Special Notice.

Massion House Hotel, Baltimore, Md., 20th October, 1871.

Mr. Panes I. Fellows—Dear Sir: I have just finished the tenth and just bottle of your estimable cessation of cough — sharp pains in my back and chest, and of copa — spectoration, also, return of appetite, buoyancy of spirits, mercase of itesh and strength to perform my daily duties with a degree of pleasure unknown to me for a long time. The good I have experienced from it is beyond description, and I advise all persons afflicted with consumption notto delay a day in taking it. Feeling sure that were it not for your Hypophosphites, I would now be in my grave.

Yours truly, GEO. C. FOUT.

"THE ALDINE,"

An iliustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest Periodical in the world A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

Net for Sale in Book or New Stores.

THE ALDNE, while issued with all the regularity has none of the temporary or timely inter-stoharacterists of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant in any, pure, light and graceful iterature, and so official interaction and interest in the store of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although and hencefully Lumber affords a fresh phasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ADLINE will be nost appresent affects a fresh phasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ADLINE will be nost appresented affect that each town as claim superior heapiness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is an insique and and original conception—slone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot dupin at the quantity of fine papes and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for for times its cost, and then there are the chromos, besides t

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription ast fall, when THE ADDINE assumed it present nobio proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publisher, analous to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develope stid improve the work, and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will actonist and ulight even the most sangume friends of THE ADDINE. The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most embent attists of America. In addition, THE ADDINE will reproduce examples of the best foruga masters, selected with a view to the lightest artistic success, and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar, through photoraphs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John Davis' inmutable childs-ketches, appropriate to the flour seasons. These plates, appearing in the issue for January, April July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The pular features of a coplously illustrated "Christinas" number will be continued.

To pessess such a valuable epitome of the art world at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of a the yeard in every section of the country, but, as the usefulness and attraction of THE ALDINE will reproduce its supporters, to publisher i proposes to make "assurance double sure," by the following unparallified effort.
