with the Emperor can be ascertained at present, beyond confirmation of the fact that the German answer to the American note, as previously stated, will not be delivered for some time, if indeed, it is decided to prepare any answer. There is no chance whatever of the formal abandonment of submarine warfare on the present basis, although submarine commanders may be impressed with the advisability of avoiding complications with the States, taking whatever steps they can to that end. Developments of American negotiations with Britain will unquestionably have an important reflection on the German Imperial Chancellor. German statesmen are waiting eagerly to ascertain whether the American note to England is as stiff in tone as that of Admiral Caperton, making any final decision as to the German policy. Meanwhile, successes in the submarine campaign are again being brought in to the foreground of public interest.

FRANCE AND FLANDERS.

LONDON, July 29. An official communication, telling of recent operations in France and Belgium, was issued here to-night. It says that mining operations have continued on both sides during the last few days, with intermittent artillery engagements, but there have been no infantry attacks. The enemy exploded three mines in the neighborhood of St. Eloi, and one near Givochy. Only one of them did any damage, and in that case the damage was only slight. We exploded a mine on the 26th north of Zwarteleen, which destroyed twenty yards of the enemy's parapets. On the 26th one of our aeroplanes shot down a German machine which fell inside our lines east of Zillebeke.

IN BELGIUM.

LONDON, July 29. Extraordinary activity by the Allies has been renewed along the Belgian coast, according to a despatch from Amsterdam. A warship has bombarded the Zebrugge, the German submarine base. A German torpedo boat is said to have been badly damaged. Airships have dropped bombs on Zebrugge for four successive nights. Another despatch from Amsterdam says that a French airship flew over Ghent on Monday. It was followed by two German aeroplanes, but was successful in escaping them. The Germans are retreating for the French activity by another long range shelling of Dunkirk. Another despatch says that the town was bombarded to-day by German heavy howitzers; but the damage inflicted was slight.

LIBERALS FOR CONSCRIPTION.

LONDON, July 29. In the debate in the Commons yesterday, on the question of conscription, the immediate necessity of this measure was debated by the Liberals. Captain Guest, who is Aide de Camp to Field Marshal French, and Josiah Wedgwood, who returned wounded from the Dardanelles, were among the speakers. "When are those who have not come forward going to bear their fair share?" asked Captain Guest, which question was greeted with cheers from the Conservatives. He asserted that England ought to produce enormously greater numbers of troops and supplies of ammunition. In reply, James H. Thomas, railway men's leader, maintained that the volunteer system had succeeded entirely, and that no industry was able to spare more workers. The Welsh coal strike showed the futility of trying to coerce the workers. Mr. Wedgwood said, "We can buy from America. Let the English fight. I do not see that conscription is necessary."

But I do say that what we want is a declaration from the Prime Minister, that if circumstances require, he would not shy at that possibility. What we want in this country more than money and shells is a leader. For God's sake give us a man who will lead without fear of the consequences. Believe me the whole world from Vladivostok to San Francisco is looking to see if we can develop a leader, who can lead and shape into the new conditions. He praised highly the conditions in France, as a result of conscription. Germany now recognized the French as its chief opponent, and said that she would be prepared to offer France peace on terms which would be a great temptation. This declaration drew a bitter attack from William Llewellyn Williams, who said that the statement that the volunteer system was a failure was calumnious on the country, and there could be no more drastic suggestion than that France might be tempted to break her alliance. Mr. Wedgwood explained that Great Britain ought not to inflict the temptation on her ally. We got three million men voluntarily, declared Mr. Williams—out of twelve million, interrupted Major Archer-Shee. The debate ended with a sharp exchange of personalities.

FRENCH SUBMARINE SUPPOSED SUNK.

PARIS, July 27. The following statement was issued to-day: The French squadron in the Dardanelles is without direct news of the French submarine Mariotte, which entered the Straits on July 15th to operate in the event of a bitter attack from William Llewellyn Williams, who said that the statement that the volunteer system was a failure was calumnious on the country, and there could be no more drastic suggestion than that France might be tempted to break her alliance. Mr. Wedgwood explained that Great Britain ought not to inflict the temptation on her ally. We got three million men voluntarily, declared Mr. Williams—out of twelve million, interrupted Major Archer-Shee. The debate ended with a sharp exchange of personalities.

FRENCH AIRSHIP ACCIDENT.

ETAMPES, France, July 29. A French military biplane, carrying a Quarter-Master Duvoy, of the Fifth Light Cavalry, caught fire while flying over this place at a height of 300 feet, to-day. The cavalry officer was thrown out of the aeroplane when at an altitude of 150 feet. He died in a few minutes. The machine was demolished.

SWEDISH SHIP TORPEDOED.

LONDON, July 29. The Swedish brig, Fortuna, was torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea, to-day, by a German submarine. The crew was saved. The Fortuna was 703 tons gross burthen, and built in 1873.

AMERICANS MARINES LANDED.

WASHINGTON, July 29. American marines landed at Port au Prince, Haiti. They encountered resistance, which was overcome without casualties among the sailors. The following message from Admiral Caperton was given out by the Navy Department to-day: Landing forces are established in the city. There was slight resistance during the early part of the night, no advance being made. This resistance was easily overcome. No casualties. Our force is proceeding to disarm the Haitian soldiers and civilians to-day.

HAIFAIX VOLUNTEERS.

HALIFAX, July 29. At a recruiting meeting here to-night, 125 volunteers were enrolled for the 40th Nova Scotia Battalion. There were also 19 volunteered during the day at the recruiting stations.

Things to Forget.

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd, a leader, men, marching fearless and proud. And you know of a tale whose mere telling would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed. It's a pretty good plan to forget it. If you know of a skeleton hidden away. In a closet and guarded and kept from the day, and whose showing, whose sudden display, would cause grief and sorrow and a lifelong dismay. It's a pretty good plan to forget it. If you know of a thing that will darken the joy of a man, or a woman, a girl or a boy. That will wipe out a smile or the least way annoy. It's a pretty, or cause any gladness to glow. It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

"HAZARDS OF HELEN" AT NICKEL THEATRE.

The great railroad series of moving pictures—"The Hazards of Helen"—will be continued at the Nickel Theatre this evening. This episode for to-day is one of the "best ever" shown here and without doubt it will attract large audiences. The balance of the programme will be up to the usual standard of the Nickel. Only the best pictures obtainable are shown there, and patrons are certain of seeing something good. The singing and music is also of the best. Forbes Law Duguid, in a rich voice, sang "There's a cool and well ventilated these days, and it is the best place to spend an hour." To-morrow afternoon there will be a bumper matinee for the little ones.

FOR AEROPLANE FUND.

The entertainment at Rossley's East End Theatre last night was fairly well attended despite the counter attractions and the intense heat, and those present enjoyed a performance that has rarely been equalled in local theatrics. The feature of the evening was the Venetian sketch by Mrs. Colville, Miss Flora Hill, Miss Mary Doyle and Miss Frances Goding. It was delightfully rendered and the applause was richly deserved. Miss L. Anderson, in a rich voice, sang "There's a cool and well ventilated these days, and it is the best place to spend an hour." To-morrow afternoon there will be a bumper matinee for the little ones.

SIX FEATURE PICTURES AT THE CRESCENT.

The Crescent Picture Palace is showing a big programme of six feature pictures to-day made up of drama and comedy. They are: "The Great Programme is up to the Crescent's usual high class shows and is sure to please the patrons of the popular Picture Palace." "The Fatal Note" is a touching southern love story portrayed by the Selig Company. G. M. Anderson, the favourite cowboy actor plays the lead in a western drama. Kate Price and Huguette Mack create a gallop of fun in "Sweeney's Christmas Bird." On Saturday the usual extra pictures will be shown at the big, big, big. Send along the children, the Crescent staff will look after them.

BRITISH THEATRE.

The programme chosen for the latter part of the week at the British is a splendid combination of drama and comedy, and one of the photo-plays are of the first class and one in particular might be mentioned owing to the strength of its characterization, i.e., "The Black Signal." This is a play of indoubt strength. Mr. Arthur Priestman Cameron will sing another one of Mr. Gus Eden's famous "rooster" dialect songs—the one entitled: "It's the finest flow of language ever heard." This particular brand of song is new here but will eventually catch on.

INTERCESSORY SERVICE.

At the weekly Intercessory Service held at St. Thomas's yesterday it was announced that the service for next week will be held at 10.30 a.m. on Wednesday next instead of on Thursday, as was originally intended. ### Peace.

And blood and tears shall buy us peace. Shall buy us peace, they say: And moths and rust shall eat to dust the arms of yesterday. But what can bring to me again? The lad they took away? The peace of years, the day to come, what matter it to me? I can but hear the shattering gun. I can see the face turned to the sun. Of him, who was so dear to me. O Christ, what matter that war cease. When they have taken away my peace! Weiss.
