

Miss L. L. Ross and Miss Rath, two members of the class of '05, are at present in Calgary, Alberta, taking up normal work. Mr. J. E. Runions, who took the Nature Study course during the year '05, is also at Calgary teaching in the Collegiate Institute of that place.

Miss Mattie Prennie, of the '06 Home-Maker Class, gave us a short call, on her way from her home in Fergus, to spend the winter in Pittsburgh, Pa., with her brother.

Miss Edna Greening, of the same class, brightened the hall up one day when she and a party of friends motored up from Hamilton, and spent a couple of hours greeting old friends.

The girls had a very successful paper chase Nov. 14th. Three hares and about sixteen hounds took part. Four of the hounds followed the entire course, about three miles, coming in a very few minutes behind the hares. All of the girls did some very good running, and are looking for another bright day to have another chase.

Worth While.

It is easy enough to be pleasant

When life flows by like a song,
But the man worth while is the one who will smile

When everything goes dead wrong,
For the test of the heart is trouble,
And it always comes with the years,
And the smile that is worth the praises
of earth,
Is the smile that shines through the tears.

It is easy enough to be prudent
When nothing tempts you to stray, When without or within no voice of sin
Is luring your soul away;
But it's only a negative virtue,
Until it is tried by fire,
And the life that is worth the honor of earth,
Is the one that resists desire.

By the cynic, the sad, the fallen,
Who had no strength for the strife,
The world's highway is cumbered today,
They make up the sum of life,
But the virtue that conquers passion,
And the sorrow that hides in a smile,
It is these that are worth the homage
of earth,
For we find them but once in awhile.
