

GRIP

VOL. XXXVI

TORONTO, JUNE 13, 1891.

No. 24.
Whole No. 939.

"GAGGED."

"Prohibition is a great moral issue. Considerations of revenue should not be permitted to stand in the way of abolishing the liquor crime."—Foster, the citizen.

"I believe in the principle of prohibition, but the great practical question confronts us—how can the loss of the revenue be made up?"—Foster, the minister.