ALL OVERBOARD.

Finally, a meeting of the full committee was held to take decisive action. So great was the divergence of opinion, so many the amendments offered, that finally a motion to recall all reports and begin the whole work over again was adopted and there so far the matter rests.

The Republican party now has three factions in the Legislature—Prohibitionists, local option license Republicans and salaried Republicans. They are pulling independently. As a final resort there are many business men of both parties who hope that the liberal Republicans and the Democrats may be able to give some relief by uniting their forces. They say it is not a question of partisanship, but business.

THE CONVENTION.

ARRANGEMENTS are progressing most satisfactorily for the big liquor dealers' convention on April 4th. The executive of the Toronto Association will go to Hamilton in a few days to complete the organization in that city.

The organizers are on their eastern trip this week, and will visit all the leading cities and towns down to the Ottawa River.

Remember every liquor dealer is expected to be present at the convention.

A broken engagement is, perhaps, in other words, only a drawn battle.
