

THE ONLY
One Cent Morning Paper
IN CANADA
18 KING ST. EAST, TORO

SUBSCRIPTION
THREE DOLLARS A YEAR
TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A MONTH
DELIVERED IN CITY AND SUBURBS
18 KING ST. EAST, TORONTO
PRICE ONE CENT

THIRD YEAR.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1882

PRICE ONE CENT

LATEST EGYPTIAN NEWS.

BRITISH TROOPS CHARGED WITH KILLING WOUNDED EGYPTIANS.

Joint Control to be Abolished—A Native Executed at Alexandria—The Khedive's Secretary for Arab Affairs—The Alexandria Commission—The People and the Withdrawal of British Troops.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Professor Goldwin Smith, replying to E. J. Godkin, who criticized Smith's views on the Irish question in a recently published article in the Review, writes that he advocates the measure of repression not because of hostility to the Irish but because the Fenianists abused their privileges as members of parliament for the purpose of wrecking the parliamentary government in the interest of a military dictatorship. He says that a party of the southern members of congress had similarly endeavored to wreck the American legislature, they would have been put down with as little compunction as was shown in repressing the Irish in the case of the Fenianists. He says it is essential to the peace of Europe, Arab affairs, that in the execution of the law should be followed here for additional legal assistance.

Cairo, Oct. 7.—While the annual caravan, which recently departed with imposing ceremonies, was journeying to Suze on the way to Mecca, the canopy over the sacred car was caught and overturned by a telegraph wire and the sacred emblem exposed to view. The derelict in charge were greatly excited by the accident, and it is not certain that the caravan will have to return and the ceremony be performed over again in Cairo. Gen. Wolsley has ordered the troops to be relieved from police duties.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

GOLDWIN SMITH AND THE IRISH QUESTION.

He Replies to Mr. Godkin—Sanitizing the Representative Measure—A Comparison.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Professor Goldwin Smith, replying to E. J. Godkin, who criticized Smith's views on the Irish question in a recently published article in the Review, writes that he advocates the measure of repression not because of hostility to the Irish but because the Fenianists abused their privileges as members of parliament for the purpose of wrecking the parliamentary government in the interest of a military dictatorship. He says that a party of the southern members of congress had similarly endeavored to wreck the American legislature, they would have been put down with as little compunction as was shown in repressing the Irish in the case of the Fenianists. He says it is essential to the peace of Europe, Arab affairs, that in the execution of the law should be followed here for additional legal assistance.

CAIRO, Oct. 7.—While the annual caravan, which recently departed with imposing ceremonies, was journeying to Suze on the way to Mecca, the canopy over the sacred car was caught and overturned by a telegraph wire and the sacred emblem exposed to view. The derelict in charge were greatly excited by the accident, and it is not certain that the caravan will have to return and the ceremony be performed over again in Cairo. Gen. Wolsley has ordered the troops to be relieved from police duties.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—It is believed that the Egyptian government will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail. The plea of the British consul is that the British consul will be in a position to be denied access to him, the Egyptian government being of opinion that legal assistance from such quarters will be of no avail.

CHIEF JUSTICE WOOD DEAD.

He Dies of Paralysis at Windsor—Other Details.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 8.—Chief Justice Wood was stricken down while on the bench yesterday afternoon with paralysis. He was taken home and only survived the attack until 8 o'clock in the evening, when death ended his suffering.

Mr. E. B. Wood, whose sudden death is recorded, was born in 1820 in the county of Welland, near the village of Fort Erie. He attended a common school in the neighborhood of his home, and completed his education at Oberlin college, Ohio. He returned to Canada and taught school for some time. He then devoted himself to the study of law, and was called to the bar in 1851. He formed a partnership with Mr. Peter Hill Long in Brantford, and the firm of Wood & Long soon had almost a monopoly of the local business. In 1858 Mr. Wood married Miss Jane Augusta Marter, by whom he had a large family. He was elected to parliament for South West in 1858 and supported the Macdonald-Dorion government. Upon the formation of the coalition government by Mr. John Sandfield Macdonald in 1867, he accepted the provincial treasury, and held the portfolio until December, 1871, when he resigned his seat and was elected for West Durham for the dominion house, which constituency he continued to represent until his appointment as chief justice of Manitoba in March, 1874. Mr. Wood was characterized throughout his legal and political career by great earnestness and a high sense of duty. His eloquence secured for him the title of "the Thunderer." He left a decided impression on the politics of Ontario, and like all men who have been for many years a mark for the arrows of political opponents. He had vigorous, both social and political; but, to reverse the lines of Caesar's funeral oration, "Let the good die if it were his will, the evil be interred with his bones."

A despatch from Paris says Admiral Pathan is dead.

Dr. J. N. Sore, French republican deputy from the department of Aisne, is dead.

Dr. Frazer, at one time member of the Canadian parliament for Welland and a prominent physician, died suddenly at his residence near Fort Hill, Welland, on Saturday afternoon.

Roger Smith, one of the oldest of London's residents, died at his residence, corner of Vesterio and King streets, on Saturday, having reached the age of 78 years. He settled in London previous to the rebellion in 1837, and was an employe of Mr. Carling, one of the first grain buyers in that section.

A despatch from Stapleton, L. I., announces the death of John Somers Smith, for many years in the consular service, aged 83. While consul at Cadix in 1861 he was the first to suppress the slave trade, and while consul at San Domingo he arranged an important trade treaty between San Domingo and the United States.

The extradition of Misses Trial—Conclusion of Evidence—Judgment Reserved.

HAMILTON, Oct. 7.—The investigation on the application for the extradition of the Philadelphia girls, Misses Trial, was resumed to-day at noon. District Attorney Graham was called and read over several depositions taken in Philadelphia, similar to those put in on the opening hearing of the case, supporting the charges against Phipps. Mr. Oler, in reply to the depositions, stated that he would separate the bad evidence from the good. Mr. Macdonald read the depositions which had been submitted, showing evidence of Chas. F. Myers to the effect that he had signed the signature of Leeds & Ferguson on the books. Leeds' testimony was that he never signed the warrant and that it was a forgery. Mr. Oler urged that the defendant was not guilty, and that the offense was not forgery, but a statutory offense. The judge reserved judgment till the 16th inst.

Burglars Torture an Old Man.

BIO BEAVER, Mich., Oct. 8.—Three masked burglars on Friday night, aged 70 and bound him, his wife servant and boy. After securing a small sum, the burglars, with pinners, to make him reveal the hiding place of his hoard. They pulled out his nose nails with the roots and otherwise tortured him till he became unconscious. They stole a horse and buggy and escaped.

The Health of President Arthur.

THE NEW WEST END PARK.

SIX ACRES OF SHAW'S GROVE DEVOTED TO THE CITY.

CHRISTENED BELL-WOOD PARK, AFTER THE ALDERMAN, GEORGE BENTLEY, AND INVESTMENT COMPANY THE DONORS.

Perhaps the most interesting of the many outdoor events that took place in Toronto Saturday afternoon was the dedication of six acres of Shaw's grove to the city by the Ontario Land and Investment Company. The main thoroughfare will be Crawford street, running through the park and property from Queen street to College street, and the other streets will be within the limits of the city. Arthur street will cross it at right angles. In this beautiful autumn landscape, the city will have a more pleasant way than by visiting Bell-Wood park and viewing the location of some of the most eligible building lots that have yet been offered in Toronto.

THE BICYCLE RACE.

On Saturday afternoon the first annual races of the Toronto Bicycle club came off at the exhibition grounds, and were attended by about 200 people. Ald. Bousfield and Mr. F. Wild acted as judges.

Shortly after 2 o'clock Mr. M. Goulding, the starter, brought the contestants together for the one mile race. The first was won by J. Duggan, F. J. O'Sullivan second, A. J. Boyd third. The next was a slow mile race, first, P. Doolittle, second, M. J. Mather, third, R. Y. Blachford, P. K. Stern, R. F. Smith. The two mile race (club race) was won by P. Doolittle, second, M. J. Mather, third, R. Y. Blachford, P. K. Stern, R. F. Smith. The four mile race was won by P. Doolittle, second, M. J. Mather, third, R. Y. Blachford, P. K. Stern, R. F. Smith.

THE NEW ORPHANS HOME.

Laying the Corner Stone—An Interesting Ceremony in Dovercourt Road.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new orphan's home in Dovercourt road was witnessed by a large number of the philanthropic ladies and gentlemen of Toronto and vicinity on Saturday afternoon.

THE POEM OBJECTORABLE AS A TEXT-BOOK.

From the Lindsay Post.

Last Sunday afternoon in St. Mary's church, and before the sermon, Rev. Father Stafford spoke of the withdrawal of "Marmion" from the list of text books authorized for use in the high schools. He said it was a matter of great importance, and one which should be viewed calmly and from all its points.

THE WEATHER BULLETIN.

throughout York county; is the right man in the right place; manager of the company's office are in York county chambers on Victoria street; will give full information as to their plans and plans of the same can be procured.

A covenant in the deed of the park, as drawn up by Messrs. Robinson & Kent, solicitors, calls upon the city council to build substantial and ornamental bridges across the ravine and make other improvements to the park, and to make the park a public park.

THE BICYCLE RACE.

On Saturday afternoon the first annual races of the Toronto Bicycle club came off at the exhibition grounds, and were attended by about 200 people. Ald. Bousfield and Mr. F. Wild acted as judges.

Shortly after 2 o'clock Mr. M. Goulding, the starter, brought the contestants together for the one mile race. The first was won by J. Duggan, F. J. O'Sullivan second, A. J. Boyd third. The next was a slow mile race, first, P. Doolittle, second, M. J. Mather, third, R. Y. Blachford, P. K. Stern, R. F. Smith. The two mile race (club race) was won by P. Doolittle, second, M. J. Mather, third, R. Y. Blachford, P. K. Stern, R. F. Smith.

THE NEW ORPHANS HOME.

Laying the Corner Stone—An Interesting Ceremony in Dovercourt Road.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new orphan's home in Dovercourt road was witnessed by a large number of the philanthropic ladies and gentlemen of Toronto and vicinity on Saturday afternoon.

THE POEM OBJECTORABLE AS A TEXT-BOOK.

From the Lindsay Post.

Last Sunday afternoon in St. Mary's church, and before the sermon, Rev. Father Stafford spoke of the withdrawal of "Marmion" from the list of text books authorized for use in the high schools. He said it was a matter of great importance, and one which should be viewed calmly and from all its points.

THE WEATHER BULLETIN.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—In a. -Light and Upper St. Lawrence. Fresh to strong with cold winds, and fair weather.

HEAVEN'S ANGELIC HOST.

THE YARVOS ORDEES AS DEFINED BY DR. WILD.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

HEAVEN'S ANGELIC HOST.

THE YARVOS ORDEES AS DEFINED BY DR. WILD.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.

Father Stafford's Sermon—The Angelic Host—The Yavos Ordees as Defined by Dr. Wild.