

The firm of Davidson & Lessie, sash and door manufacturers at Mount Forest, dissolved in January, 1892. Since that date William Davidson has continued, but his chattels being mortgaged, he is now compelled to assign. —Samuel Suddaby has been for twenty years in the grocery and cattle business in Brantford, but his lax custom of granting credit has at last brought him into trouble, and he now assigns. —It is nearly three years since Hull & Ferguson opened a grocery at Fort Erie. The latter being a practical tailor, bought a stock of cloth, etc. A few days before they assign a Hamilton firm secures itself with a chattel mortgage of $1,475. —In February, 1891, W. R. Cavana, general storekeeper, Victoria Road, became involved through the failure of Boyd Bros. & Co. and assigned. The estate paid in full and left him a surplus of $1,000. Unfortunately of late he has not been so attentive to business as formerly, and in June last he gave a chattel mortgage which is now being closed. —Some years ago James McLaughlin failed at Port Robinson. From there he went to Beamsville and continued his shoe business. Last June he moved to the International Bridge, where he has been unsuccessful, and now assigns. —Another shoe dealer, Henry King, of Oshawa, at a meeting of creditors here on Tuesday, was generous enough to offer them five per cent. of their claims. The reply was not in mild terms: "Go home and assign." It is surprising that a man having a fair record should make an attempt of this sort.

JAMES FERGUSON and Edwin Hill, doing business under the style of the Toronto Plate Glass Importing Company, have become involved through the real estate operations of one of the partners, and assign to E. R. C. Clarkson. They have liabilities of $75,000 and nominal assets $25,000 in excess of this sum. —After doing a small tailoring business for a number of years, Wm. Balkwell wanted to compromise with creditors at 30 per cent., but as this would not be accepted, he assigned. —Mary S. Campbell is the name of the mother of A. D. Campbell, who failed about two years ago as a grocer. Then the mother bought the stock at 30 per cent. Since then, his management has been unsuccessful again and she assigns. —About eight years ago James McArthur started a furniture store and did fairly well for some time. Last year he added the stock of the R. F. Pieper Furniture Co. amounting to $8,000. This was evidently too much for his means, and a chattel mortgage had to be given. This is now foreclosed. —Henry R. Jones, of the firm of Kemp, Jones & Peck, cider manufacturers, applies to the Court to have an account of partnership dealing taken and the appointment of a receiver.
