HYGIENIC HOME.

ELECTRO-MEDICAL INSTITUTE,

Corner Jarvis and Gerrard Streets,
Toronto.

PHYSICIANS:

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.—Mrs. Jenny K. Trout
M.D., M.C.P.S.; E. Amelia Teft, M.D.

GENTLEMEN'S DEPARTMENT.—Hugh Watt, M.D.,
C.M., M.C.P.S.

The thousands of invalids who are vainly looking for restoration to health, or relief from their sufferings, to the old-fashioned prescription of drugs, should "throw physic to the dogs" and come to the Electro-Medical Institute, where, by the aid of Nature's own great remedies, results can be had—accomplished that astonish the disciples of the pills and powders system. We have had wonderful success in the treatment of all Nervous and other Chronic Diseases; and the Diseases of Women, which are specially treated by our Lady Physicians, sometimes yield with extraordinary rapidity. Cases of contagious disease are not treated at the Home. The situation of the Home is one of the finest in the City, on a wide airy street and near the famous Horticultural Gardens. Boarders, whether invalids or not, are received. Terms for board and treatment very low. The Home is easily reached by taking the Church Street cars from the vicinity of the Union Station. In writing for circular please mention this paper.
