PERSONAL.

OUR worthy Treasurer, Mr. R. Kilgour, had reached New York, on his way home from his trip to the old land; and we were anticipating much pleasure in welcoming him, when our pleasure was changed into sorrow at hearing that he had been summoned to that which has proved to be the death bed of his father. We trust that Bro. Kilgour may, in this affliction, experience all Divine consolation, and that the Father of Mercies and the God of all Comfort may be very near to him.

WORKER'S SOCIAL.

THE evening for holding this gathering has been changed from Thursday to Tuesday, so that our Worker's Training Class may not be interrupted. Last Tuesday evening's meeting was one of the best yet held. Notwithstanding the fact that so many of our friends are out of town, and that we are now in the middle of summer, there was an attendance of about 50, and the spirit of liberty was manifested throughout. God

He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Ps. cxxvi. 6.
