

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN COMPANY.

Whose cabinet or parlour organs have won highest honours at every one of the great World's Industrial Exhibitions for fourteen years (being the only American organs which have been found worthy of such at any), have effected more and greater practically valuable improvements in their organs in the last year than in any similar period since the first introduction of this instrument by them, twenty years since; and are now offering organs of higher excellence and enlarged capacity; also popular medium and smaller styles of improved quality, and at lower prices; $22, $30, $54, $60 and upwards. A New Illustrated Catalogue, 36 pp., quarto, is now ready (October, 1881), fully describing and illustrating more than 100 styles of Organs. This, with net prices, and circulars containing much information about organs generally, which will be useful to every one thinking of purchasing, will be sent free and post-paid. Address MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO., 154 Tremont St., BOSTON; 46 East 14th St., NEW YORK; or 149 Wabash Ave., CHICAGO.

A New Departure!

The Editors and Publishers of WIDE AWAKE, always leaning a listening ear for the wishes of their readers, have been persuaded for some time that the young people would gladly read a more Practical and Educational Literature in a systematic way were it offered them in a popular and enjoyable shape. For some time the Editors and Publishers have been in consultation about this matter with prominent friends of the young folks, and so long ago as last winter they resolved to establish a Reading Union for American and English Young Folks. In honor of the thousands of Chautauqua Young Folks, who have adopted this course, the Reading Union has been christened the

CHAUTAQUA YOUNG FOLKS' READING UNION. (C. Y. F. R. U.)

For the use of the Union, an illustrated supplement of sixteen pages, forming a Permanent Enlargement of Wide Awake, will appear in the magazine each month. This supplement, with certain books as named from time to time, will constitute the Required Readings, which will be supplemented by Suggested Readings. The Supplement for Reading and Work during the month of October is given in the October WIDE AWAKE, where the various attractions of the Reading Course will unfold themselves, and the purposes and pleasures of the Reading Union be seen more fully and clearly. A thousand and one pleasures will be devised for the members themselves to carry into execution.

WIDE AWAKE.

The Illustrated Monthly Magazine for Young Folks, $2.50 a Year, through thirteen volumes, has held the popular place in the hearts of the young folks, for it has been thoroughly devoted to their interests, and is every where recognized and hailed as a delightful companion and genial counsellor. The most able authors and artists stand by the side of its Editors, and never before have the treasure-boxes of the magazine been so filled with good things as now for the coming magazine year of 1882, and never before
