NOTICE.

As the Consolation Prizes are for the last sets of correct answers received, which will not reach us in time to announce the awards in this issue, we must, therefore, hold them over, until our May number, when they will appear in full.

TO PRIZE WINNERS.

Prize winners in these Biblical competitions are requested to send 12 cents for postage on books, and 25 cents for postage and registration on watches, as soon as names appear. On larger rewards rates will be made known on application.

"Women," it is said, "jump at conclusions." We never heard mice called by that name before.

"Is it possible, miss, that you do not know the names of some of your best friends?" inquired a gentleman of a lady. "Certainly," she replied; "I don't even know what my own will be a year hence."

"I'd like to give you a piece of my mind, Mrs. Smiggs." "I wouldn't talk of impossibilities, Mr. Smiggs. The article you speak of is too small to be vided."

Fall River Advance: "Patti eats onions." We now begin to comprehend that weary, wish-I-could-go-and-drown-myself look which always gathers in the eyes of the tenor fellow when the little diva puts up her rosebud mouth for a stage kiss.
