 Miske died on Nov. 19th, after a long illness with Bright's disease. Requiem high mass was said by Father Peter A. Roy, who eulogized Miske's home life and ring career. "The boxer was termed a credit to the profession; a man who always played 'Square'."

The Passing Hour
 "Of course," she said, "drunkenness is a disease that ought to be treated by a doctor."
 "Bless you," answered her neighbor, "when my husband's 'ad a couple 'e don't care 'o treat 'im."
 A jurymen is a man who must decide which set of liars to believe.

Our civilization has developed so far that one can get almost anything in tin cans except a good dinner.
 "Carry yer bag, sir!" asked the eager youngster in the Strand.
 "No, thanks," was the short reply.
 "I'll carry it all the way to Waterloo for tuppence," persisted the lad.
 "I tell you I don't want it carried."
 "Don't yer?"
 "No, I don't," snapped the traveller.
 "Then," asked the lad, grinning, "what are ye carrying it for?"
 Mistress—"Let me see! What's your name?"
 New Help—"Minnie, mum."
 Mistress—"Well, Minnie, if you'll only do the maximum of work we'll get along nicely."

LABOUR WILL WELCOME CO-OPERATION OF DOMINIONS.
 LONDON, Jan. 13.
 Joseph Wedgwood, who cabinet makes, and Liberal papers to-day declare will probably be the Secretary for India in the event of Labour forming the Government, said in an address last night, that the Labour Party would welcome the assumption by the self-governing Dominions of their responsibilities in foreign and domestic affairs of Empire.

LABOUR LEADER WILL GIVE EXTRACTS FROM HIS SPEECHES.
 LONDON, Jan. 14.
 In the short period now intervening before the expected battle in the new House of Commons, the most notable feature of the situation seems to be the persistence of the agitation to prevent Labour from forming the Government or failing that, to make sure that such a government once it is formed, will have the shortest possible life. The latest report has been to seize upon pending industrial disputes to afford justifiable grounds for retaining the present government in power. The arguments being employed is that in the face of such a disturbing factor as a big Harbour strike, the new Labour Administration might find its hand forced by the extremist section of the Labour Party to the injury of public interests, and that therefore safety lies in retention of the Baldwin Administration. Without a doubt big Labour disputes would embarrass the Labour Government, but thus far Ramsay MacDonald, who would be the new Premier, is currently reported as having no intention of giving extremist representation in his cabinet if it is formed. He is making no secret of this intention, to exclude extremists and his indifference to this section of his party, it is predicted, will bring his downfall.

MEDIATION OF UNION CONGRESS IN THREATENING STRIKE.
 LONDON, Jan. 14.

The intervention of the Council of the Trades Union Congress has been sought and a meeting of the Council has been summoned for to-morrow. It is expected that the Council will appoint a mediation committee to consult with both sides and initiate negotiations.

GENERAL AMNESTY TO POLITICAL PRISONERS IN GREECE.
 ATHENS, Jan. 14.
 One of the first acts of the new Venizelist Government will be to declare a general amnesty to all political prisoners, including perhaps the Greek King, formerly of the Greek Army, now believed to be in France. He was one of the leaders of the recent counter-revolution opposition. The press attacks Venizelos, charging him with staging a return to political power under the mask of pacemaker.

SPEAKER IS ACCEPTABLE TO LABOUR BUT NOT CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES.
 LONDON, Jan. 14.
 The Labour Party has already demonstrated that they are quite reasonable to speaker Whitley continuing in office, but the question accepting the former chairman of Committees is, said to be quite another matter. The speaker is a non-party man, but the office of Chairman of Committees who is also Deputy Speaker is definitely a party appointment.

A Nid. Vaudeville Programme
 WILL BE RENDERED AT THE CRESCENT WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

An attraction of unusual promise will be witnessed at the Crescent Theatre on Wednesday night. It is an all-Newfoundland affair, the which will be run in conjunction with the regular motion picture programme, and there will be no change in admission. The bill will consist of singing, dancing, ventriloquism, musical acts and comedy skits, five big acts altogether, and the biggest variety bill ever in this popular theatre. Make no other appointments for Wednesday night. In the big photoplay, "What's Wrong With The Women," Daniel Carson Goodwin, the noted philosopher and author, answers with his brilliant wit the age-old problem with which wise men have coped since the very dawn of humanity. With deep understanding of the whims and foibles of Modern Woman, he pounds home his message to the race. And it is a message of love and human sympathy—a message that will go ringing down the corridors of time as a monumental warning to the coming generations. Like the mighty hammer of Thor, it deals crushing blows to the thiel forces of extravagance and hypocrisy, and rests a new faith in the glory of the love and human understanding. See this great picture at the Crescent tonight.

A Tremendous Bill
 AT THE MAJESTIC TO-DAY.
 With the World's Sweetheart, Mary Pickford, leading the way in her most famous production, assisted by other screen stars in the class of Gloria Hope, Lloyd Hughes, Danny Hoy, Robert Russell, and Gus Saville; and a splendid selection of music and songs by the Harmony Boys, Jacobson and Bass, who will render "Galaughter and Shean," "The Rosary," and other popular songs, the Majestic is making a big effort to please even the most critical patrons. Tonight will set a pace that will with difficulty be approached, yet the Majestic management, in view of new bookings are equal to the occasion. The Majestic was selected in this country to exhibit the celebrated actress's new and recently finished production of the famous screen classic, "Tess of the Storm Country," an entirely new picture which is regarded as the crowning achievement of Mary Pickford's career. There are some who will want to see it a second or third time. A fascinating, captivating and enthralling feature, showing the beautiful Mary in her rage and long boots, as worn by the fisher folk, a picture so gripping that it hurts, so superb that it aches, yet Mary, as the lovable Tess, has brought glad tears and joyous smiles to millions. It is in all a modern re-creation of an emotional masterpiece, in which the beautiful Mary is more beautiful than ever. So much for the feature picture. The ever popular Harmony Boys, Paul Jacobson and John Bus, have a lineup of music and songs which will make you glad. Included also in the numbers mentioned are "Roses of Picardy" and "Smilin' Thru." Despite the super attractions thus offered, and the incidents that assist in making a good show better there is no increase in the admission price. At the regular popular rate, see this big attraction at the Majestic tonight and you will, like others, be forced to admit the plaudits of the world, as accredited to Mary Pickford the $10,000 a week screen star, as justified.
