New Rector Welcomed.RECEPTION AT CANON WOOD HALL.

The members of St. Thomas's Parish assembled last night in the Canon Wood Hall and gave to their new Rector, Rev. E. C. Earp, a welcome which for its spontaneous warmth and enthusiasm has probably never been equalled, nor could Mr. Earp have experienced any doubt of its genuineness. From early in the evening until the time when the reception was brought to a close, the old building was filled with men and women, not only of St. Thomas's, but of other city parishes, anxious to make the acquaintance of the new Rector, and when he arrived with Mrs. Earp and his hosts, Hon. M. G. and Mrs. Winter, he was received with cordial enthusiasm. They were welcomed by the Wardens, Hon. Robert Watson and Mr. W. S. Monroe and members of the Vestry. Among the visitors were His Excellency the Governor, who was attended by Captain Saltmarsh, the Lord Bishop, Canons Bolt, Field, Jeeves; Revs. Stirling, Nichols, Brinton, Talk (Portugal Cove), Pike, the editors of the Telegram, Advocate, a representative of the News and others. The proceedings began with a short concert in which the following talented artists took part, Misses Major and Fraser and Mr. C. Hammond. After the musical part of the programme had been concluded, Mr. Watson, in his capacity as Chairman, delivered the welcoming address. His speech was an eloquent one, and was expressive of the feeling of the congregation towards the new Rector. He first thanked the performers in the musicals, and then on behalf of St. Thomas's parish, he welcomed Rev. Mr. Earp, his wife and children. "Our dear new Rector," said the chairman, "has come with the highest testimonials. The great Canadian divines, Canon Cody and Canon James, who knew personally of his work, wrote in the most eulogistic terms of him, and the famous churchman, the Archbishop of York, and the dearly loved Priest, Canon Buchanan,

Rector of Holy Trinity, Hull, also testified in the most flattering manner of Rev. Earp's ability. Although but a few days in the city, St. Thomas's had already learned the greatness of the Rector. On behalf of the Parish, the Chairman pledged his loyalty and co-operation. "We are a happy band of brothers," remarked the speaker, and the applause which followed demonstrated he had struck the right note. It was pleasing to the Chairman to have had the head of the State in the person of the Governor and the head of the Church, in the Bishop, present, and he was delighted to be able to say that both were in Rev. Earp's parish. Mr. Watson concluded his most interesting speech with the following appropriate words:

"This is our Rector from over the sea English and Scotch and Irish are welcome to thee."

OUR RECTOR.

Mr. Watson in addition made special reference to an acknowledgment of the brotherly act on Sunday by the pastors of St. Andrews and Cochrane Street churches in asking that blessings might rest on the Rev. E. C. Earp's rectorship of the parish of St. Thomas's, and regretted that Rev. Johnson and Power had been unable to accept an invitation to be present at the reception. Appropriate addresses were delivered by the Lord Bishop, who referred to the fact that although St. Thomas's was one of the oldest parishes of the Diocese, Rev. Earp was but the eighth Rector. Due honour was paid the late Arch-Deacon Alicks, Rev. Thomas Martin Wood, Canon Arthur T. Wood, Canon Dunfield, Rev. G. Ross Golden all entered into Rest, and Rev. Dr. Jones, who recently resigned to labour in America. The mention of Dr. Jones' name was the cause of spirited applause for the Doctor's work will always be remembered. The best illustration of his Lordship could give of Dr. Jones' work was to refer to the inscription on Wren's monument in the great Cathedral of St. Paul's, London, "If thou require to see his monument, look around." Rev. Canon Bolt, Registrar of the Diocese, Rev. Canon Jeeves, Rector of the Cathedral, Rev. A. B. S. Stirling, Rector of St. Mary's, also spoke, and then Hon. W. LeMay, one of Newfoundland's historians gave a graphic and interesting account of St. Thomas's in the early days.

The new Rector then replied and in a speech of half an hour had the undivided attention of all. Rev. Earp proved himself a polished orator, and through his able address there was a strain of sincerity that impressed the audience. His reply was couched in refined language and had the right ring. He realized that he was attempting to fill the place of a great man, but he felt sure that his people would give him that wonderful sympathy and strong support that was Dr. Jones'. He also referred to the prayers offered up in St. Andrews' and Cochrane Street churches on Sunday, asking that the blessings of God would fall on his induction and cure. At the conclusion of the Rector's speech the individual members of the parish were presented to him, whilst refreshments were served by the Woman's Association and St. Margaret's Guild. The evening proved a most enjoyable one, and Mr. Earp endeared himself to the hearts of all he met.

Train Wrecked.Engine and Cars Derailed Near Bowring Park.

A broken rail caused the engine and four freight cars attached to yesterday's incoming Carboneau local, to leave the track near Bowring Park shortly after noon. No injuries were sustained by either passengers or train hands. The engine turned over on its side and lay in that position at the foot of the embankment. Two of the baggage cars fell on their sides in Bowring Park, whilst the other two were thrown across the track in a horizontal position. The freight contained in one of the cars was scattered about and the road bed was torn up for a distance of 50 yards. The presence of mind shown by engine driver Moore, who shut off steam in the nick of time, prevented a boiler explosion. Both he and his fireman are deserving of praise for their pluck in holding on to the last in the face of what appeared to be almost certain death. It is a remarkable fact that although the scene of the derailment is only 200 yards from Waterford Road station, the broken rail passed unnoticed. Traffic along the line has been held up as a result of the derailment.

Manslaughter Trial Set for Friday.

At 3.30 p.m. yesterday Stephen Wells, lookout man on the schooner Fannie W. Freeman, which ran down a motor boat off Flatrock some months ago, causing the death of a young man named Hickey, a resident of the settlement, was arraigned before Mr. Justice Johnson on a charge of manslaughter. The accused pleaded not guilty, and the trial was set for Friday at 11 o'clock before a special jury. Deputy Minister of Justice Summers is conducting the case for the Crown and Mr. W. J. Higgins, K. C., represents the accused. The accused was given bail in a personal bond of $2000, and Messrs. J. H. Roberts and Bernard Morris in $1000 each.

Successful Lecture.

The illustrated lecture "A Trip Through the Rockies" at Wesley Church, S. S. Room last night, was largely attended, and the word picture of Rev. Ira Curtis greatly enjoyed. He certainly is a fine entertainer, both informing and humorous. A solo by Miss Ida Sparkes, and some motion songs by well trained girls from the Methodist Orphanage greatly pleased all present. The Pittman boys in their musical exercises, piano, spoons and pans, were demanded three times. It was a clever performance. The "Sunbeam" young ladies are delighted over the fifty dollars receipts and are grateful to the lecturer, Rev. Curtis, Mr. Rooney, the chairman, and Mr. Allan Pelley, who operated the lantern.

Personal.

By Sunday's express, Mr. Samuel Worthy left for Newark, New Jersey, where he will in future engage in the drug business. Mr. Worthy, who has been Sleeping Car Conductor on the transatlantic railway for a number of years, during which period, he made many friends in a pharmaceutical chemist of no mean ability, and everybody hopes that he will meet with every success in his present venture. "Sam," as he was popularly known, will be missed, not alone by his train mates, but by all the travelling public to whom he gave unfailing courtesy and attention.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.EX-BAVARIAN KING DEAD.

BERLIN, Oct. 18. Former King Ludwig of Bavaria is dead. It was announced here to-day. Ludwig III was deposed in November, 1918. Ludwig was born January 7, 1846. He became Regent of Bavaria in succession to his father, Prince Leopold, who died December 12, 1912. He was proclaimed King on November 5, 1913. In succession to his cousin King Otto, who was then declared incapable of ruling owing to insanity, the curse of the Bavarian royal family.

NO DANGER FROM JAPS.

LONDON, Oct. 18. Viscount James Bryce, former British Ambassador to the United States, writing the Times says that Americans are apprehensive of Japanese aggression, and believe the Anglo-Japanese Treaty encourages Japan to take an aggressive attitude. Bryce, however, depreciates this fear, saying the Japanese in California are not numerous enough to be dangerous, and their fleet and army, after a three weeks' voyage could not be expected to do much on a hostile coast.

WIDOWS' AWARD.

CORK, Oct. 18. The Recorder of Cork awarded 10,000 pounds to the widow of Major Compton Smith, shot last April by soldiers of the Irish Republican Army in County Cork.

BRIEF SESSION ONLY.

LONDON, Oct. 18. The autumn session of Parliament, opening to-day, will be a brief business one, being confined to unemployment and business questions. Lloyd George is expected to make an important statement on unemployment.

H.M.S. WISTERIA ASHORE.

QUEBEC, Oct. 18. H.M.S. Wisteria (light cruiser), which went ashore near the mouth of the Saguenay River on Monday, has been hoisted, but is leaking and obliged to anchor. The Government steamer Strathcona has gone to her assistance.

A STATEMENT.

DUBLIN, Oct. 19. The Irish Republican army, not having engaged in provocative action, has observed the terms of the truce, says an Irish bulletin, which adds "every army must have camps, and Irish camps are far from public places."

SPEAKER SITS TIGHT.

LONDON, Oct. 19. Sir John Butcher, Unionist member for York, speaking in the House of Commons, referred to the Irish leader as "De Valera," whereupon the Speaker called him to order, saying "De Valera's designation was the honorable member from Clare and Mayo." Some members said an individual who had not taken the oath of allegiance was not a member of the House, but the Speaker adhered to his ruling.

The Men of Old.

I know not that the men of old Were better men than now: Of heart more kind, of hand more bold, Of more ingenious brow. They from to-day and from to-night Expected nothing more Than yesterday and yesterday Had proffered them before.

To them was life a simple art Of duties to be done, A game where each man took his part, A race where all must run; A battle whose great scheme and scope They hardly cared to know, Content, as men at arms, to cope Each with his fighting foe.

Man now his virtue's diadem Puts on, and proudly wears— Great thoughts, great feelings, come to them. Like instincts, unawares; Blending their souls' sublimest needs With tasks of every day. They went about their travest needs As noble boys at play.

Lord Houghton.

A Fish That Shoots Flies.

In Queensland some of the most interesting forms of animal life are to be found. The duck-billed Platypus (with the web-feet of a duck, which lays eggs and suckles young), the lung fish, the walking perch, and many other queer creatures, might be mentioned in confirmation of this. A remarkable little fish is the rifle fish, which lives in the far northern rivers of Queensland. A full-grown specimen measures about 10 inches in length, and averages 14 lbs. in weight. The rifle fish derives its name from the fact that it shoots food. It swims leisurely about the stream, a few inches below the surface, and is always on the lookout for flies and other insects that settle on the floating leaves and twigs, or on the surface of water plants. On getting close enough to its victim it discharges a tiny jet or ball of water, which, if shot straight, knocks the fly into the stream, where it is instantly gathered in by the shooter.

Oldest Man on Earth Weds for Fourth Time.

Zaro, of Constantinople, aged 146, and the oldest man on earth, has married for the fourth time. His latest wife is a beautiful Turkish girl aged 25. Other peculiarities of Zaro, nicknamed "King of Life," are: Worked 90 years as a street porter, quitting for another job at 110. Became porter in a munitions factory at 111 and still holds the job. Lost all his teeth and hair at 106 and then grew an entirely new set of both. Developed third kidney at 105. Gets angry with his 96-year-old son, because he will not work, but "sticks around the house." Zaro has been offered a fabulous sum to tour America. He says he may—after his honeymoon.

NOTE OF THANKS.—The Parishioners of St. Patrick's desire to express their sincere thanks to all those who in any way helped to make their Vegetable Sale such a great success; particularly are they grateful to their non-Catholic friends who so generously contributed vegetables and helped in every way to make it a success.

SURVEY HELD.—A survey on the steamers Otta and Anslag Hasland, was held yesterday, and the work of having repairs effected will be started within a day or so.
