Landover Castle during the war, es- at St. Mark's Church, Brooklyn, New capted from the prison in Hamburg York, on December the 17th, when Miss Gladys Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of King's Cove, Newfoundland, was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Harry Bundock of Brooklyn, New York, by the Rev. Mr. Charles. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of flowered blue chiffon over silk, with picture hat to match and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, she was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel, who wore a gown of blue silk, and a black picture hat. The bride we are comp was given away by her brother, Andrew. After the ceremony a reception was held at 183 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn where the happy couple received the best wishes of their many friends in yesterday's Telegram, for Mrs. E. for their future happiness.
