

32. SS. Nazarius and Celsus. A.D. 68.

SS. Nazarius and Celsus. A.D. 68.
 They were two brothers, Nazarius and Celsus, who were born in the city of Hierapolis, in Asia Minor. They were both Christians, and lived a life of great holiness and virtue. They were known throughout the country for their piety and their love of God. They were particularly noted for their humility and their willingness to help others. They were often seen walking about the streets of Hierapolis, preaching the gospel and ministering to the poor and the sick. They were also known for their ability to heal the sick and to perform miracles. They were eventually arrested by the Romans, who accused them of being rebels against the state. They were tried and found guilty, and were sentenced to death. They were executed on the 25th of April, A.D. 68. Their bodies were buried in a common grave, and they are now venerated as saints.

SS. Nazarius and Celsus. A.D. 68.
 They were two brothers, Nazarius and Celsus, who were born in the city of Hierapolis, in Asia Minor. They were both Christians, and lived a life of great holiness and virtue. They were particularly noted for their humility and their willingness to help others. They were often seen walking about the streets of Hierapolis, preaching the gospel and ministering to the poor and the sick. They were also known for their ability to heal the sick and to perform miracles. They were eventually arrested by the Romans, who accused them of being rebels against the state. They were tried and found guilty, and were sentenced to death. They were executed on the 25th of April, A.D. 68. Their bodies were buried in a common grave, and they are now venerated as saints.