

New Brunswick for over twenty years. He graduated from New York Medical College in 1880, and for a short time practised in Newcastle, N. B. In 1885 he moved to Fredericton, and on the death of Dr. Brown in 1893 was appointed medical officer to the Royal Regiment, and filled the position most ably. At the time of his death he held the rank of Lieut.-Colonel. On several occasions he acted as principal medical officer to the Militia camps at Sussex and Aldershot, N. S., and had hosts of friends among militia men. He leaves a widow, daughter of the late Hon. Allen Davidson of Newcastle, and a son. His parents reside in Halifax. Dr. McLearn was of a bright and happy disposition, and was one of the most popular practitioners, both with the laity and members of his own profession. On Monday, December 2nd, he was buried with military honors. A brief service was held at the house by Canon Roberts, and the body was borne thence to the Rural Cemetery on a gun carriage, with a firing party composed of the full strength of No. 4 company, R. C. R. I. The following officers acted as pall-bearers:—Lt.-Col. Loggie, Lt.-Col. Dunbar, Surgeon-Major Bridges and Capts. Fisher, Hawthorne and Winslow. Other officers of No. 4 company attended as mourners, with Messrs. Allen and James Davidson of Newcastle, and P. O. Inspector McDonald of Halifax, brother-in-law of deceased.

DR. FRANK D. BEER.—Another member of the profession has passed over to the majority in the person of Dr. F. D. Beer, at his residence in Charlottetown, on the 5th of December, 1901. Dr. Beer was in failing health for some time, having suffered from severe attacks of angina pectoris and heart affection. He was born in the city of Charlottetown, on December 24th, 1838, and was therefore 63 years of age. He graduated from Harvard Medical College in 1860. He resided for a short time at Centreville, Bedeque, where he married the daughter of the late Stephen Wright, and then moved to Charlottetown where he had since practised until failing health compelled him to abandon the more active duties of his calling. He was for some years a member of the Medical Council. As a citizen he was respected and highly regarded, taking a lively interest in all that made for the religious, moral and commercial advancement of the community. He was socially well connected and leaves to mourn, besides a sorrowing widow, a family of four, viz:—two sons, Frank Robert, now in
