

weeks, I have sold my stock so low that I am afraid I will have to stop, excepting egg orders, as the drain on my Brahmas, Langshans and white Leghorns has been something wonderful.

Wishing you every success,

I remain yours fraternally,

J. T. SIFTON,
Wallacetown.

Editor Review:—

What is the price of an "ad.," like I had in the April number of POULTRY REVIEW, for one year? It is the best paper I ever had an "ad." in, sold all my white Leghorns, also my Geese.

WM. PHILIP, JR.,
Galt.

Editor Review:—

You need not put in my advertisement any longer as I have sold all the fowls I had to spare. I sold some Plymouth Rocks to be sent to England, also some light Brahmas and Langshans. Thanks to your valuable paper.

Yours respectfully,
WM. HODGSON,
Brooklin, Ont.

LEGAL DECISIONS REGARDING NEWSPAPERS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office whether directed in his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for payment.
2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.
3. In suits for subscriptions, the suit may be instituted in the place where the paper is published, although the subscriber may reside hundreds of miles away.
4. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, while unpaid, is "prima facie" evidence of intentional fraud.
