ODDFELLOWS HOLD A MONSTER PARADE

From 30,000 to 50,000

Members of Order in Line At Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—Canadian Press—Under lowering skies, which threatened to break into showers at any moment, the parade of from thirty thousand to fifty thousand members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, with their militant encampments and sister lodges, took place here this afternoon, in connection with the 98th meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which is now in session.

No attacks of the elements could dampen the enthusiasm though it might mar the splendor of the parade. The proclamation of Mayor Church and the city council had asked employers to suspend business as far as possible, and judging from the crowds which lined the streets to see the monster procession many had complied with the request.

The long line of lodges, cantons and auxiliaries was reviewed by Mayor Oliver, Toronto, and grand state and provincial dignitaries were also on the reviewing stand.

ANOTHER GUESS AS TO MURRELLS GONE WRONG

Eight days ago Blackstone, the ranchman, predicted that Sidney and William Murrell, who escaped from the county jail on September 2, would be captured within eight days. They were still at large. As ranchmen and such persons endeavor to surround themselves with an air of mystery and often have double meanings for all their utterances, Blackstone might not have meant the capture within 24 hours, but the "days" referred to in the Bible which were as long as 1,000 years of the present calendar. It is he who may guess right.

REMAKE JOINTS OF HIGH PRESSURE CABLE AS A PRECAUTIONARY STEP

Because of a break in a joint of a main high pressure underground cable early this month, all such joints in this city are to be remade by public utility employees. The joint which blew up had been made by the best means known when the cable was first laid. It was estimated by the city engineer that time there have been many improvements, and in order to avoid similar trouble in future all joints will be remade.

This break was not located and repaired until 24 hours after the joint blew, during which time the damaged line remained out of commission, inconveniencing many consumers. As there is only one high pressure underground cable in the city, namely, that between the Horton street station and the Anne street sub-station, remaking the joints will not be an extensive job. The work is estimated by General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the public utilities to cost about $150.

It is the intention to do the work on Sunday, and during hours when the least possible inconvenience to consumers will result.

CLAMS $10,000 FOR THE LOSS OF WIFE

Fatal Accident on Dundas Street Results in Action For Supreme Court.

Leo Sullivan, administrator of the estate of May Sullivan, deceased, has entered suit in the supreme court, which opens here Monday, for $10,000 damages against Cecile Draisley and Henry Draisley, for the death of his wife, which he claims was caused by the negligent driving of the defendant, Cecile Draisley.

On December 6, 1919, Sullivan claims, his wife was standing on the sidewalk at the corner of Clarence and Dundas streets, and as a result of the careless driving of Cecile Draisley, his wife was struck by the auto driven by Mrs. Draisley and owned by her husband, Henry Draisley, and thrown instantly killed. He says that as a result of her death he will be forced to hire a housekeeper to care for his 15-months-old child.

Cecile Draisley denies that there was any negligence on her part, and says that the deceased crossed the road in front of her auto and then stepped back in front of the car. She adds that it was impossible to avoid striking her. Henry Draisley claims that no cause of action is disclosed in the plaintiff's statement of claim, and that he is not the plaintiff. Meredith & Meredith for the defendants.

Suit Over Mortgage.

William A. Duffin of West Nisour has entered action against Joseph E. Hodge over the execution of a mortgage. On December 7, 1906, he claims he was owner in fee simple of certain lands in West Nisour. He claims to have conveyed the lands to the defendant, and on November 11, 1908, he was behind in his payments, and to secure money to pay, gave the defendant a chattel mortgage on some of his personal possessions. He also conveyed the lands to the defendant on condition that it was to be reconveyed to him, when he wiped out the chattel mortgage. He claims that the defendant has refused to reconvey the lands. He asks for a declaration that the defendant holds the lands subject to the mortgage of December 1906, and an order to have the lands conveyed subject only to the same mortgage, and an accounting of moneys received from the plaintiff by the defendant, and the repayment of moneys overpaid.

Defendant's Case.

The defendant claims that Margaret Duffin, wife of the plaintiff, was a party to the agreement in 1911, and that she consented to the mortgage of the lands to the plaintiff, and that she had no independent advice on the matter. Meredith & Fisher for the plaintiff, T. W. Scandrett for the defendant.

Both of the above cases are on the jury list.

Two cases were added to the non-jury list. J. Roger Anderson is suing the Ruggles Motor Truck Company, Limited, and John Bridge for $2,012.49, interest he claims due him, less charges account. He claims that on December 20, 1920, he was engaged as sales manager by the defendants to sell $124,000 worth of unsold stock. He alleges that it was agreed that he was to receive a commission of five per cent on the sales made under his direction, five per cent bonus if all the stock was sold by February 7. On February 7, he claims, he notified the defendants that he could not sell all the stock by February 7, but that he did sell it by April 2.

Paid In Full, He Says.

The Ruggles Motor Truck Company, Limited, says that they did not have a contract with the plaintiff, and that John Bridge says that although he arranged with the plaintiff to sell the stock that the plaintiff has been sold in full. Meredith & Meredith for the plaintiff, J. E. Elliott for the defendants.

Julia Fisher and Caroline Logan, married women, residing on the Chipewewa Indian Reserve, are suing Daniel Albert to secure a declaration that he obtained certain lands from the Department of Indian Affairs fraudulently. The plaintiffs say that they are daughters of Betsy Grosbeck, deceased, who owned the land. They claim that the land was sold to Daniel McNeil, and that at the expiration of the lease, Albert took possession of it, under a location ticket issued by the Indian Department. They say that they purchased the land from the deceased, and that if he secured it from her he did so fraudulently.

No Jurisdiction.

The defendants claim that as all parties are Indians and as the land is on the reserve for the Chippewa Indians of the Thames, that the court has no jurisdiction. He claims that the matter was tried by the court of the Indian department and settled. This case is re-entry from the last court. McKillop & Douglas for the plaintiffs, A. G. Chisholm, K. Hall for the defendants. Altogether 20 civil cases have been set down for the court on Monday.

CHEAP EXCURSION HAS CAUGHT ON OVERSEAS

LONDON, Sept. 20.—(By Canadian Press.)—The British railway companies, fortified and encouraged by the enormous success of the cheap excursion during the summer, are promoting similar enterprises on a big scale next year. The competition from motor buses and other automotive traffic, including the car charabancs, has not proven as formidable as was anticipated, despite the excellence of the great English highways for such traffic.

SAYS SQUARE DEAL IS ANSWER TO BOLSEHEVISM

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Sept. 20.—Counting Bolshevism, which, he declared, has 25,000 paid agitators in the United States, J. A. McManis addressed the local Kiwanis Club this afternoon on "The Gospel of the Square Deal."

He declared there was need of the fifty-fifty split, the co-operation of the interests of both parties and more religion, not of the church type, but between employer and employee. He declared that education and the square deal alone were needed to combat the growth of Bolshevism.
