

WIT AND HUMOR
An old doctor, being asked by a young one what was the best sign to put over his door, replied: "The smallest fevers gratefully received."

Philadelphia brags of having the most cleanly-servant girls. They always hire, with the understanding that the mistress is to do the dirty work.

A bull rushed into a millinery store, causing a stampede among the ladies present. The lady in charge drove the bovine gentleman out by exhibiting the price of a winter bonnet.

A party of Sioux Indians stole a patent ice cream freezer, thinking it was a hand organ, and all the big medicine men turned the crank a week before they concluded there was no music in it.

New York boards object to the pudding being mixed in a coal-scuttle, on the ground that in these hard times the waste of fuel consequent upon the pieces being cooked with the pudding is a flagrant neglect of the poor.

A school in Vermont is presided over by a cross-eyed teacher. A few days ago he called out: "That boy that I am looking at will step out on the floor." Immediately twenty-seven lads walked out in front of the astonished pedagogue.

When they asked old Bill Kennedy, of Rocky Gulch, Nevada, if he would allow the neighbors to hold a spelling match in his upstairs front room, he just took down his gun, and feeling of the lock, said "Let 'em come; let 'em come."

A paper in Southern Illinois regrets that it went to press "one day too early to record the death of John Bates." This note quite as cool as the paper which: "Just as we are going to press John Smith is being run over by the cars."

A Pittsfield lawyer drew a writ the other day, which deputy a sheriff went to serve, and found the party had been dead a week or two. The officer returned the paper endorsed: "Present place of residence unknown."

Corpulent old lady—"I should like a ticket for the train." Booking clerk (who thinks he will make a joke)—"Yes; will you go in the passenger train or cattle train?" Lady—"Well, if you are a specimen of what I shall experience in the passenger train, give me a ticket for the cattle train by all means."

I shall insist upon a quiet and very unostentatious wedding," said Miss Wiggle to her future mother-in-law. "Ma has ordered 1,600 cards for the church and only half as many for our reception at Delmonico's. Tiffany's man will see that the presents are arranged where all can see them, and I think Barnstein's is the best orchestra we can hire. I shall wear white silk, and my six bridesmaid's white tulle. Pa says a bishop and two clergymen will be ample to perform the ceremony, and—" She paused, for the mother-in-law elect had left the room to search for her son. There is a rumor that an engagement is "off."—New York Mail.

DOMINION BUILDING SOCIETY, Office, 55 St. James Street, MONTREAL. APPROPRIATION STOCK—Subscribed Capital $3,000,000. PERMANENT STOCK—$100,000—Open for Subscription. Shares $100.00 payable ten per cent quarterly. Dividends of nine or ten per cent can be expected by Permanent Shareholders; the demand for money at high rates equivalent by compound interest to 14 or 16 per cent, has been so great that up to this date the Society has been unable to supply all applicants, and that the Directors, in order to procure more funds, have deemed it profitable to establish the following rates in the SAVINGS DEPARTMENT:

For sums under $500 00 lent at short notice 6 per cent. For sums over $500 00 lent on short notice 5 " " For sums over $25 00 up to $5,000 00 lent for fixed periods of over three months 7 " " As the Society lends only on Real Estate of the very best description, it offers the best of security to Investors at short or long dates. In the Appropriation Department, Books are now selling at $10 premium. In the Permanent Department, Shares are now at par; the dividends, judging from the business done up to date, shall send the Stock up to a premium, thus giving to Investors more profit than if they invested in Bank Stock. Any further information can be obtained from F. A. QUINN, Secretary-Treasurer.
