reading that which character harm. ude or profane will le character down to untrodden life. Of beware of the false r those which seem and miserable and est chain of thought unfasten the chain from reading them. od books with a prize nd with their useful in our mind a store-We should be atding human nature us toward the other in all cases overcome ature and by the help overn them toward

The Colonist.

NOT MISCONCEIVED.

Mr. Coudert must have thought the people on this side the Atlantic very stupid, when he came to the conclusion that they do not realize the scope of his contention that the United States owns the seals born on the Pribyloff Islands, and that they do not see the conclusions to which it leads.

the property of the United States, British subjects will have no more right to kill them even in British waters than a farmer has to kill his neighbor's sheep when it strays into his pasture. This is one of the "grotesque" conclusions which the New York Times alluded to when it was dis-

There has been no "misconception bout the matter among Canadians at any rate. They saw what Mr. Coudert's argu-nent led to as soon as it was enunciated.

They saw, too, that it made the other contentions of the United States of little or no importance, for, if it were granted that the United States owns the seals there was an end of the matter. There was no question of jurisdiction or even of regulation to set-

States is quite able to look after its own property, and it would not want Great Britain or any other nation to help it look after its big herd of fur seals. What, perhaps, Great Britain might insist upon is that the United States should brand or mark in some way the seals that first saw light on the Pribyloff Islands, so that its officers might be sble to swear to the skins when they saw them, for it is, we believe, admitted that some seals are brought forth on

of the United States to put some kind of

THE WESTMINSTER PETITION.

mark on its own seals.

ussing Mr. Coudert's contention.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1893

useful reading bewe might learn someow or think of. y in reply to this let-books of course he Instead of dividing bad books, I should ks which will or will f used at table in the n lude books may do.

ne time a large, beau-"The Guilty Crime" ung girl. It was not it went into the soleeper than I had nyway, with no time ny son for three years ok to elevate what's called a half est colleges. f books, we should what we are going usin killed in Maine blow on the head with pronounced by Mr.

cyclopedias once, 20 no information in 1 was lying with a hospital bed in my bed broke down, gable of my head, with the air, held there pound weight exten-slowly built up an pedias till once more I tal way. to a cyclopedia, which, o had one like it, told d him to "Maternity" it for "Baby," and it fore he got the ma-He also said that when ple" he was referred book that came seven farming.

effort in verse, not s name, as I desire to grant. These are all connected with the done, though not to the enter NEWS OF THE PROVINCE regulation of the salmon fishery. It may, or may not, be in the interests of the people and consistent with the preservation of the salmon to grant the prayer of the petition-subject just now. What we would like to do would be to exhort the petitioners to be cautious and careful not to do serious injury to an industry which is one of the great sources of British Columbia's prosper-them may think. The great object of the

ity. It is not so hard to do this as some

They are a good deal brighter than he Government has been interest to preserve thinks they are. It did not take them long to see that if his claim were allowed there and other British Columbia rivers from being over-fished. For that purpose, regulations have been made, limiting the num-

They are a good deal brighter than he Government has been hitherto to preserv seem to imagine, by fide desired, doubt. doubt. From the Daths Conservert, Home IS. THE good Con Proers. It is not our object to discuss this County court has been again adjourned. The next sitting will bellon Monday, the 19th inst, CONFIRMATION at StudiMarks has postponed until the evening of July 6, at algais "

ALD. BELVEA has given notice of his in-tention to introduce a by law amending the Streets By-law.

GEORGE POWELL, E. M. Yarwood and P. b. Lampman have passed their exam as barristers in British Columbia.

er of the fur seals as it is of the cavalry horses and the baggage mules of the army, it will have to be admitted that it has a right to claim them wherever they are found and also to it will have to be admitted that it has a right to claim them wherever they are found, and also to prosecute any one who kills or injures them in any part of the Northern Pacific without its permission. If Northern Pacific without its permission. If Japs always excepted—which the petitioners the Arbitrators decide that the fur seals are want to see inaugurated. This is a matter

tle. Every one knows that the United of New Westminster ought to be very care-mitted that some seals are brought forth on Russian territory and that others are born on islands which are owned by the Govern-ment of Japan. In order then that there should be no mistake as to the ownership of the seals found swimming in the waters of the North Pacific ocean and the seas, bays and sounds connected therewith, it would on the unreasonable to ask the Gorge bridge. The output is not by any means satisfactor of the country is not by any means satisfactor of the proposition meets with general favor.

Lady Henry Somerset, the only son of Lady Henry Somerset, has started on a pro-longed trip to British Columbia, accom-panied by Mr. Arthur Hungerford Pollen, recently called to the Bar. An exploring party will accompany these young men, who come prepared to hant large gaue, and hope to take back valuable information concern-ing the commentional who come to the the ing the comparatively inknown tracts in the Hudson Bay Territory, at -----Enworth League Convention at Vancouver-Floods Along the Fraser River.

Coal Discovery Near Westminster-Departure of the Miowera-News From the Interior.

(Special to the COLONIST.)

VANCOUVER. VANCOUVER, June 14 .- A Chinese pro-areas, formerly in Victoria, has returned with one child, a slave, Tom Chue, Chines missionary at Victoria, is here looking into the case. The Hamilton Powder Co.'s store was

The Hamilton Powder Co.'s store was entered by thieves yesterday, and a quan-tity of powder was stolen. Fifty delegates are in Vancouver attend-ing the Epworth Leagus convention. The Australian steamer Miowara left her wharf, on her outward trip, this afternoon at 4:35, official time. A new Court of Foresters has been organ-ized called Court Pleasant. The trouble between the oity and tram-way is at an end. The double track is being laid in Hastings street to-day by Contractor McGillivray.

before the 1887 level is reached. The lands are flooded at various points up the river. John Douglas discovered a small outcrop-ping of bituminous coel on his place near Brownsville a few days ago, and begins work to morrow to develop it He has sent to Nanaimo for a coal expert to come over and examine the find. Ald Keary and Hoy left for Toronto to-day to attend the A. O. U. W. Supreme Grand Lodge meeting. Deep regret is felt here over the death of t P. McTiernah. He was esteemed by all and the Indians fairly worshipped him. The first local strawberries are on the market.

and a cargo of general merchandise, besides a number of passengers. Work will be started on both sides of Silver King and Dandy mines, in Nelson district, in July. The report is that $600, 000 is now in an English bank for the pur-pose of putting in mischinery on the Silver King and for developing the property. The owners of the Dandy, are only waiting the disappearance of the snow to begin work. Since it was first worked, No. I mine, in Ainsworth district, has been a source of revenue to its owners. According to reports, the dump, is estimated to contain 8,000 tons of ore that can be profitably concentrated. Mr. Stevenson, has rigged up a hand jig, through which he daily runs enough ore to return half a too of concentrates. A rich body of ore has also been struck in the mine. (Trum the Miner] afternoon to order a new inquest over the (From the Miner.) bodies of the Ford's theatre disaster victims,

Some twenty locations have been made round Frank McGuire's claim on Eight Mile creat round Frank McGuire's claim on Eight Mile creek. The land on the east bank of the Duncan is now all takes nup from the C.P.R. grant to the end of Hauser Lake. A number of prospectors are going into Grizzly Creek, two and a half miles from Argenta, and some good galena locations are already reported. Several shareholders of the Van Winkle Hydraulic Mining Company were in Lytton last week in expectation of seeing the first to the end of Hauser Lake. A number of prospectors are going into Grizzly Creek, two and a half miles from Argenta, and some good galena locations are already reported. Several shareholders of the Van Winkle Hydraulic Mining Company were in Lytton last week in expectation of seeing the first clean up. There was not sufficient water, however.

TO BELIEVE THE STRAIN.

NEW YORK, June 14 .- That the banks of

The Court's Decision Expected to be Made About the First

Che Women's Wedding Present to Princess May-Provincial Accounts Arbitration Meets. Arrival of the "Miowera's" Mails-

Trade Prospects with Australian Colonies

CAPITAL NOTES

15

(From our own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, June 14 .- Green goods circulars are again being poured into the country through the mails. It will be well for Canadians to have nothing to do with the ousiness as the Dominion law is very strict. Mr. Douglas Cameron, assistant accountant in the House of Commons and for sev-eral years secretary to the Conservative whip, and a son of the late Sir Matthew Crooks Cameron, was married this evening to Miss Edwards, eldest daughter of Mr. J.

<text>

The Provincial accounts arbitrators com-menced taking evidence to-day. A. M. Ross, formerly provincial treasurer of On-tario, was on the stand.

OKEN LEG.

or out gradually. If received, I may use rprised when you hear name is. the guesses it, by in-get the true name of ograph. ond one. EMORIAM. irday morning dred and ninety-twoork to do.

et on that morn and a lady too. are well," d how I was. the second day. d on their way in was gone ese two gents ay home.

nd said. reat pain thing head."

lpa, place, hat stay round here and one thing anothe lerer, ine here, I'm sure, ou of your sickness

e said he'd try, and eyes.

for some mail s way home; ttle 'd ever roam.

week away ing of this man meek last allayed

ll, , the tenth,

have spoken of is wife st broken. e there lay of mine, nclined to believe ntm. st clyme, cood beside him red out, cademic told about.

t the picture so fair, amed in its or ole of hair. ar sweet and gentle way, hen she asked me to pray.

till loved and remember pot forgotten him and don for him. BILL NYE.

re faithful friends.

not be unreasonable to ask the Government country is not by any means satisfactory.

We have received "an exact copy of a petition now being circulated throughout of gold, and they fear that the continual in-British Columbia for signature," It is mercantile concerns are only the beginning of troubles. People look with apprehension

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Government of 'Great Britain will break faith with any nation to please the signers of the petition now being circulated throughout British Columbia. The petitioners ask for other things which is is within the power of the Government

At the residence df² the bride's parents, 79 Pembrooks street, last evening, Mr. John E. Grice was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Vidotja, third daughter of Mr. Isaac Walsh, Bev. Coverdale Watson offici-ating. The groom was attended by Messrs J. R. Grice and W. B. Brown, the brides-maids being Miss H. E. Sandwith and Miss Lizzle Walsh, cousin and sister of the bride. The bride was attired in a becoming gown of cream cashmere with brocaded silk and groam silk lace, the bridesmaids wearing fawn and white. After the ceremony, the guests, to the number of about thirty, par-took of a dinner to celebrate the event. The newly wedded couple leave on Friday morn-ing for Nanaimo, where they will reside. Hosts of friends wish them a long and happy married life.

MARINE MOVEMENTS.

A private letter from Hakodate conta the news that two boats with their crews, belorging to the Vistoria schooner Sadie Turpel, are in that port. They had lost their schooner in a fog and will be obliged to remain where they are until the Turpel calls at Hakodate for them.

VENERATED RELICS.

d tewens i diwess will please

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>