

ministration of the exhibition and the commissioner or delegate of the country concerned are agreed that such representation is not justified by the extent of its participation in that class.

No country may have more than seven jurors in any one class; this limitation shall not, however, apply to the classes of food products, liquid and solid.

2. The functions of juror shall be assigned to persons having the necessary technical knowledge.
3. Jurors may not be appointed except with the approval of their Government.
4. The jury shall comprise three grades of jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 30

The awards shall be divided into five grades:—

1. Grands prix.
2. Diplomas of honour.
3. Gold medals.
4. Silver medals.
5. Bronze medals.

In addition, diplomas may be awarded, on the recommendation of exhibitors gaining awards or of members of the jury, to their collaborators and co-operators.

Persons appointed as members of the jury may describe themselves as such in all cases where exhibitors are authorized to mention their awards.

The description "hors concours" is henceforth prohibited both for members of the jury and for exhibitors who have abstained from competing for awards.

ARTICLE 31

The list of awards shall be registered at the International Bureau. The recipients of awards may only announce their awards on condition that such announcement includes the exact title of the exhibition. They shall be authorized to add to such announcement the monogram of the International Bureau. The International Exhibitions Bureau shall inform the International Industrial Property Bureau at Berne of the exhibitions registered, and shall send that Bureau the lists of awards.

ARTICLE 32

The International Bureau shall establish model regulations setting forth the general conditions for the composition and functioning of juries and determining the method of granting awards. The adoption of such regulations shall be recommended to organizing countries.

Section VI.—Final Provisions

ARTICLE 33

The present convention shall be subject to ratification:—

- (a) Each Government, as soon as it is ready to take part in a deposit of ratifications, shall so notify the French Government. As soon as seven Governments shall have so declared themselves ready, the deposit of ratifications shall take place, on a day appointed by the French Government, within a month of the date of the receipt by that Government of the last notification.
