But little work was attempted by the trainers at Woodbine Park yesterday, owing to the heavy rain which continued throughout the day, making the track a perfect sea of mnd. However, several horses were sent out to brave the storm, the work of Japonica being especially good. The daughter of Mikado and Moonlight covered a mile and a half in 2.55 with 130 pounds up. Evangeline went two miles in 4.10. Dom Pedro also did a stiff gallop. All the other horses at the track were confined to their stables.

John Dyment's string including King Joe, King John, King Harry and Flip Flap arrived at the track were confined to their stables.

John Dyment's string including King Joe, King John, King Harry and Flip Flap arrived at the track yesterday morning from Orkney. Considerable interest-was centered in King Joe, who had a mile last Thursday in Lagid, when he pulled up lame and has not had a saddle on since. The Queen's Plate candidate is a remarkably fine looking colt and though his less be seen sporting Mr. Dyment's colors for the Guineas. Flip Flap too, looks good and herowner says she is at her best this soason.

Mr. A. Shields' stable arrived from Guttenberg last night and quartered at the Ontario Veterinary College. They include Logan, Pat Oakley, Right and quartered at the Ontario Veterinary College. They include Logan, Pat Oakley, Right and quartered at the Charlow of the Score and the executive members the show was a great success, and to. Mr. W. P. Gossip of the Turt.

In the fifth race at Louisville on Saturday Jockey Martin was ruled off the turf on the charge of pulling the horse Clifford, who was a 1 to 3 favorite. Martin remained in the race through the first part of the race, and when he sent the horse along in the stretch he failed to get up and Clifford was beaten by a head by Lady Bess. All bets were declared off, but the horses were placed as they finished. Martin claims he purchased the stretch he failed to get up and Clifford was beaten by a head by Lady Bess. All bets were declared off, but the horses were placed as they finished. Martin claims he lost the race by an error of judgment.

Player writes: What is the matter with the Parkdale baseball team this year? Why don't they organize and form a four-club league with the Excelsiors, Dauntless and Nationals and keep up baseball enthusiasm in the city, and don't let the Dukes and Park Nine, playing in the Hamilton Toronto League, spoil the sport that should be patronized here?

Harvard has again triumphed over Yale in track athletics by a bigger score than had been anticipated by the students of either college on Saturday. Last year there was a difference of only 10 points between the two colleges, and Yale athletes confidently expected to make a substantial reduction of even that narrow margin. Saturday Harvard triumphed by a score of 66½ points to Yale's 45½.
