CELEBRATEDSt. George's Society's 34th
Annual Reunion.The Most Successful Banquet in the History of Its Organization.Names of the Guests—Letters of Regret From Absentees—A Social Evening Enlivened by Bright
Speeches and Good Music.This royal throne of kings, this scepter'd isle.

This earth of majesty, this seat of Mars,
This other Eden, demi-paradise;
This fortress, built by Nature for herself,
Against infection and the hand of war;
This happy breed of men, this little world,
This precious stone, set in the silver sea,
Which serves it in the office of a wall,
Or as a moat defensive to a house,
Against the envy of less happier lands;
This blessed plot, this earth, this realm,
this England.

Shakespeare: Richard II.

The Englishmen of London last night marked the recurrence of the anniversary of their patron saint at their annual banquet, and it is safe to say that not since the occasion, 32 years ago last night, when St. George's day was first celebrated in this city by a concert and ball in the city hall, has there been a more successful celebration of the day that Englishmen the world over delight to honor. The large dining-room of the City Hotel, which was appropriately and artistically draped with national flags and bright bunting, was completely filled by the array of guests. The speeches of the evening were brief, bright and pithy, loyalty to Canada, to England and to the empire being the dominant note. The Seventh Band was present to furnish music for the diners, their opening selection being a particularly well-rendered and pleasing melody of British national airs. The genial host surpassed himself in the preparation of the menu, which was as follows:

Blue Points. Mince Turtle, a la Anglaise. Cream of Tomato. Fillets of Whitefish, sauté. Potatoes, Mashed. Croquettes. Lettuce, Radishes, Green Onions. Salad de Voilaie. Salad de Homard. Boiled Capers. Baked Potatoes. Braised Sweetbreads, Aux Champignons. Croquettes de Agnew, petit pois. Pineapple, a la Reine. Prime Rib, Beef, Yorkshire Pudding. Young Turkey, stuffed, cranberry sauce. Spring Lamb, mint sauce. Mashed Potatoes. Whole Potatoes. Stewed Tomatoes. Standard Peas. String Beans. English Plum Pudding. Brandied Apples. Pudding, cream sauce. Apple Pie. Lemon Meringue. Pie, Raspberry. Tart, Peach. Tart, Orange. Cake, Chocolate. Cake, Coconut. Cake, Pineapple. Jelly, Strawberry. Jelly, Raspberry. Jelly, Velvet Cream. Vanilla Ice Cream. Oranges. Apples. Bananas. Tea, Coffee, Roquefort Cheese.

GREETINGS AND REGRETS.

Telegrams of greetings were received from Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Kingston and Philadelphia. The following gentlemen sent letters or telegrams of regret at their inability to attend: C. S. Hyman, M.P., H. S. Culver, U. S. Consul, Sir John Carling, John Forrester, Major Denison and Col. Garthshore. This city: Alfred R. Wiggins, president of the American St. George's Union; W. A. Spritt, president of St. George's Social, Hamilton; Thomas N. Teates, secretary of the North American St. George's Union, and R. W. Barker, past president of St. George's Society, Toronto.

THE ROYAL FAMILY.

The discussion of the menu concluded, the chairman, Mr. Peter Birtwistle, introduced the toast of "King Edward VII. and the Royal Family," which was enthusiastically honored by the singing of the National Anthem. Mr. J. T. Dalton followed in a well-rendered patriotic song, "The King," giving "Hearts of Oak" as an encore.

THE UNITED STATES.

The toast of "The President of the United States" was honored heartily, the band playing "Yankee Doodle Dandy" as the toast was drunk. In the unavoidable absence of Col. C. J. H. Flock, K.C., who for 24 years

To Avoid Pneumonia

Exhaustion or Low Vitality—
Catching Cold—La Grippe—Pneumonia—These Are the Steps Which Many Are Following.

The ravages of pneumonia are felt all over the land. This year more than in any preceding one this ugly disease is prevalent. Doctors say that the prevalence of this destroyer of life is the direct result of an epidemic form of la grippe, and ordinary pneumonia is never so vicious as la grippe pneumonia.

La grippe usually attacks persons of low vitality and develops into diphtheria, nervous disorders or more frequently into pneumonia. During the prevalence of la grippe people are advised to treat seriously everything in the form of a cold. By the prompt use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine la grippe can always be prevented or cured.

Anyone who has witnessed the dreadful results of la grippe developing into pneumonia or other serious lung trouble knows the importance of acting promptly when the first symptoms of cold become apparent. It is truly wonderful how thoroughly efficient Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has proven in the treatment of la grippe and heavy chest colds. It not only affords relief to the cough and inflamed air passages, but actually cures the disease and drives the pains and aches from the bones.

La grippe is too serious a foe to trifle with, and pneumonia is most frequently fatal. It is better to guard against these by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Scores of thousands of people are ready to endorse it as the most effective throat and lung treatment which modern science affords. Be sure you get what you ask for. It costs no more than ordinary cough mixtures; 25 cents a bottle, family size, three times as much, for 60 cents. All dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

has been the legal representative of the various United States consuls here was called upon to reply. He spoke briefly, referring to the cordial relations existing between the British Empire and the great republic, and expressing the hope that they may long continue so.

THE ARMY AND NAVY.

Thomas Beattie, ex-M.P., and Capt. John Graham were called upon to reply to the toast "His Majesty's Imperial Forces." Mr. Beattie said that British soldiers had gone to many lands, and have never returned without honor and glory. The British army in South Africa have had an immense task to perform, and though they have made mistakes, there never was any army which did not make mistakes. They have had arduous work to perform, but they did it well, and the Canadians who went to the scene of battle also did their part nobly.

Capt. Graham briefly said that the imperial forces had shown that they were not only brave, but they were never turned back. They are showing the stuff that the Anglo-Saxon race is made of.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

First Vice-President Joseph Graham, wittily introduced the toast "The Day We Celebrate," coupling with it the name of Rev. Dr. Saunders. The reverend gentleman, in opening the banquet, said that the various Canadian celebrate in honor of the lands of their forefathers, but of them all he considered none compared with the celebration of the last celebration of that day the queenliest woman who ever sat upon a throne had departed from earth. She began her reign upon the knees, asking help of God, and all through the years that followed she looked to his guidance. Her reign of over 60 years will go down in history as, perhaps, the grandest era of the British Empire. She has, however, a worthy successor in her son, Edward VII. The speaker said that in common with all Britons, he had implicit confidence in the new King of England, and he was glad that in assuming the throne Edward VII. had taken the path of duty. The opening of the campaign in South Africa may have been marked by mistakes, but the subsequent magnificent victories and the display of the prowess of Britain's sons from all parts of the empire had redeemed those errors and defeats. Graham referred to the chronicling in the day's papers of this fact, that Britain's new war loan had been subscribed four times over, thus proving his confidence in the British people. He believed that Great Britain would go on carrying the light of civilization and the Gospel of Jesus Christ into the darkest corners of the earth, and he would be the greatest influence in the beginning of the time.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENTS.

In replying to "The Dominion and Provincial Legislatures," which was introduced by Second Vice-Chairman Geo. Pritchard, Capt. Robson, M.P., spoke humorously of his experiences in political life, referring to the time when he was canvassing his constituency and staying out late nights, for the good of the country, and to the time when his election was protested, on the grounds that he had not been elected fairly. As for the legislature and its work credit should be assigned to both sides for any good legislation passed, for they both had a hand in it.

OUR GLORIOUS DOMINION.

The toast of "Canada Our Home," introduced by Third Vice-Chairman J. H. Barons, brought Mr. E. T. Essery to his feet. His speech was a charming and humorous one. He opened by saying that while all present should be proud of their English, Irish, Scotch or Welsh descent, they should be more proud still of being Canadians. Canada is so vast that England, Ireland and Scotland could be put in the great lakes, which in any other country would be called oceans. Canada has rivers so great that if one of them were strung across Europe its mouth would be at Gibraltar and its source would have to be twisted round cornucopia-wise, in the upper corner of Siberia. In Canada, said Mr. Essery, is the mainstay of the British empire, and the best part of that empire, for it is peopled by those Britons and the descendants of those Britons who had the energy and ambition to better their condition by coming to this great country. Mr. Essery then spoke of the Canadian soldiers who, he said, were once sneered at as being feather-bed soldiers. But they were not feather-bed soldiers in 1776, when they saved Canada to Great Britain; nor in 1812, when they planted the British flag on Detroit and other captured American points; nor in 1837, when the valor of Canada's yeomanry saved the country from the grasp of the American invader; nor in 1866, when they cleaned out an organized invasion in a week, nor in 1877, nor in 1885. Nor were they feather-bed soldiers in 1900, when the South African veldt, they led the way, leaving the pick of the British forces to follow them. They brought the lion of Africa, to his knees. They were the only men of whom the Boers were afraid. It was their mothers and sisters and wives who had inspired them with the spirit which enabled them to more than hold their own with the best of Britain's soldiers.

SISTER SOCIETIES.

First Vice-Chairman Joseph Graham proposed the toast of "Sister Societies," coupling it with the names of Messrs. McKillop and Frank Love, of St. Andrew's Society, and John Stevely and J. M. Daly, of the Irish Benevolent Society. Each gentleman replied briefly and appropriately.

CIVIC BODIES.

The toast of "The Mayor and Corporation" was responded to by Mayor Rumball, who said that he was proud of being born of English parents, but prouder still of being born a Canadian. He loved its hills and dales, its lakes and rivers, its mountains and valleys, but most of all he loved the clean, pretty city of London. The taxes, he said, might be a little high, but business is so good here that it is easy to make the money to pay them. If all work for the advancement of the city, it is bound to go ahead and prosper.

OTHER TOASTS.

"The Sons of England," with response from Mr. R. A. Jones; "The Ladies," coupled with the name of Mrs. J. C. Trevellick; "St. George's Society," proposed by J. H. Flock, K.C., and responded to by Mr. Geo. F. Jewell, and "Our Host," replied to by Mr. John MacMartin, completed the toast list.

The singing of "God Save the King" and "Auld Lang Syne," brought to a close the most successful celebration of St. George's Day.

MUSICAL NUMBERS.

During the evening solos were contributed as follows: "The Englishman," Mr. J. W. McIntosh; "John Bull," Capt. Robson; "Tim Flaherty" and "Never Take the Horseshoe from the Door," Mr. John Stevely; "The Veteran," Capt. Archie Becher; "The Dea Shamrock," Mr. J. H. Flock; "Alley," Mr. L. Russell Childs; "Oh, Lucky Jim," Mr. J. T. Dalton. Mr. Childs also contributed an instrumental solo, Mr. Fred Fitzgerald accepted and performed the duties of accompanist.

COMMITTEE AND OFFICERS.

The efficient committee who had in hand the arrangements for the banquet, and to whose efforts the success of the affair were so largely attributable, were: J. B. Cox, H. T. Smith, J. H. Barons, I. Lewis, R. Jones and Jos. Graham.

GUESTS OF HONOR.

The guests at the table of honor were: Peter Birtwistle, president of St. George's Society; J. B. Cox, secretary; John R. Minihnick, sen., Thomas Beattie, ex-M.P., J. H. Flock, K.C., J. Stevely (secretary Irish Benevolent Society), J. B. McKillop (president St. Andrew's Society), Rev. Dr. Saunders, George F. Jewell, Capt. Robson, Police Magistrate Frank Love, J. T. Essery, Assessment Commissioner Stephen Grant, Frank Butler and D. W. Blackwell.

OTHERS WHO WERE PRESENT.

Among the others present were: Messrs. George Slade, C. W. Walker, A. E. Wyatt, H. T. Smith, J. A. Gault, R. A. Jones, J. W. Jones, J. H. Barons, J. M. Daly, H. R. Campbell, E. Miss Mable Bishop has been visiting in London.

WHAT CANADIAN PUBLISHERS WANT.

Toronto, April 24.—The deputations appointed by the publishers' section of the Toronto board of trade to interview the government on the copyright question met Mr. Fisher yesterday. The delegates asked the government to forward to England an amendment to the Lord Monckswell bill, now before the House of Lords, providing that Canada may avail itself of the right to give a license to publish without being compelled, should such be the demand, to give a license to import. It was pointed out that the measure in fact, as the passage of the measure in this form would sacrifice the printing interests of this country on this large class of copyrights. Mr. Fisher said that he would give the question a second consideration.

A STRATHROY LADY'S EVIDENCE.

She Speaks of the Great Benefits Derived From the Use of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

Many ladies are suffering from backache, headache, feeling of listlessness and languor, who attribute it to some form of "Female Complaint," whereas in reality their kidneys are at fault and causing them all their ill-health and misery. There is no remedy so beneficial for kidney troubles of women as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They act with a healing, soothing and toning action on the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs, and relieve all irritability and irregular action of the kidneys, from which so many women suffer in silence.

Mrs. Ernest Hale, of Arthur street, Strathroy, speaks of the benefits she derived from the use of these tablets as follows: "I found a remedy for that constant backache in Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They are reliable in that respect. They have relieved me from that annoying and painful condition of secretions and strengthened those Tablets as much as a healing, soothing and toning action on the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, and relieve all irritability and irregular action of the kidneys, from which so many women suffer in silence. My husband had a lame back, and when I found those Tablets doing me much good, I suggested that he might try them. He obtained immediate relief after a few doses, and is as ready to recommend those Tablets as I am. Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a box or sent by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Company, Toronto, Ont."

STOMACHS THAT WON'T WORK.

That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak. Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used. They are the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief in prompt and pronounced manner. The less the trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion, or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood, and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine, and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranes of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard work of digestion, and they give the active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still you like to keep them on hand, and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick and nervous by too much, or unwholesome food, but no one takes a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food, and act on the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and you will feel like you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full-size boxes, and 25 cents for smaller boxes.

Send to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

GIRLS TALK ABOUT RIDING AS MEN DO!

Brooklyn Maids Stirred Up by Staid Boston's Example—Only Waiting for a Leader.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 24.—Brooklyn has today a rival of the Driving Club, which gives its ninth annual horse show this week in the handsome building on the Park Slope, is divided in opinion as to whether women should be admitted to the show. Many equestrians of the club, especially among its younger set, strongly favor cross saddle riding, and declare it to be not only proper, but the more sensible method, though at present they feel shy to adopt it.

William N. Dykman, president of the club, said:

"We will be no riding astride by any of the women at the horse show this year. It would not be tolerated."

But while he was making that assertion several young women were putting their horses through their paces on the club's tankard and declaring that the example set by the equestriennes at the Boston horse show should be followed here.

After one of the general canters the report from Boston was read aloud, and though no resolutions were passed, and no one offered a resolution, no protest was raised when skirts were described as nuisances and side riding a handicap which put women at a disadvantage as compared with men.

It was said that more than one of the young women had divided costumes for cross saddle riding, but that they wanted someone else to take the lead.

Charles A. Moore, president of the Montauk Club, called to his daughter and asked whether she had heard anything about cross saddle riding by the women of the club. She replied that the matter had been discussed at the club in the morning, and not only did they approve of the course taken by the women in Boston, but she continued, "We think it the most sensible thing to do."

Very few of the young women riders in this city are in the habit of publication, but they evidently favored the fashion of riding "like a man."

Most of the men members, like Mr. Dykman, declared that cross saddle riding by the women could not and would not be. But it is plain that many of the young women only await a leader to start the fashion. It is not that some of them have already secretly practiced riding man fashion, and much prefer it.

The Reward Still Unclaimed.

When Polson & Co., Kingston, offered the tempting reward of $1,000 for a case of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma or throat irritation that could not be cured by Catarrhoxone, many expected that it would soon be claimed. We are advised, however, that Catarrhoxone has given such universal satisfaction that no one has been able to make the claim. It explodes the theory that these diseases are incurable, for the worst cases yield to Catarrhoxone; it cures them every time. Cures by the inhalation of medicated air, with its irritating light into the lungs, bronchial tubes and nasal passages. Catarrhoxone is pleasant and safe to use, quick to relieve, guaranteed to cure. Price, $1; small size, 50c, at all druggists.

Liquor drummers report that the sale of keg beer in Kansas has decreased 75 per cent since Jan. 1, and the sale of case beer, for use in private houses, has increased nearly proportionately.

Laxa-Liver Pills cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness and dyspepsia without griping, purging or sickening.

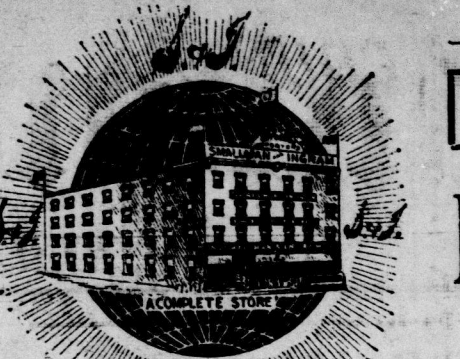

About the villa Friedrichshof, where the Empress Frederick lies dying, the beautiful gardens are full of nightingales, 500 of the birds having been loosed there by the late Duke of Nassau.

TRY THE FOLLOWING as an appetizer and general tonic before eating: One-quarter wineglass of Angostura Bitters, mix with water and cracked ice, and add a heaping teaspoonful of powdered sugar. Stir briskly before serving.

Candy-makers calculate that the price of their products should be put at double the cost of the material, which will allow them a fair return for rent, labor and interest.

FAKE MARRIAGE NOTICE FIEND IN TROUBLE.

Practical Joker Found Guilty of Criminal Libel—A Toronto Lady Swindled—Mail Robbers Busy.

Ottawa, April 23.—H. J. Cook, of Nepean township, was found guilty at the assizes here today of criminal libel. Cook caused a fake marriage notice, announcing the marriage of a well-known young Nepean lady to himself, to appear in a daily paper here. Cook is about 35 years of age. His counsel made a strong plea for acquittal, on the ground that the accused was of unsound mind. He will probably be sentenced tomorrow.

Toronto, Ont., April 23.—Captain J. A. Currie, a well-known broker of gifts, started off to New York tonight a few hours after his arrival home from that city. Capt. Currie had been in New York on business, and started for home yesterday. About the same time a telegram to his wife arrived in this city, signed by a person giving the name of W. O. Sayles, attorney, Park Row building, New York, stating that her husband had been arrested, and was in the Tombs under the name of P. D. Hart, and that $400 must be sent at once for legal expenses to secure his release.

Mrs. Currie sent the money, as requested, by telegraph, and shortly afterwards a message came back, signed by Sayles, announcing that Capt. Currie had got the money, and had been released. When he arrived today, Capt. Currie learned that a cleaver swindler had secured $400 from his wife, and at once wired the New York detective department to have the man traced and arrested. This, it is understood, was done, and the captain left to prosecute him.

Moncton, N. B., April 24.—A large quantity of registered mail which had been made ready for transmission from the postoffice here to St. John, Halifax, and other points was stolen Monday night after the clerks had left the office, by someone who climbed over a partition separating the lobby from the mail room and obtained the keys to the registered pouches. Since last fall the authorities have been investigating two other robberies, one of which occurred at the Intercolonial railway station here, and the other near this city. In each case registered mail, some of which came from Boston and other American points, was stolen.

TUGBOAT ICE-BOUND.

Owen Sound, April 23.—The tug Heather Bell, with six people on board, is fast in the ice. An attempt will likely be made to open up a passage to her by one of the larger boats in the harbor.
