THE HAND THAT BOOK HALLES CRADES BUILDS THE WORLD

One of the most soundle, and at the same time most useful, suggestions for suitably commemorating the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria, is the idea promulgated by the National Council of Women, at the meeting of the Executive Committee on January 16th last. In view of the almost universal desire of Canadians to show loyalty to their justly beloved and honored Queen, it was felt that the Council, composed as its of representative women from all parts of the Dominion, should set on foot some scheme having the personal approval of Her Majesty, and which should be not only a memorial of the long and virtuous reign of a neble work, but should also be the mean of carrying comfort and succor to hundreds of sufferers throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion, a work which would be, more than anything, peculiarly accoptable to Her Majesty, whose sympathy for the sick and suffering is well known.

It was, therefore, unamimously desided that not only should an address sympathy for the sick and suffering is so well known.

It was, therefore, unanimously decided that not only should an address be presented to the Queen on behalf of the vemen of Canada, but, in consonance with the expressed wishes of Hor Majesty, the Council should endeaver to inaugurate an order of trained, devoted women who should be specially prepared for ministering to the needs of the sick and suffering in the isolated and sparsely settled districts of Canada. To this ond was instituted the "Victorian Orace of Home Helpers."

In brief, the scheme is for the establishment of an order of specially trained nurses, who shall be ready at any moment togo to small villages and out of the way country places.

The following letter from Her Excelency Lady Aberdeen, will explain the object of the Order:

There is another association in connection with the branch of the National Council of Women at Victoria, which is worthy of imitation not only by other local branches of the Council but also by outsiders and by members of the different clurch congregations.

It is called the "Friendly Help Association," and was formed for the purpose of visiting the poor in different localities in the city, and bringing the needs of the indigent under the notice of the members. One of the members one of the indigent under the other appetualing to the lady visitors. Those are regularly visited, and in this way all needy cases are brought under the notice of the Association. I agree with much that you have said, but I am not responsible for the statement about the wages of work girls. It appeared in the "Woman's Kingdom" in the Mail and Empire, and I merely commented upon it and expressed my own disbolief in it, I do not think it possible that a girl, even though an indifferent worker could work all day with a not result of only 8 cents. I am much interested in the question, and should like some statistics about the work girls if you can obtain them for me. I will insert your lotter if you will comply with my rule and forward mo your name and address, not for insertion.

There has been a great deal of disagreement from time to time about the herapeutic value of sarsaparilla. In the main, authorities deny any particular medical value to the plant. "It's just an old wives 'remedy." they cay, and in the man they are right. There are about a dozen varieties of sarsaparilla, scattered through various countries, and of this dozen only one has any real curative power. So a man whose experience might be confined to the cloven other varieties might honeatly say there was little value in them. The one valuable sarsaparila is found in Hondrans. O A. Sir.—I saw in one of the morning papers a few days ago that the County Loyal Orango Lodge held a meeting in Victoria Hall, and had the hardihood to papers a fow days ago that the County Loyal Orango Lodge held a meeting in Victoria Hall, and had the hardihood to condomn the present Government in sending the Hon. C. Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General, to Rome regarding the "settlement" of the School question. Now I am not surprised & this action of Brothers Fawcett and Howett. It would not be right to close the meeting without a little bombadment of the Church. Brothers Fawcett and Hewett. Is would not be right to close the meeting without a little bombadment of the Church. Brothers Fawcett and Hewett also may be running for office in the near future, and this will keep their names before the brothern; but it is time that this sort of thing was put a stop to. It seems to me that a member of the Government, if he be a Catbolic, cannot go to Europe but he must be going to Rome on the school question. Those gentlemen say that the school question is "settled." Then why do they interface? It might be wise in the future for the Government to consult some worthy Brother before any of its members goes to Europe. Now are regards our Separato Schools, who is the proper person to consult? There is not a fair minded Protestant in this wide Dominion but will say their pastors are the very first to be consulted on their side. The pastor knows the paront, and by knowing the paront he knows the wants of the child. And still we are asked to give children irreligious teaching and to sond them to irreligious teaching and the child the weal or of the wool millions of Carholics depend?
