As Fancy Dictates

[BY JINX.]

It begins to look as though Preston will repeat in the intermediate series this year. They are having an easy time in their district, despite the fact that there are some strong teams opposing them, and present indications are that the northern and eastern teams are not in their class. Peterboro intermediates look good enough to go into the finals with them, but it is a cinch that the silverware will come west again this year.

The junior series is more doubtful. Trenton is coming strong, and they will likely overcome the other junior teams in the east. In the west, however, it will likely be between Woodstock and Seaford. In the north, however, there is no telling what may happen. Orillia looks good to come through, and they will have to fight it out with Trenton, to see who will meet the team from the west.

The senior series is practically between Eatonias and the Frontenacs, with the Kingston team the favorites. A sporting writer in the Grand Rapids Evening Press, after seeing the play of the seniors, a la Sherlock Holmes, went to sleep and dreamed, mind you, that our own "Mooney" Gibson was selected to be the minor. While he was yet slumbering, he rambled off the following little article, which is one of the best pieces that have been handed in since the season closed last fall. Let it be said there is no truth in the story at all. Gibson will be one of the Pittsburgh players next season, and it is a safe bet, anyway, that in the event of the Pirates asking waivers, that the other team in the National league would grab him with both hands. Here is the pipe:

"George Gibson, Pirate backstop, whose splendid work went a long way toward giving Pittsburgh the world's championship three years ago, may be sold of traded by Barney Dreyer."

"Gibson slowed up greatly last year and gave way to Simon, who caught most of the games. Now that the Pirates have Bill Kelley, the catcher purchased from St. Paul along with Marty O'Toole, it's hard to see where there is any room for the veteran Gibson stick."

"It wouldn't be surprising, either, if the other National League clubs waived on him, and he goes to the minors."

WHITE'S WIN FROM
O-PEE-CHEE TEAM

Fast Game Played Saturday Afternoon at East End Rink. Results in Victory for Campbell's Team.

A team representing the factory of Geo. White & Sons, defeated the O-Pee-Chee Gum-Chewers in a fast game at the East End Rink on Saturday afternoon. The score was 5 to 3. The contest was a fast one, and the players fought hard all the way. The home team, White's, played a great game and saved his team from defeat. The O-Pee-Chee team was the star of the game.

EDDIE SUMMERS SIGNS
1912 TIGER CONTRACT

Pitcher Dubuc Has Also Been Sent a Better Contract and His Signature Is Expected.

Detroit, Jan. 28.—Eddie Summers, who has tied his finger nails in grasping a ball in and bringing about a baffling delivery, and who secured a big reputation for his article of pitching which is generally called "knuckleball," signed a contract for 1912. He has signed a contract for 1912. The signed papers were received here yesterday, and placed in the file vault in the baseball office along with the other contracts which now include nearly all the veterans.

Frank Navin feels certain that by the time the team starts south every member of the team will have his name attached to a contract.

Pitcher Dubuc, last year with Montreal in the Eastern League, who is holding out, is in receipt of a second contract from Detroit. He sent the first back because not enough money was offered in his opinion. Detroit bettered the terms and sent another contract. Dubuc will probably sign this. If Dubuc does not make good he will be sent back to the minors and is guaranteed the same salary in the minors this year that he got from Montreal last season.

Doings In City Amateur Hockey Circles

Two teams of amateurs, one representing Avey & Jones, and the other Diamond Hall, battled to a tie in a game of hockey at the Simcoe street rink on Friday evening. The score was 1 to 1.

"Billy" McGeech, of the juniors, will turn out with the Kingston team in the Presbyterian League from now on.

The Presbyterian League schedule has been revised. It appears elsewhere on this page. The teams in the league are requested to cut it out and be guided by it in future.

Will Frank Hannibal, of the Young Canadian Club, kindly communicate with the manager of that team, and learn of something to his advantage.

The Talbot Street School team challenges any city public school team to play games at any rink and at any time satisfactory to both teams. Communicate with Roy Thompson, 410 Ridout street, or phone 2117.

St. Peter's have only been scored on once this season, while they have run in a total of 19 goals in three games on their opponents. They were very much puffed when the Young Canadians notched one on Friday evening.
