GRIP'S GALLERY OF NOTABLES

MR. M. C. CAMERON

ROOM No. 6 in the Parliament Building at Ottawa misses some of its familiar habitues this session. The genial Trow, always full of business, but never so busy as to be unable to bestow the most whole-souled hospitality on every casual visitor, is looked for in vain, and the sunlight cannot seem the same to the Grit members who gather there. Next to Trow, Mr. M. C. Cameron is conspicuous by his absence. Cameron, albeit cast in a sterner mould, and being most in his element when fighting with a true Highlandman's ferocity on the floor of the House, was ranked as one of the best fellows in No. 6, where he frequently repaired to smoke his cigar and crack his joke. His absence is accounted for by the fact that Hon. J. C. Patterson is using the seat for West Huron just now. Mr. Cameron is a prominent lawyer of Goderich, and stands close up to the leaders of the Reform party as a politician. He is a particular crony of Sir Richard Cartwright, and a man of high character and fine ability. His defeat was one of the severest blows received by his party in the bye-elections.

F. SIMPSON, Esq., Fruit Merchant, 713 Yonge St., says:—"I was a sufferer from rheumatism. My physician recommended St. Leon Water, it has cured me. I have recommended it to several of my friends, it has cured them. I would not be without it." Send in your orders. St. Leon is all-powerful to remove those life-deströying poisons. No such word as fail in our dictionary.
