is not either the members of Parliament, or the men in any other public capacity, that have made or kept a people safe and free, if they were wanting to themselves. If members are honest they deserve, and I am sure they will not want, support ; if they are corrupt, they merit, and I am sure they ought to have, blame and reprehension. We are like other men, who all want to be moved by praise or shame; by reward and punishment. We must be encouraged by our constituents, and we must be kept in awe of them, or we never shall do our duty as we ought. Believe me, it is a great truth, that there never was, for any long time, a corrupt representative of a virtuous people; or a mean, sluggish, careless people, that ever had a good government of any form. If it be true in any degree, that the second that the governors form the people, I am certain it is as true, that the people in their turn impart their character to their rulers. Such as you are, sooner or later must Parliament be." We earnestly recommend this good advice to our fellowsubjects, and, if they generally act upon it, we shall have an assembly of Doers, and not of Talkers; above all, "able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness," should be chosen, then they will be able to endure, and the people will experience, peace and prosperity.—Woodstock Monarch.

THE SOLICITOR-GENERALSHIP .- With respect to the ap-pointment of Mr. Turcotte to the office of Solicitor General, we can only say, that if it be true, as many people insist it is, that Mr. Viger went so far as to offer the appointment in question to Mr. Turcotte, and sent him on an electione expedition to Champlain, that he might beat the coverts in that ^{Apedition} to Champlain, that he might beat the coverts in that be the opinion of the supporters of the administration on such a crazy proceeding. Those who remember the language which Mr. Turcotte has repeatedly made use of in public when speak-ing of the British Government and the British population in Canada, will be at no loss to know why such an appointment would be not only distasteful but absolutely disgusting to the istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present istence a desire on the part of any one to overwhelm the present way to accomplish it could be found than to place in office men of Mr. Turcotte's stamp. For the ministry, or any one of them, to contemplate such an act would be just the commis-tion of suicide and nothing else; they might contrive to linger on after it until they were compelled to meet Parliament, but that meeting would terminate their political existence. To the ministry we tender this honest and emphatic advice, and in doing its we know that we sneak the sequiments of all that meeting would the suite of the suitable to the suitable and in doing it, we know that we speak the sentiments of all the Conservatives at least :-- If you wish to retain the affections of those who have so well supported you, your policy must be as straightforward, as disinterested, and as honest, as

and those rumours are very generally believed. We had heard them some time ago, but gave them no credence. We could not believe it possible that any such preposterous appointment could be in contemplation, and, unless the Ministry are prepared to lose the support of all honest and honourable poli-ticians, whatever may be their peculiar political views, they will never commit so grievous, so suicidal an error as to call to their assistance so double dyed a political renegade and weathercock as Mr. Turcotte will have proved himself to be by accept-ing office with them. Independent, however, of his character as a politician, Mr. Turcotte is notoriously and grossly incom-petent to perform the duties of Solicitor General: and his appointment would be an injustice to the public and a glaring insult to those who have hitherto supported the Viger-Draper administration. No, we know nothing of the intentions of the minister of the super-supe ministry, but we cannot believe them so ignorant of the state of public opinion and so careless of their own characters, as en to contemplate so outrageous an act as that of advising His Excellency to call Mr. Turcotte to his Counsels.-Herald.

The Pilot thus reiterates the original statement :- There is o doubt whatever as to the fact that Mr. Turcotte's appointment was determined on by the Government, and that he had agreed to accept it. DUELLING.—A discussion is now occupying the Montreal papers, in relation to a dispute between Mr. Kinnear, of the call. ntreal Herald, and Mr. Hart. A Mr. McDougall took up the cause of Mr. Hart, and sent a hostile message to Mr. Kinnear, or what was certain to terminate in one. Mr. Ki near at once declined to meet either party, on the just round of the absurdity of duelling. We have not attended to the circumstances of the dispute, but whatever they were, nothing can justify duelling. The world has had many hob-bies and many follies, but of them all, the practice of duelling is the most absurd. He who stands up at a duel commits two crimes in intention

The Funeral of Napoleon is the last of Mr. Winter's pro-ductions. It is a view of the interior of the Church of the Hospital of Invalids, with the Tomb erected to the memory of Nanoleon. TORONTO AND LAKE HURON RAILROAD .--- We learn from yesterday's Herald, that at the meeting of the Directors of the Toronto and Lake Huron Railroad Company, on Saturday, the following method following resolutions were adopted :---"1st. That the line of road shall commence at Toronto, and terminate at or near Port Sarnia. "2nd. That Frederick Widder, Esquire, be appointed the accredited Agent of the Company, to proceed to England to advocate the line of road adopted, to procure stock to be taken up, and in general to further the interests of the company." British Colonist.

MEETING AT ST. JOHN IN BEHALF OF THE QUEBEC SUFFERERS.—The resolutions having been disposed of, it was proposed by the Hon. Mr. Kent, and seconded by the Hon. Mr. terest in the line, advocate a similar Western terminus. We are morally convinced of the impossibility of any line paying, which will have no other terminus. If, however, English capitalists feel particularly enamoured of Goderich, let a branch run thereto, but a line must connect Toronto with Sar-nia, or some point more to the southward, or people living any-where outside the town-plot of Goderich will have but a low chair. The Sheriff, having vacated the same, returned thanks and said he would at all times be happy to attend his fellow-citizens whenever his services might be required. The meeting then, at the intimation of the Chairman, immediately proceeded must be as straightforward, as disinterested, and as honest, as has been their course in supporting you; you know that you are not too popular as it is:—beware lest you lose the ground that you have gained. Such an appointment as this would ruin you for ever.—Montreal Courier. We observe by the columns of the Pilot, the Times, and the Aurore, that rumours to the effect of Mr. Turcotte, the late member for the County of St. Maurice, having been appointed Solicitor General for Canade East are in circulation, and we find those rumours are very generally believed. We had heard strongest feelings against the hasty adoption of such a line. We are not amongst the number of those who desire to see will most readily contribute on the melancholy occasion, when

The first is a representation of Milan Cathearut. To attempt to give an adequate description of the beauties of the everal changes this picture undergoes in its transition from broad daylight to sunset, twilight and total darkness, and the effect of the moonlight on its numerous spires, giving to the whole a beautiful relief, would be futile. After undergoing the above changes, the lamps and windows of the Café, Merchants' Arcade and Cathedral, are gradually lighted, disclosing numeous figures passing to and entering the Cathedral, from whence is heard the solemn chaunting of the midnight mass : the naturalness of the scene at this point is such, that a feeling of gious awe insensibly creeps over one, delighting and asto-

The other pictures are equally beautiful. The Crucifizion may be said to be an extraordinary effort of genius, displaying the ancient City of Jerusalem and Mount Calvary, with the aree crosses erected for the crucifixion. The picture then hanges, the sky is seen to burst with lurid light, and as the acreases the figures appear on the crosses; also groups oldiers and the followers of our Saviour, forming a most im-

The fourth picture represents the Feast of Belshazzar, taken from one by Martin. To fully appreciate this picture, it must be witnessed. It cannot be described. It surpasses in gran-deur and effect, anything we have ever witnessed. The beau-tiful marble pillars, the incense-burning, the moonlight, the mysterious hand-writing on the wall, with the Tower of Babel and the Temple of Belue, are objects of universal admiration. and the Temple of Belus, are objects of universal admiration The perspective of this picture is a great achievement of art, and has been pronounced by all who have seen it, to surpass any-

THE HAMILTON CHORAL SOCIETY, on Thursday last gene-rously came forward and gave a Concert in aid of the sufferers by the late fires in Quebec. On this occasion they were ber, assisted by several ladies, who kindly volunteered their serassisted by several fadies, who kindly voluntered their ser-vices, and the programme held out strong inducements that much novelty and variety might be expected. The leader of formance, and to him the public are chiefly indebted for the manner in which the whole affair was so well executed. The instrumental music was very effective, and the performance on the Harn was quite a novelty and a treat. It is needless WEATHER AND CROPS .- For the last three days we have we had copious rains, accompanied by a warm but not oppressively high temperature. From all parts of the Lower Province are well as the Upper, we receive most favourable accounts of the growing crops. We have seen travellers from the districts on both sides of the St. Lawrence, and all assure us that the wheat is both hyuriant and totally free from the fly and the presenter. J. G. We have seen travellers from the districts on both sides of the St. Lawrence, and all assure us that the wheat is both luxuriant and totally free from the fly, and the potatoes from the rot, which did such mischief last year. Even the hay, which it at first was feared would be a failure, is luxuriating in the late genial rains. Should this promise be fulfilled, it will be a most happy thing for the farmers, for the abundance of money is most sensibly increased where there is a little to sell instead of to buy, and in the low range of prices in the English markets we must depend principally on the quantity of our exports to meet our rather heavy spring imports.—Montreal Gazette, July 26.

We regret to learn that the trip by the Goderich, on Lake Huron, to Michigan, has not been patronised. We learn that, to the great disappointment of the enterprising owners, there were only two passengers. This is certainly discouraging, but we hope for better things when the time for the second pleasure trip arrives, -some time in August, as advertised.

THE LATE FIRE IN NEW YORK .- In addition to the details published in our last number we are enabled to communicate the following particulars which have since reached us through the medium of local newspapers :-

The flames soon crossed Broadway and burned all the build ings from Morris street to No. 13. From the latter building extended west towards Greenwich, but fortunately did not reach that street, its progress being stopped in that direction. The whole number of buildings destroyed on both sides of Broadway is ascertained to be thirty-five; in Beaver street about fifty buildings were consumed. It is impossible to give any thing like a correct account of individual losses or to arrive at an accurate estimate of the loss in the aggregate. Opinions vary very widely as they always do in such cases, and even a calculation based on an average hot more the minimum and maximum amounts mentioned. between the minimum and maximum amounts mentioned, would be unsafe, for we have heard them guessed at from two millions to fifteen. The best opinion seems to be that the to--the tal loss cannot be less than three or larger than ten millions ome of dollars. It will undoubtedly reach five. The Insurance Offices will suffer heavily of course, and some of them to the whole amout of their capital.

We learn through Mr. Oelrich, the Hamburgh Consul, that in the store occupied by him and Mr. Cruger, there were at the time of the explosion, a large number of men, that, not believ-ing the fire would reach his premises, he went out a moment before the explosion, leaving these unfortunate men withinbefore the explosion, leaving these unfortunate men within-every one of whom he believes perished. He thinks there were forty or fifty, but we hope he is in error as to that large num-ber. Mr. Groning, of the firm of Pavenstadt & Groning, is understood to be one of the victims, and two men so burnt and
