.

Songs were rendered by Messrs. Ross (2), LeMessurier, Taylor, McKinley and Edwards. The speeches though brief, were excellent, especially good was that of Mr. Grievie who responded to the toast of the bride and groom. A feature was the mention of Hon. E. R. Bowring's name by Mr. Withers, who expressed the wish that more celebrations would be given in the near future by the Bowring's, who are becoming universally known for their hospitality and generosity. After the singing of the National Anthem the company went to the grounds and witnessed a grand display of fireworks in charge of Mr. P. Hanley. At midnight return to town was made all having thoroughly enjoyed themselves and was delighted with the treatment accorded by the Bowring firm, which as Dr. Rendell very aptly paraphrased, have braved the storm and battled with the breeze for over a hundred years. The entire arrangements of the outing were such as those in charge of them, Messrs. James T. Foley and R. Simms, two worthy employees of Bowring Bros., may well feel proud.

Church Parades.

C. L. B.
Yesterday forenoon Avalon Battalion, under command of Lt-Col. Rendell, paraded to Divine Service at St. Michael's Church. Rev. Mr. Stamp officiated and preached to the lads. After service the Battalion returned to its Armoury where Lt-Col. Rendell made an address on the Brigade and presented Mr. Reeves with the title of Warrant and Staff-Serjt. of the Ambulance Corps; he also read a letter from Sergt. E. Chafe who is gone on a five years cruise with Capt. Bob Bartlett, as referred to in Saturday's Telegram.

C. C. C.
Under command of Major Kent, the C. C. C. left their Armoury yesterday morning, paraded to St. Patrick's Church and attended Last Mass which was celebrated by Rev. Father Kelly who delivered a sermon on the Gospel of the day.

Owing to the disagreeable weather the turn-outs were small.

Man Disappeared.

Saturday week a man, a resident of Harbour Grace, who has been engaged as a contractor at Bell Island and worked there mostly at the building business, disappeared from the island and has not been seen since. He had a number of men working with him and these would like to locate him as he yet owes them their wages. He had a considerable sum of money with him and he was seen in the city on Monday last. When he came to St. John's he wore the uniform of the Salvation Army but later discarded it and was noticed wearing his everyday apparel at the railway station before the express left that evening. Though he was not seen to board the express, the belief is that he did so and left for parts unknown. The workmen who believe he has "let them in" would be glad to have an interview with him even if it were only for a few minutes. We hear that the matter will be placed in the hands of the police.

Friends and supporters of the C. C. C. interested in the formation of a Boat Club are requested to meet in the Armoury this Monday, June 30th, at 8.30 p.m. JOHN HARRIS, Convener. Jun 28, 21.

Movements of Prince Albert.

On Saturday, H.R.H. Prince Albert was entertained to luncheon at Government House. Those present were His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Davidson, Major Davenport, A.D.C., Capt. Beech, A.D.C., Captain Aubrey Smith, M.V.O., Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris and Lady Morris, Capt. A. and Mrs. Goodridge, Lieut. Spencer Cooper, Dr. L. Greig, Cadets' H. C. Tennyson, E. K. Turnover, G. Phelps and Hon. C. Roper Curzon. In the afternoon the Prince, accompanied by Capt. Beech, visited the Nickel Theatre and was pleased with the pictures, particularly the one showing the opening of Parliament by his father, King George. Owing to the adverse weather certain arrangements for entertaining the Prince were cancelled. Yesterday forenoon His Excellency the Governor and suite attended Divine Service on board H.M.S. Cumberland; Rev. Mr. Kewney officiated. Yesterday afternoon the Prince, Capt. Smith, Capt. Beech and some cadets were driven in Mr. H. D. Reid's motor car to Murray's Pond, the Fox Farm and the Bowring Park, and shown the different features of interest. Most of the time of Prince Albert will be occupied on board ship to-day. At 3.40 p.m. to-morrow he will land at the King's Wharf and drive to Government House to attend a Garden Party.

Fishery Improved.

By the Fogota we learn that the fishery north, especially in Fogo District, has greatly improved since last report. Caplin in myriads have struck in at all the creeks and coves, and at Musgrave Harbor, Cat Harbor, Fogo and other places cod is plentiful and good catches are recorded. Traps get ten to twelve quintals daily and small boats three to four barrels daily. At the other Wadhams and Inner the boats are also making a good record, and at Peckford's Island it is exceptionally good. If this continues a good fishery is assured this section of the Island. Fair work is also being done in Bonavista Bay.

Stefansson's Ship Reaches Wrangel.

Wrangel, Alaska, June 24.—The Canadian Arctic exploration ship Karluk, which is taking twelve members of Vilhjalmur Stefansson's party north, together with supplies and equipment of the polar expedition, put in at Wrangel late last night and departed early to-day for Nome, where the explorers will be joined by Dr. Stefansson. The Karluk will not put in at any port between here and Nome. Capt. Bartlett reported all well on board.

Nine Days in the Woods

Agou Cape Breton Man Was Exhausted When Found.
Sydney, June 23.—After wandering about in the woods for nine days, and thinly clad, Anthony McDougall, of Big Pond, was found in the woods back of his home on Friday last, the 20th inst. McDougall, who is a bachelor, is an old man of about 70 years of age and disappeared or was lost on Thursday the 12th. Search parties were got out and the country side scoured but without success, and the hunt was given up when a week had passed. On Friday, a neighbour passing through the woods on the mountain back of Big Pond came upon him by chance. He was practically exhausted from cold and hunger and when found was crawling on his hands and knees. He was taken home and attended by friends and is now on a fair way to recovery after his arduous experience.

NO WHALES.—The S. S. Kyle reports the S. S. Cachalot at Hawke's Harbour, but without whales up to the time she was there. Whales are scarce and the rough weather of recent dates precludes a successful hunt.
