Nerviline cures promptly the worst cases of neuralgia, toothache, lumbago, and sciatica.

The exercise of every faculty is necessary to its development, and therefore to its life. Inaction, fully carried out, means stagnation and death. On the other hand, over exercise of any part tends to exhaustion, and, if the period of rest necessary to restore its vigor be denied, it will wear itself out. Health and happiness require that these laws be recognised and obeyed.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous complaints, and having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Evils in the journey of life are like the hills which alarm travelers upon the road; they appear great at a distance, but when we approach them we find that they are far less formidable than we had imagined.

To FARMERS AND HOASEMEN.—Minard's Liniment, the great horse and cattle remedy, cures bruises, sprains, soreness, lameness, stiffness, swellings, scratches, colic, cramps, stoppage of bowels or urinary organs; and relieves all painful ailments to live stock as require internal and external remedies.

Wastefulness is a sin. What we have we have on trust; we are stewards, not owners, and it is our duty to use all with conscientious discretion as the Proprietor wills.

I can tell you, but you will never know the remarkable hair-producing qualities of Minard's Liniment until you or your friends have used it. As a hair dressing it is perfectly clean, makes the hair soft and glossy, removes dandruff and prevents hair from falling.

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

A white garment appears worse with slight soiling than do colored garments much soiled; so a little fault in a good man attracts more attention than grave offences in bad men.

Duty performed gives clearness and firmness to faith, and faith thus strengthened through duty becomes the more assured and satisfying to the soul.

When a writer says a certain thing is impossible to describe and then uses half a column in its description, he doubtless means that nobody but himself could describe it. Not so with Minard's Liniment, for when we say it is the King or Conqueror of all pains, we describe it in brief.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND TEACHING.

By the Very Rev. Jas Carmichael, D.C.L., Dean of Montreal. Paper 10c. Drysdale & Co., Montreal.

The Tract was written to meet the need of the many persons drifting into the Church from other Christian bodies, without a clear realization of the great landmarks of Her distinctive teaching. It condenses into a small and readable space what every one professing to belong to the Church of England should naturally realize and understand.

THE TEACHEPS' ASSISTANT

To Explain and Illustrate the Canadian Church Sunday School Lessons, adopted by our Provincial Synod of Canada, Sept. 16th, 1889.

Price only 30 cents per annum.

Brimful of interesting matter on every Sunday's Lesson.

No Sunday-school Teacher who tries it will be without it.

The Bishop of Toronto thus writes respecting the Assistant:

"I strongly commend it to the notice of the Clergy of the Diocese, hoping that they will promote its circulation among their Teachers."

The Bishop of Algoma says:

"The Assistant" is certain to prove a valuable aid to conscientious Sunday School Teachers. Designed (as its name implies) to stimulate but not to supersede careful preliminary study of the lesson, it opens up new lines of thought, which cannot fail to give solidity to the instruction conveyed in the Sunday School that use it."

The Bishop of Niagara says:

"The Teachers' Assistant" will be valued by all who feel the need of their own minds being stimulated and informed before going to the class in the Sunday-school.
